

3 Central Oregon Track Teams to Compete Friday

Bend's first track meet in several years will get under way tomorrow afternoon at 1:30 when athletes from Redmond, Prineville and Bend high schools will compete for the Central Oregon track championship. The meet should be a thriller from start to finish with the three squads quite evenly matched. It is highly probable that the half mile relay, the last event, will decide the outcome of the meet.

Bend will enter a 15 man squad that will endeavor to capture enough seconds, thirds and fourths to go with the few first places it is expected to capture, to stay in the running. Lindel Filey, whose best event is the 440, will be the Bears' lone entrant in the 100. Don McCauley and Red Hogland, both weight men, will fill in the 220. Filey and Vern Clark, a promising freshman, will run the 440. Dick Maudlin will be Bend's chief hope in the half and mile. Maudlin is expected to have two thrilling duels with McDaniels of Redmond in these runs. In an earlier meet McDaniels won the half and Maudlin the mile in contests decided by the matter of few feet. Clark and Darrel Hawes will team with Maudlin in the 880 and Don Bushnell and Don Painter, two freshmen, will run in the mile.

Rasmussen Is Star
Big George Rasmussen will be the Bears' chief hope for points. Although he has been out of practice with a bad leg the Bend ace is expected to win his specialty, the pole vault, as well as the high and low hurdles. Bill Sheffield, promising freshman vaulter, will team with him in that event, while Wayne Halligan will run in the two hurdle events. McCauley, Hogland and Glenn Cook will compete in the shot and discus for the Bears. Bob Sutton and Royal Delaney will throw the javelin.

Hawes, Maudlin and Sheffield will enter the broad jump. Sheffield and Jack Aiken will be the Bears entrants in the high jump. Officials for the meet have been recruited from local sportsmen and faculty members. Starter and referee will be Harold Carlisle, head timer will be Jerry Brannaman assisted by R. E. Jewell, finish judges will be Wilfred Jossy, Marion Cady and Albert Westfall. T. D. Sexton will be in charge of the jumping events and Everett Gettman will supervise the weight events.

Schedule of events will be as follows:
1:30, Shot put, pole vault.
2:00, high hurdles, high jump, discus.
2:10, 100 yard dash.
2:20, mile run.
2:30, 440 yard dash, javelin, broad jump.
2:45, low hurdles.
3:00, 880 yard run.
3:10, 220 yard dash.
3:20, 880 yard relay.

St. Louis Cards Face Hard Year

New York, April 26 (AP)—The pennant that Billy Southworth of the St. Louis Cardinals wants to win the most of all may be the hardest to attain.
He seeks the 1945 flag as a memorial to his 26-year-old son, Maj. Billy Southworth, Jr., himself a ball player, who died when a Superfortress he was piloting plunged into the waters of New York's Flushing bay last winter. Ironically, the same army that took his son, has a lien now on the services of three key players, catcher Walker Cooper and outfielders Stan Musial and Danny Litwiler, without whom he probably would not have won the 1944 pennant.

But there is no escaping the fact that there is trouble ahead for the Red Birds, whose chief contenders for the flag, the Chicago Cubs and Pittsburgh Pirates, didn't suffer comparable losses in manpower.

Old Age Pension Office Set Here

Plans for maintaining an office in the courthouse where persons may file claims and obtain other information concerning the old age survivors' insurance, were made here today by Howard J. Nelson, manager of the U. S. Social Security field office in Klamath Falls. Deschutes, Jefferson and Crook counties are serviced from the Klamath Falls office, Nelson said.

While here today, Nelson made arrangements for office space in room 210 at the courthouse, where he will interview applicants by appointment. He asked that any person in this district who wished to file claims, or who seeks other information about the old age insurance, write him at P. O. Box 268, Klamath Falls. Arrangements will be made by mail for an interview in Bend.

Nelson succeeded Charles McGinnis, who was a frequent visitor to Bend, and who was transferred to Santa Barbara, Cal.

GASOLINE IS STOLEN

J. F. Stevens, 1538 West Fifth street, the Jansen Villa, today reported to police that someone in the night drained the gasoline from his automobile tank while the car was parked in front of his home.

Today's Sport Parade

By Leo H. Petersen
(United Press Sports Editor)
New York, April 26 (AP)—A young army captain and seven other gay Tennessee soldiers slipped behind the German lines into Holland a cold January day 26 years ago in an attempt to kidnap the Kaiser.

They came out alive, but without the Kaiser. Although their coup didn't work, it was an exciting leave for the eight soldiers and the captain came out of it with one of the Kaiser's ash trays.

So for the captain—Leland Stanford Mac Phail—that mission wasn't a complete failure. It's been the same with all the missions he has tried since then, most of them in baseball.
His latest mission was to Cleveland Tuesday. He came out of it with what he wanted—a new baseball commissioner. What's more he got the job for his man. He wasn't originally for Albert B. (Happy) Chandler, but he switched to him when he saw his campaign to land the post for Ford Frick was hopeless. And Mac Phail never was one to stay with a losing cause.

He also was determined that a new commissioner be selected at the Cleveland meeting. At least 12 of the 16 club owners had gone to the session in favor of postponing action until after the war. But Mac Phail kept on talking and he always has been a master at that. One by one he changed the minds of the club owners and then when Chandler's name came up he went to work again. And again he won his point.

So the Larry Mac Phail who now is head of the vast New York Yankee baseball network isn't any different than the Larry Mac Phail who took the Cincinnati Reds out of the baseball wilderness and brought a national league pennant to Brooklyn.

He's still the same old showman, the fiery redhead who doesn't know how to pull punches, and as free as ever with money, that's why he lost his Brooklyn job—instead of winning profits for the stockholders he used the money to buy players who could win pennants.

