Analyzing situations in the Phil dealings in those countries. Dr. Norman F. Coleman, member of the faculty of the Lewis and Clark one month run, same copy, ½ day rate Minimum Charge, 35¢ the faculty of the Lewis and Clark college in Portland, today ad-dressed 65 interested listeners at a noon-day luncheon in the Pine Tavern. Dr. Coleman's appearance here was sponsored by the League of Women Voters and the Ameri-can Association of University Women

Women. Dr. Coleman said that he based his opinions upon observations made on three trips across the Pacific, and his study of the coun-tries while there. He said that world peace would never follow until the people of the United States tried to get a better under-standing of the Japs, and con-tended that this country should try to remake the Nippon country into a democracy. He said that Japan's principal problems are difficult terrain necessitating sea commerce, and its political and re-
