

Local News

TEMPERATURE Maximum yesterday, 67 degrees Minimum last night, 33 degrees

TODAY'S WEATHER Temperature: 10 p. m. 38 degrees; 10 a. m. 42 degrees. Velocity of wind: 10 p. m. 2 miles; 10 a. m. 21 miles.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Chittim, 597 Hill street, left for Boise, Idaho, this morning. In Boise, Chittim is to take over the duties of division superintendent for the Trailways bus system. He was assistant superintendent here.

Loren Haneline and family of Shevlin, were guests today at the Pilot Butte Inn. Haneline is with the U. S. Forest service at Shevlin.

City Attorney Ross Farnham is spending the week-end in Portland.

Miss Elizabeth Beaver, secretary in the Bend chamber of commerce offices, today left for Portland to be with her mother, Mrs. Anna Beaver, who yesterday was discharged from the St. Vincent's hospital, where she had undergone an operation. Mrs. Beaver planned to remain in Portland for about a week before returning to Bend.

John Taylor and Leon Lassers of the state department of education, and Mrs. Ethel Fortner, of the state school for blind, were here today from Salem conferring with Dr. Wayne S. Ramsey, Deschutes county public health officer.

Miss Barbara Settem, staff assistant in the child welfare division of the state public welfare commission, conferred Tuesday and Wednesday in the offices of the Deschutes county public welfare commission.

Miss Adell Hagner, student at the University of Southern California, arrived here from the south yesterday for a visit with her sister, Mrs. C. Dale Robbins. Miss Hagner stopped en route to Portland.

Mrs. Barbara Steinhauser returned last night from a trip to Portland.

Miss Jean Lancaster arrived here today from the Washington State college at Pullman, to spend the spring vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Lancaster, Gateway Motel.

G. F. (Jerry) Maddox, coxswain, U. S. navy, has returned to San Francisco, Calif., after spending a 21-day leave at the home of his fiancée, Miss Eva

Church Prepares Easter Cantata

A feature of evening services at the Methodist church Sunday will be the presentation of an Easter choir cantata, "The Story of Easter According to St. Matthew," by Ellen Jane Lorenz. This cantata will be presented by the church choir, directed by T. D. Sexton.

The cantata will start at 8 p. m., with the following taking part: Solo parts: Mrs. Edith Whitcomb, Mrs. George F. Euston, Miss Martha Marten and T. D. Sexton. Readings are given by: Miss Shirley Fossen and Miss Marten. Those taking part are: Miss Mina Rasmussen, Mrs. Fred Hall, Mrs. George Euston, Mrs. Robert McIlvenna, Mrs. Mildred Strunk, Mrs. Edith Whitcomb, Mrs. M. F. Lyons, Miss Maureen Lyons, Miss Shirley Fossen, Miss Anna May Ryman, Miss Martha Marten, Miss Helen Larson, Mrs. C. V. Silvis, Randall Craig and Don Hirtzel, Organist, Mrs. T. D. Sexton; director, T. D. Sexton.

- 1. Take Up Thy Cross! b. Jesus, I My Cross Have Taken. 2. Prophecy of Easter week. 3. a. Palm Sunday, b. All Glory, Laud and Honor. 4. Confession of the High Priests and Judas. 5. a. The Last Supper, b. Bread of the World, in Mercy Broken. 6. Peter's Promise. 7. a. Getsemane, b. Go to Dark Getsemane. 8. a. The arrest, b. The Accusation, c. The Verdict. 9. a. Peter's Denial, b. In the Hour of Trial. 10. Judas' Repentance. Offertory, Were You There, Lorenz.

- 11. a. Pilate and the Multitude, b. Beneath the Cross of Jesus. 12. a. The Death, b. When I Survey the Wondrous Cross. 13. The Resurrection. 14. Worship of the Risen Christ. 15. The Easter Benediction.

At the First Baptist church, Floyd Arnold will conduct the closing series of the spiritual life crusade held there, and at 11 a. m. will speak on "The Resurrection and Life." There will be special closing services at 2:45 p. m., with "Sins Against the Holy Spirit" as his topic. From Bend, Rev. Arnold will go to Redmond Sunday night to conduct services in the Baptist church.

Dodson, 155 Delaware, Maddox, who was aboard a hospital evacuation ship, just returned to the states after 17 months overseas where he took part in the invasions of Palau, Saipan, Leyte and Luzon. Coxswain Maddox will return to the Pacific some time in April. He attended Bend high school and enlisted in the navy Aug. 8, 1943.

