Take New Slump

(United Press Staff Correspondent)
New York, April 19 (IP)—Stocks onds and commodities turned lown shortly before the close of down shortly before the close of trading today, after the general stock list had risen to a furthernew high for almost eight years. Lower prices generally reflected selling prompted by the highly fluid situation in Germany. Caution developed in the markets following the hurried visit to the White House of General of the Army George C. Marshall on the beels of Prime Minister Church-

"At times, when collecting, I had to be on the alert for an occasional Jap sniper," Cpl. McDonald wrote. "We were warned, too, to watch out for head hunters, who back in the hills still pursue their traditional practices."

their traditional practices.
"There are many ways of net-ting butterflies. One, not too sportsmanlike, is to smear molasses and stale beer on a tree trunk. The molasses attracts them and the beer makes them giddy, so that they are easily taken.

"Many tropical butterflies, par-ticularly the most brilliant, produces a very exquisite perfume, presumably from androconia or scent scales on the wings. Some scent scales on the wings, some scents are spicy; others are like mignonette, heliotrope, violet, or sandaiwood. Unfortunately, the perfume disappears when the insect dies. The average age of the tropical butterfly is only about eight weeks," he added.
