Liquor Issues Steady Market

By Elmer C. Walzer

New York, March 31 (IP — Strength in liquor shares featured a firm, quiet session on the stock market today.

Gains ranged to 3 points in Schenley, which responded to a favorable earnings report. Park & Tilford rose 2 points, Distillers Corporation-Seagrams, more than a point, and American Distilling, a point. Traders anticipate an-other liquor holiday when V-E day comes.

The leading groups registered small net gains, including the rails, steels, motors, utilities, and olls. None of these sections produced large volume and few individual shares had significant. vidual shares had significant vidual shares had significant turnover, reflecting the absence of many traders for a long week-end holiday.

Some of the sugars moved ahead, notably Holly which made a new high on a gain of more than a point. American Airlines equaled its high in a steady to firm air transport section. Du Pont gained more than a point in