Wilma Jacobson, member of the Bend high school teaching staff, returned to Bend today after spending the spring holiday visiting her parents in Eugene. Mrs. Jack L. Chute and daughter, Jackie, returned last night from Portland, where they visited with relatives over the Easter holidays.

C. Dale Robbins, director of music in the Bend schools, returned on Friday evening by bus from a trip to Portland.

Miss Elizabeth Brennan arrived last night from Stillwater, Minn., for a visit in Bend with her sister, Mrs. Otis S. Lammers, 740 Riverside. Miss Brennan is recovering from injuries recently received in an automobile accident. She has visited Bend on several other occasions.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Jewell have returned from Portland where they spent several days of the spring school vacation. Jewell is principal of the Bend high school.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Chambers have returned from Walla Walla, Wash., where they visited their son, T/Sgt. Bob Chambers, a patient at the McCaw hospital. Wounded in Luzon fighting, Sgt. Chambers was brought to the mainland by airplane. His condition is reported good and he expects to visit his home here in a few weeks.

Funeral services for Mrs. J. L. Samples will be held Sunday afternoon at 3 p. m., from the Missionary Baptist church and burial will be in the Greenwood cemetery. Mrs. Samples, 73, died Thursday following a long illness.

Dance at Eastern Star Grange hall Saturday nights. Ladies free. Adv

Vacation Over; Schools to Open

With the knowledge that there will be no more vacations until school is out on May 25, some 2,000 Bend school children today were preparing to resume their studies next Monday when the schools reopen after a week of spring vacation.

Howard W. George, city superintendent of schools, said that the return of the students to both the grade and high schools on Monday will not be marked by any special events.

"Just settle down to work," he said.

JANET SMITH DEAD Eugene, Ore., March 31 (AP)—Miss Janet Smith, known to hundreds of University of Oregon students as employment secretary of the school since 1933, died today after a lengthy illness.

NEWS OF SOCIETY

(All society items should be reported to The Bulletin not later than 10 a. m. on the days of publication, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays.)

Concordia Chapter Honors Twenty-Fifth Anniversary

Madras, March 31 (Special)—In commemoration of the 25th anniversary of Concordia chapter which was organized March 27, 1919, a large group of Masons, Eastern Stars and invited guests attended the dinner program sponsored last Saturday evening. Following a potluck dinner for the Eastern Stars and their families, a program was presented for members and guests. Charter of honor, were escorted to seats. Mrs. Edna Taylor, worthy matron, read the minutes. Readings were given by Miss Rosea Richardson and Mrs. Kenneth W. Sawyer, the grad school girls' glee club presented two numbers and the audience joined in group singing.

Gives Background Worthy Patron A. D. Anderson sketched the history of the chapter, reporting that when a group of 39 Masons and future Eastern Stars met on the evening of March 27, 1919, in the identical room in which the local group was meeting, Worthy Grand Patron Earl Kiddie and Worthy Grand Matron Alberta S. McMurphy organized the Order of the Eastern Star in Madras. At that first session installing officers were: Mrs. Bessie Cutlip, worthy grand secretary; Mrs. Ada F. Roberts, worthy grand organist; Mrs. Olive B. Fuller, worthy grand chaplain. Those installed as the first officers for Concordia chapter were: Fannie J. Kane, worthy

Girls' League Figures in School Events

Prineville, March 31 (Special)—Important events preceding the close of the school year occurred recently at the Crook county high school with the results of the Girls' league election leading the pre-vacation parade.

The most impressive list of honors ever conferred on girls by the Crook county high were announced recently with the nomination of Georgiann Boyce as president-elect of the league. Averaged senior scholastic standings place Carl Abel as valedictorian and Jean Graffenberger, salutatorian. The student council nominated Suzanne Michel to serve as editor of the Blue and Gold Banner.

Sponsors Dance The Girls league also figured in providing the high light of the high school social calendar with the spring formal dance staged last Friday in the school auditorium as couples danced in a setting of Easter motifs and spring colors. The grand march was led by patron and patroness, Dr. and Mrs. R. R. Hunter, Jean Graffenberger and Gilbert Baker were awarded first prize for the smoothest waltz and second and third honors went to Mariel Westberg and Herbert Henry and Suzanne Michel and Ward Sybouts, respectively. Mr. and Mrs. Otis McKinnon provided the dance music.

Royal Neighbors To Meet The Royal Neighbors of America are to meet in Norway hall on Monday, April 2, officers have announced. On the entertainment committee will be Mrs. Mark Mazur, Mrs. Maude Miller and Mrs. N. T. Murray. Members of the entertainment committee are Mrs. M. B. Smith and Mrs. Roy Walter.

