Gilchrist Parent-Teacher Unit Receives Conference Report

Gilchrist, April 28 (Special)—The Gilchrist Parent-Teachers association held its last meeting of the season in the library room of the school on Tuesday, April 24. The program opened with the singing of "America" by the group, followed by a recitation, "Trees," in commemoration of Arbor day, by fourth grade pupils. The delegates to the regional conference reported on their trip to Eugene April 19. The delegates were Mrs. M. R. Stenerson, Miss Grace Lyttle, Mrs. Esther Guddat, and Mrs. Verne I. Brader. The delegates gave a round table discussion of the Eugene conference. New officers for the year were elected and installed in a ceremony led by Mrs. Verne I. Brader, the 1944 president. Mrs. M. R. Stenerson was installed president; Mrs. Ray Oherlich, vice-president; Mrs. Guy Ferguson, secretary; and Mrs. C. E. Shotts,

Shriners Plan Semi-Formal Dance Tonight

Committee members in charge of the semi-formal dance tonight in the Blue room of the Pilot Butte Inn announce that plans have been completed for the invitation affair, with dancing to start at 8:30 to music by the Russell-Larson orchestra. Hal Edwards, president of the Bend Shrine club, pointed out that members of Masonic bodies and their wives are eligible to attend, and may secure tickets from committee members or at the dance. Committee chairmen who have assisted with arrangements for the affair include Walt Howard, George W. Ager, George Barr, N. E. Gilbert, and Lewis M. Lancaster.

Concert to Be Given Sunday At M.E. Church

A sacred concert will be presented at 7:30 Sunday evening in the Methodist church by a young people's choir of 25 voices from Gilchrist, assisted by Mrs. Craig Coyner at the organ. The choir is directed by Dr. John Morange, pastor of the community church at Gilchrist.

The prelude will be Chopin's "Nocturne." The hymn, "Come O Thou Traveler" will be followed by "The Golden Key," a prayer hymn.

Chorus numbers will follow, including "The Strife Is Over," by Giovanni Palestrina; "Follow Me," with H. G. Tovey's harmony and "Somebody's Praying for You," by Caustin Miles.

The offertory selection will be "Deep River," followed by a solo, "God So Loved the World," by Mrs. L. W. McCaw.

Dr. John Morange will be the speaker, with "Singing" his sermon topic. The closing group of choral numbers will include "He Is Mine," by J. Lincoln Hall; "Awakening Chorus" by Charles H. Gabriel and "Hear Our Prayer, O Lord" by George Whelpton.

Following the benediction, Mrs. Coyner will play "Land of Hope and Glory," by Elgar as a postlude.

After the concert the visiting musicians and the local choir will be entertained at a social in the church basement, with W. S. C. S. members as hostesses.

who recently enlisted in the Waves. Miss Maenider, formerly employed by the Farmers' Insurance agency, will leave soon for New York, where she will be indoctrinated.

Those present at the party were Miss Betty Nelson, Miss Barbara Isham, Miss Kathy Angland, Miss Louise King, Miss Ravoe King, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Roy. The guests surprised Miss Roma King with a handkerchief shower, and the evening was spent playing cards. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

D.A.R. President Redmond Speaker

Redmond, April 28 (Special)—Mrs. Howard P. Arnest of Portland, vice-president general of the national society of the Daughters of the American Revolution, addressed members and prospective members of Deschutes chapter of the D. A. R. Friday, following a luncheon at which Mrs. C. W. Helm was hostess at her home here. Twenty five guests were in attendance. Mrs. Arnest used as her theme "Freedom With Security." She spoke of seven blood donor centers in the United States, all of which have been furnished and equipped by the Daughters of the American Revolution. At present, beside the continuance of the blood donor centers, another war effort being financed by the D. A. R., is the mobile X-ray equipment, to be used in the navy, and its branches in the service. Certain army and navy hospitals are being equipped with radios and ear-phones for every bed in the hospital.

Other regular D. A. R. projects are financial support for schools in the mountainous sections of the south, and scholarship loans.

Ruthann Lakin To Wed Sunday; Parties Held

Miss Ruthann Lakin, who will be married Sunday to John H. Shepard of Carpinteria, has been the inspiration of several parties recently.

Mrs. R. W. Faddis and Mrs. Fred Schaefer III honored Miss Lakin at a festive shower party Thursday evening at Mrs. Faddis' home, 310 1/2 Congress. Guests included Miss Ann Staples, Mrs. Norman Partridge, Mrs. W. R. Nance, Mrs. Bill Barton and Mrs. S. Croghan of Redmond. Two tables of bridge were in play during the evening. Office employees of the Bend telephone company feted Miss Lakin at a party last week at the home of Mrs. Minnie Livingston. Miss Eva Susac was assistant hostess, and others who attended were the Misses Eunice Lindley, Catherine Sullivan, Bessie Welshons, Pat Keleher, Pauline Drennan, Lucille Wood, Myrtle Newland and May McCallum. Numerous shower gifts were presented to the bride-elect.

Bosticks Surprised By Many Friends

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Bostick of the Alfalfa district were surprised by friends and neighbors Monday evening, when 64 guests appeared at the Bostick home to say their farewells and wish the couple success in their new venture. The Bosticks will move soon to their former home in Brownwood, Texas, having sold their farm to R. L. Burt of Portland, after living here 6 years. Their three daughters, Juanita, Shirley and Geneva, are Bend high school students.

The Six Corners club, of which Mrs. Bostick is a member, presented the couple a tablecloth as a farewell token. Mrs. Earl Williams was in charge of plans for the party.

300 Girls Join In Local Meeting

Culminating one of the busiest weeks in local Camp Fire girl history were the dinner Thursday evening at the Pine Tavern for guardians and counselors and the council fire Wednesday evening at the skating rink, with over 300 girls from Redmond, Shevlin, Prineville and Bend taking part.

Miss Eldora DeMotts, Camp Fire girls' national associate field secretary for the northwest district, addressed some 40 women at the dinner meeting and exhibited a colorful display of beaded and appliqued headbands and other handwork made by Camp Fire girls. Miss DeMotts touched on the Japanese question with the observation that many Japanese children now in relocation centers have known America as their only home, and that youth organizations will have a definite responsibility in molding their character in the post-war era.

Mrs. Joe Elder, executive secretary for this district, was toastmistress at the dinner. She introduced Mrs. J. R. Roberts of Redmond, Deschutes county president, who presented the speaker.

Mrs. DeMotts left this morning for Portland.

Set Your Own 7th War Loan Employee Quota

From This Table

Col. 1	Col. 2	Col. 3	Col. 4
Average Wage Per Month	Average Subscription Needed (Cash Value)	Average Weekly Allotment *	Maturity Value of Bonds Bought 7th War Loan
$250 & up	$187.50	$15.63	$250
225-250	150.00	12.50	200
210-225	131.25	10.94	175
200-210	112.50	9.38	150
180-200	93.75	7.82	125
140-180	75.00	6.25	100
100-140	37.50	3.13	50
Under $100	18.75	1.57	25

*This would include present allotment plus extra special 7th War Loan allotments and extra cash purchases—for 12-week period in April, May, and June.

FORMULA

(A) Ascertain average wage scale of company and number of employees.
(B) Multiply number of employees by figure in Column 2. This will give the company's total gross Seventh War Loan quota in dollars—(to arrive at quota in terms of maturity value of Bonds—use figure in Column 4.)
(C) To ascertain NET amount to be raised, deduct expected allotments from April, May, and June from total gross quota.
