rapidly. Both their primary and secondary defense lines east of the capital had been shattered. They said the Russians were "vastly superior in men and material."

From Moscow, United Press war correspondent M. S. Handler cabled:

"The final breakthrough is expected over the week-end."

He said great aerial battles were swirling over the eastern approaches to Berlin as the Germans hurled their last, hoarded aircraft into a vain attempt to halt the on-rushing soviet.

Johannes Steel, an American radio commentator broadcasting from Paris, said an agreement had been reached that the red army would be the first to enter Berlin. He predicted the Russians would by-pass the city and enter it from the north.

In order to protect its staff from "the moral dangers of the street" which might be encountered during lunch hour, the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Co. of Newark, N. J., started serving noontime meals to employees in the office in 1869. The practice still continues.

Miss Eldora DeMots, Camp Fire Girls national associate field secretary of the northwestern district, will arrive in Bend, Wednesday noon, April 25. Events already scheduled for her four day visit with local Camp Fire Girls and their leaders include the Grand Council Fire, Wednesday night at the Bend Roller rink at 7 p. m. Members from Redmond, Shevlin, Prineville and Bend will participate in this event. On Thursday Miss DeMots will meet with Bend leaders for individual conferences. In the evening a dinner will be held at the Pine Tavern at 7 p. m. for all council members and guardians in this district. Friday Miss DeMots will spend with the Camp Fire workers in Prineville.

One of the most important of Miss DeMots' duties is the recruiting of new volunteer leaders for Camp Fire Girls in her territory, which includes Washington, Oregon, Montana and Idaho. For the past two years she has been one of the directors of the training course for Camp Fire Girls executives given at Mills college in Oakland, California.

Says Miss DeMots: "Any youth-serving program can only be as strong as the adults who support it. The need for such organizations is perhaps stronger now, and will be in the immediate future, than it has ever been. The very real needs of the young people on whom the world's future depends are too apt to be minimized in war and post-war periods. The time and talents of many men and women in each community are needed to make the Camp Fire program available to the large number of girls who want it." Miss DeMots will be very happy to meet with any interested adults and explain the Camp Fire work to them. Appointments may be made by calling Mrs. Joe Elder, 603 J.

Reservations for the dinner Thursday evening must be made before Monday with Mrs. Joe Elder. Those interested in Camp Fire work, as well as the council members and guardians, are invited to attend this dinner.
