Stocks Suffer Severe Decline

By Elmer C. Walzer (United Press Financial Edit

New York, April 26 (P-Stock) iffered their worst decline since from the lows to finish irregular

Trading was fairly active on the decline and in smaller vol-ume later when the list steadied. Early selling was attributed to further talk of possible margin increases and the subsequent recovery followed a statement by Secretary Morgenthau that there might be some action soon on tax relief.

Union Pacific rose 3½ points from its low to a new high for the year when its report for the the year when its report of the first quarter showed net profit at $3.55 a share compared with $3.39 a share in the corresponding quarter of last year. This recovery helped other rails regain part of early losses that had ranged to were than 2 noints.

more than 2 points.

Aircrafts displayed outstanding strength from the early part of the session under the leadership of Douglas which rose more than 4 points to a new high on reports the company had received large new civilian orders.
