Cautious Selling Lowers Stocks

New York, April 23 dP.—Cau-tious selling brought stocks down from their highs late today when President Truman called a confer-ence with his military and foreign affairs high command. Earlier in the day the whole list had moved ahead in continuation of last week's substantial rally. The reaction was only a minor one, however, and reflected lack of demand rather than real pres-

The market started firm, The market started firm, featured by activity in the packing group, which responded to an OPA program involving a $15,000,000 increase in meat subsidy payments. Liquors made new highs. The lower-priced motors turned active and made new highs. A long list of rails made new highs and railroad equipments enjoyed a better market. Steels rose under the lead of Bethlehem which made a new high. Numerous specialities gained a point or more.

gained a point or more.

The Truman conference item set in motion a series of rumors which in turn tended to keep some buyers out of the market and led to some realizing.
