THE ARMIES MEET News yesterday that the juncture between the Russian and the American armies had been effected was not so much news after all. So many had guessed that the juncture was already an accomplished fact...

More than this, however, the sharp newness of the announcement was blunted by intimations carried in dispatches and radio broadcasts for days, all emphasizing not only the imminence of the juncture but suggesting the possibility that it could already have been effected.

When troops engaged in actual combat desert to seek the enemy lines and surrender, it is evidence of a serious deterioration in morale. Reports tell us that this sort of thing has been going on rather extensively in Europe, but yesterday's news that Japanese troops on Okinawa are doing the same thing is far more interesting.

Bend's Yesterdays

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO (April 28, 1930) Temperatures fall as Bend residents view the eclipse of the sun through a haze. E. L. Clark, supervisor of the fourth census district of Oregon, withdraws his candidacy for state legislature from the 21st district.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO (April 28, 1920) President D. G. McPherson of the Bend Commercial club, at a meeting of the organization in the Pilot Butte inn, reports that the club is short of funds and unable to function properly...

THIRTY YEARS AGO (April 28, 1915) Dr. U. C. Coe and Dr. B. Ferrell announce that they will soon open a hospital in the Guerin house on the bluff above the river. Mrs. H. C. E. 1113 receives a sprained ankle and rib injuries when she slips in the family clothes closet.

Number Missing, Official Learns

Gresham, Ore., April 28 (UP)—Postmaster Ivar Swift has been in a dither all week putting into effect the new door-to-door mail delivery service requiring all stores and houses to have street numbers.

THE AMERICAN HOUSE By Virginia Chase

When we took over the American House, we had only one regular boarder. This was Mr. Martin Tapley, who owned the dry goods store. Mr. Tapley was a bachelor, middle-aged and growing bald. He dressed very untidily. His teeth were stained, and his skin was sallow.

My mother was one of the few women in the village who had a good word to say for him. "I believe if that girl had stood by him..." she said one day long before we moved.

By this time we were all ears. "Who was she, Mama?" "Was she someone from around here?"

Temporary Salary Raise Is Granted

Salem, Ore., April 28 (UP)—Voters of the Salem school district yesterday voted nearly four to one in favor of an increase in teacher's salaries here. The temporary raise, amounting to $300 yearly for teachers and administrators and $120 for other school employees, will come from Salem's share of the additional $3,000,000 voted schools by the state legislature at the last session.

'SOUVENIRS' SCARE COPS Springfield, Mass. (UP)—A small boy walked into police headquarters with two souvenirs which he had found and asked if he could keep them. Horrified officials grabbed the souvenirs—for they were two live Japanese-made hand grenades.

FIRST DAY OF SCHOOL When the San Francisco Conference ends, the delegates will have experienced their "first day of school" for the study of the complex problems of world peace, and for the development of a curriculum for a permanent school. Everyone everywhere should clearly understand that this Conference is the most important international meeting in history. We can be thankful that our nation is represented by wise and experienced statesmen with a sincere desire for peace, and we are sure the other nations have the same type of representation. The Conference will furnish the leadership and the plan, but peace depends upon the peoples of the United Nations—upon their will to peace, upon their sacrifice for peace, upon their works of peace. The difficulties are enormous, some of the problems cannot be solved immediately, and compromises will be made by all nations in order to arrive at conclusions that will be fair to all countries. The Conference cannot create an enduring peace. But it will lay the foundations for a plan for peace to be put into effect as soon as possible, and which we and future generations of the world must maintain. Let us be sparing in our criticism and generous with our encouragement and constructive suggestions. And above all let us pray that the thinking people of the world will take advantage of the opportunity afforded by the "first day of school" and build continuously toward an enduring peace.