Union County Couple Marry—Two residents of Union county, Arthur R. Wilson and Sylvia Dora Blacker, were united in marriage Thursday by Justice of the Peace Wilson George.

BUCKAROO ROUND-UP DANCE Sisters Gymnasium Sisters, Oregon Sat. Nite—March 31 Music By Rusty Madrell's Orchestra Sponsored by Sisters Rodeo Association

Shevlin Quality PONDEROSA PINE Lumber and Box Shooks

SOCIAL CALENDAR

- Monday 2:30 p. m.—Episcopal guild, home of Mrs. Carl Johnson, 424 Congress. 8 p. m.—Annual Easter bridge party sponsored by the Trinity Episcopal guild in the parish hall. Public invited. Obtain tickets from any guild member or call Mrs. G. A. Horstkotte, 264-W. Tuesday 8 p. m.—Degree of Honor lodge executive meeting, home of Mrs. Clifford Brown, 1237 Cumberland. Wednesday 2:30 p. m.—W.S.C.S. will meet at the Methodist church. Devotions will be read by Mrs. L. L. Hirtzel and Mrs. M. F. Lyons will be in charge of the program. Hostesses will be group three, and the subject is to be "Hast Thou Not Known?" 7:30 p. m.—D. A. V. and auxiliary in special invitation meeting in the veterans' room at the courthouse. Thursday 7:30 p. m.—Meeting of Camp Fire Guardians at Pilot Butte Inn. Catholic Group to Meet—Circle No. 4 of the Catholic Altar society will meet Wednesday at 8 p. m. with Mrs. Wilfred Joanis, 1212 Milwaukie.

War 2 Veterans Get Invitation

Veterans of World War II who are in this community at the time are invited to attend a special meeting of the Disabled American Veterans and its auxiliary next Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. in the veterans' room at the courthouse. It was announced today by Mrs. Willard Higgins, president of the auxiliary. Willard Higgins is commander of the post, and he urged all members of the organization to attend the joint meeting. Accordian music will feature the evening, as well as performances by a sleight-of-hand performer. Louis H. Helphrey, veterans' service officer for Deschutes county, and a veteran of this war, will be principal speaker, it was announced.

TAVERN OPERATOR FINED A charge of unlawfully selling liquor to a minor lodged against W. H. Hannon, Sisters tavern operator, resulted in a $250 fine plus court costs levied against him by Justice of the Peace Wilson George. The complaint, filed by W. F. McGregor, deputy sheriff at Sisters, purported that Hannon provided the liquor to Jewel Denver France, 16, also of Sisters.

Extension Ordered In Coal Wage Pact

Washington, March 31 (AP)—The war labor board today ordered an unlimited extension of the soft coal wage contract which expires at midnight with full retroactive pay to the miners for any wage increases finally agreed upon. The board specified that "the parties shall continue the uninterrupted production of coal." The contract extension, the order said, shall run "until the differences that now separate the parties are peacefully and finally resolved." The board also asked both the mine union and the operators to report to it next Saturday on what progress they have made in continued negotiations which will resume next Monday morning. If negotiations break down, WLB said it would fix a hearing date before the board for final settlement of the disputed issues.

CAPITOL 3 DAYS STARTING TOMORROW CONTINUOUS 1 TO 11 P. M. "THE WISEST MEN CAN BE LED BY A DANCING GIRL" (Proverb) Works Today, Too! Ronald COLMAN KISMET with MARLENE DIETRICH JAMES CRAIG - EDWARD ARNOLD IN TECHNICOLOR Ends Tonight ABBOTT and COSTELLO "LOST IN A HAREM"

TOWER 2 DAYS ONLY STARTING TOMORROW Continuous Show From 1 P. M. LOOK DEEP INTO HER EYES... if you dare! THE STRANGEST CRIME AND PUNISHMENT THE SCREEN HAS EVER SHOWN! George SANDERS Linda DARNELL in Anton Chekov's SUMMER STORM ANNA LEE Hugo Haas Edw. Everett HORTON Ends Tonight "Follow The Fleet" and "Mark Of The Whistler"

Easter GREETINGS On this Easter let each of us go to the church of our faith and offer up our prayers for the rebirth of Peace and the safe return of our loved ones overseas in the name of Him whose resurrection gave hope to the world. Gregg's BANNER BREAD

ORDER FUEL NOW! FOR USE THIS SPRING AND FOR LATER GREEN SLABS Per Load $300 (200 Cubic Foot Loose Measure) BUY BONDS NOW! Your purchases of E Bonds during April, May and June will help to make our quota in the Seventh War Loan. Buy all you can. The Miller Lumber Company 821 Wall Street Phone 166