Names Are Added To Hall of Fame

New York, April 26 (AP)—The doors of baseball's hall of fame at Cooperstown, N. Y., opened wide today for 10 great old timers whose feats of derring-do on the diamond occurred before 1910.

It was typical that their plaques will be placed with baseball's immortals along with the late high commissioner of baseball, Judge Kenesaw M. Landis.

Among the players chose, Jimmy Collins, former Boston Red Sox third baseman, and Roger Bresnahan, New York Giant catcher who died recently, were on the list of candidates of the Baseball Writers' association, but both failed to receive the necessary 75 per cent majority.

Players Honored
The others named were Hugh Jennings, shortstop and manager of the Detroit Tigers; Uncle Wilbert Robinson, catcher for the old Baltimore Orioles and late manager of the Brooklyn Dodgers; Dan Brouthers, Detroit outfielder and one of the game's finest hitters; Fred Clark, outfielder and manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates; Ed Delahanty, pitcher for the Washington Senators and Philadelphia Phillies; Hugh Duffy, still a coach and scout for the Boston Red Sox and a former outfield star with both Boston clubs; Mike Kelly, Boston Red Sox and Chicago Cubs' catcher who made famous the cheer "Slide Kelly Slide," and Jimmy O'Rourke, New York catcher, who also played with the old Buffalo National league club.

Selections Made
The committee which met to select the old timers was made up of Edward Barrow of the New York Yankees, Connie Mack of the Philadelphia Athletics, Bob Quinn of the Boston Braves, Stephen C. Clark, president of the Cooperstown museum, Paul Kerr, secretary of the museum, and baseball writer Melville Webb of the Boston Globe. Another member, Sid Mercer, New York Journal-American baseball expert, was unable to attend because of illness.

The new selections brought to 38 the number of baseball immortals enshrined at Cooperstown.

on the strength of Guy Fletcher's five-hit tossing. Lou Novikoff's homer highlighted the opener.

Senate Leaders Honor Chandler

Washington, April 26 (AP)—Baseball's new high commissioner, Sen. Albert B. (Happy) Chandler, made it plain today that one of his first official acts will be to restore the major league all-star game in July if the war in Europe ends soon.

The Kentucky democrat, moved almost to tears by the high tributes of his senate colleagues, was given a big send-off yesterday in the closing moments of the day's session in the chamber.

It was started by 79-year-old Sen. Hiram Johnson, R., Cal., who crossed over to the democratic side and described Chandler as a "man of undisputed guts."

Pledge Made
Shaking his finger at the 46-year-old Kentuckian Johnson admonished him to "be yourself—baseball is peculiarly representative of this country. See that it represents you."

Chandler arose in response and said: "As long as I live I'll never forget those words of approval from one of the greatest men America ever produced. I promise you, Senator Johnson, that I will keep baseball clean."

Chandler, discussing the all-star game, told the United Press that if V-E day comes before July, the decision to cancel the game at least would be subjected to review.

To Aid War
"It all depends on the circumstances," he said. "But baseball is patriotic and will do nothing that would interfere with the war effort."

Chandler said he had asked Leslie O'Connor, secretary to his predecessor, the late Judge K. M. Landis, to remain at his post at least for awhile. He will confer at Chicago with O'Connor next week at which time he may decide to transfer the commissioner's offices elsewhere.

Kahut Is Billed For May 4 Fight

Portland, Ore., April 26 (AP)—Sailor Joe Kahut of Woodburn, Ore., will be back in the Portland ring on May 4, when he will tangle with Jack Dillich of San Francisco, matchmaker Joe Waterman announced today.

It will be Kahut's second ring appearance since joining the navy, his other having ended in his second-round knockout of coast guardman Jack Huber. In Dillich he will have a 190-pound opponent who stands 6 feet 2 inches.

The other half of the main event will see Leo (The Lion) Turner of Portland rematched with Jackie Ryan of San Francisco, whom he trounced in 10 rounds in their first match here.

Snell to Inspect Klamath Barracks

Klamath Falls, Ore., April 26 (AP)—Gov. Earl Snell is expected here Monday to inspect the marine barracks.

Col. George O. Van Orden, commanding officer, said he had ordered a full guard and band for the governor. Snell will be here to address the annual meeting of the Klamath county chamber of commerce.

Beavers Maintain Lead in League

(By United Press)
The Hollywood Stars still were entrenched in the Pacific coast league cellar today but they had more reason to be cheerful than at any time since the pennant campaign began.

Pitcher Joe Mishasek cut the gloom in the Twink's camp when he pitched them to a 3-0 victory over the second-place Seattle Rainiers in the first game of a doubleheader last night. Seattle topped the nightcap, 2-1, but had to bear down all the way as Hollywood continued to provide stiff opposition.

Gets Three Hits
Mishasek allowed the Rainiers only three scattered hits while his teammates collected six off Alex Palica, young Seattle moundman, who suffered his first loss of the season. The Twinks clinched the contest in the fourth on a walk, an infield out and two singles. Carl Fisher was the winning twirler in the finale, giving up nine hits but tightening up in the clutches. Three hits and a walk gave the Rainiers their runs in the sixth.

The Portland Beavers maintained a one-game hold on first place even though they lost to Oakland, 4 to 2. The Acorns staked Red Mann to a three-run margin in the first inning and were never headed.

Padres Downed
San Francisco's Seals evened their series with San Diego at one game each by downing the Padres, 4 to 3, behind Bob Joyce's pitching. The Seals broke a 3-3 deadlock in the last of the seventh when Roy Nicely drove Willie Enos across the plate with a double off Bob Bailey, new San Diego southpaw.

Sacramento and Los Angeles split a twin bill, the Angels taking the first game, 3-2, and the Solons annexing the second, 4-1.
