Debt Limit Put At 300 Billion

Washington, April 4 (UP)—President Roosevelt has approved legislation raising the federal debt limit from $260,000,000 to $300,000,000, the White House announced today.

The debt now stands at $235,000,000. Budget bureau estimates forecast a debt of $292,000,000 at the end of the 1946 fiscal year—June 30, 1946.

Government receipts and expenditures in March both were the highest in history. Total net receipts were $6,892,252,678. Receipts for February were $3,766,772,666.51.

Total government expenditures in March were $9,532,699,330.91. The previous high mark was in May, 1944, when expenditures were $8,291,640,559.85.

March war activities came to $8,245,939,462.59. May, 1944, was also the previous high for war spending—$7,879,293,621.53.

Homemaking

"Hand in glove" is the easiest way to launder most washable fabric and leather gloves, reports Miss Elizabeth H. Boeckl, home demonstration agent of Deschutes county. Good gloves are among the scarce articles now, hence laundering is more important.

Cotton and rayon gloves usually wash well, and many varieties of washable leather gloves are now on sale—including pigskin in light or natural color, cape, chamol, doekskin, except in deep dyes, white buckskin, goatskin and calfskin. Never attempt to wash a pair of leather gloves, however, unless they are stamped "washable" on the label or inside the glove, or are sold as washable, warns Miss Boeckl. Gloves which have once been dry cleaned cannot be washed successfully. Kid gloves always require dry cleaning.

Frequent laundering is advisable because severe soil makes rubbing necessary which may injure the finish or roughen the surface. Gloves may be washed according to special directions given by the manufacturer, or by following these general suggestions:

Wash gloved hands in mild, lukewarm suds, squeezing and pressing, but not rubbing or brushing. Exceptions to the hand-in-glove rule are chamol and doekskin. Wash these off the hands, because they soften when wet and may stretch or tear.

When gloves are clean, peel them off gently from the wrist. Filling gloves with water while they're still on the hands makes peeling easier. Wash gloves inside if necessary. Then turn right side out and rinse in lukewarm water until water is free from soap. Some manufacturers advise a light soapy last rinse for chamol, doekskin and pigskins. Others recommend a little glycerin in the last rinse to soften and restore gloss to pigskin.

Running water from the faucet into the glove helps to straighten fingers. Don't wring or twist—roll gloves in a turkish towel to take up extra moisture. Fabric gloves may then be put on metal glove driers, hung evenly over a rod, or laid on a flat surface to dry advises Miss Boeckl.

To dry leather gloves, gently stretch them lengthwise and blow into each glove to shape it. Lay gloves flat on a dry turkish towel away from heat or sunlight. If cuffs or stitching are in contrasting colors, stuff white tissue paper inside. When gloves are almost dry, "finger-press" them by stretching the leather gently in both directions. Or, work them onto the hands to shape and soften them; then remove carefully and lay out to finish drying.

Youth Club Notes

By Ruth Ann Terlisner

Be sure to attend the short, but important, mass meeting Thursday night at 7:30. It is necessary to have all members attend in order to vote on accepting the proposed constitution. We all want good rules, so let's be there to see that we get them.

Are you interested in forming a ping pong club? If so, get in touch with Barbara Terlisner. Tuesday night will be set aside especially for members belonging to the club to meet and play ping pong. All who can play or are interested in learning are invited to join.

Many ambitious, hardy girls and boys are signing up for the softball club. The girls are hoping to give the boys a little competition, reports Shirley Blakely, girls' subscriber. Any boys who are interested are asked to get in touch with Bob Sutton.

Joann Bousha, social chairman, announced that the spring dance has been postponed from April 7 to April 14. Nan Preede heads the decoration committee; Madelyn Wing, clean-up, and Maureen Lyons, entertainment. With everyone participating the dance will be headed for a big success. Let's see what we can do!

Where have the snack bar girls disappeared to? They haven't been around for some time. It seems their help is still needed every day, although we still haven't been able to install an ice cream freezer.

Monday night the council met with the advisory group to discuss problems and make plans to help the community. Those attending were Mrs. P. N. Armstrong, Phil E. Brogan, and R. E. Jewell, Philip Brogan, high school president, was present—a success this week's guest.

Spring vacation was a quiet time for the club, with many members out of town and many busy working. It's beginning to look more natural now with all the old stand-bys returning to their regular visits.

Have you seen a new face around the ping pong tables or playing only the jazz records? If so, it's Johnnie Badger, a junior in high school, who just arrived from California. We sincerely hope you like it here, Johnnie.

Guam Girls Aid At Switchboards

Guam, Wednesday, April 4 (UP)—A correspondent picked up the press phone at press headquarters here and then exclaimed: "oh, my smoke—woman telephone operator." A check revealed the signal corps had hired 14 Guam girls at $40 a month to act as "hello girls." Most of them are just learning switchboard routine, but one of them, Angeleno Atougue, worked on telephones for the navy as far back as 1929.

Said one of the communications officers: "there'll be a marked increase in polite phrases while using the phone around here from now on."
