

End of War in Europe Seems To Be Rapidly Drawing Near; Cities Falling Without Fight

BY LOUIS F. KEEMLE
(United Press War Editor)

The end of the war with Germany drew rapidly near today as the collapse of resistance spread from the borders of Denmark to Czechoslovakia and the remnants of the southern redoubt in Austria.

Fast-breaking developments included: Hamburg fell without a fight. The Germans began a wholesale evacuation of Schleswig-Holstein, the reich's northernmost province, putting out to sea in all manner of craft.

The Hamburg radio, in its last broadcast before the British entered, read a decree by Grand Admiral Karl Doenitz's new government declaring Prague, Czechoslovakia, a hospital city. The decree presumably meant Prague would not be defended and the Germans in Czechoslovakia would surrender.

London reported, without confirmation, the imminent surrender of the Germans in Holland and Denmark, totalling perhaps 100,000 men. The Paris radio broadcast a similarly unconfirmed report that the quiescent government of Norway was negotiating surrender of the Germans there.

Nazis Lose Heart
The announcement of Adolf Hitler's death, followed quickly by the fall of Berlin and the surrender of nearly 1,000,000 Germans in Italy and western Austria, apparently took the heart out of most of the German soldiers still in the field.

New Zealand troops of the Eighth army entered the Adriatic port of Trieste, previously reported occupied by Marshal Tito's Yugoslavs, and peace settled down on the remainder of the Italian front.

Gen. Jacob L. Devers, commander of the Sixth army group in southern Germany, said the Nazi national redoubt was crumbling and final victory "may come at any moment." The Third and Seventh armies pushed steadily ahead through Austria and the last corner of Bavaria. The Third army, which took Hitler's birthplace at Braunau, sped on toward Berchtesgaden without meeting resistance.

Flowers for Arabian Princes

Prince Faisal ibn Abdul Aziz, chairman of the Saudi Arabian delegation to UNCTO, accepts a gift of flowers from little Helen Wilson as he and members of his colorfully costumed delegation toured San Francisco's Golden Gate Park. Standing beside him is his brother, Prince Amir Fahad ibn Abdul Aziz.

German Surrender
In the northern redoubt, the Germans were surrendering by the tens of thousands. The British and Americans under Field Marshal Sir Bernard L. Montgomery were merely rounding them up and disarming them at most points. Almost 100,000 prisoners were handled by the American 82nd division.

Troops of the British Second army linked up with the Russians in Wismar, clearing the Baltic coast of Germany and creating a final, dwindling pocket north of Berlin. The Canadians captured Oldenburg at the southwestern corner of the redoubt, but place and names meant little any more in the general collapse.

Amidst all the confusion, the whereabouts of the new Fuehrer, Admiral Doenitz, was not clear. London believed he was seeking a new refuge somewhere in the north now that Hamburg and Luebeck are gone. The British Press association said it was "fairly certain" he was in Denmark or had gone on to Norway. The Press association previously thought he might have been at the naval base of Kiel, which was under heavy British air attack during the night.

Where is Himmler?
There was like mystery about other leading Nazis, including Heinrich Himmler. The latest report on Propaganda Minister Paul Joseph Goebbels was one from Moscow which said he as well as Hitler had committed suicide. The information was volunteered by Hans Fritzsche, Goebbels' deputy, who was taken prisoner.

In the war against Japan, allied troops entered Rangoon in the final phase of the campaign to liberate Burma. The by-passed Japanese remaining in central Burma were entirely cut off from escape into Thailand.

American Superfortresses renewed the offensive against Japanese suicide plane bases on the home island of Kyushu in support of the campaign on Okinawa. Two more American divisions were sent into action to speed up the cleanup of the important southern end of that island. Australian invasion forces fanned out on Tarakan off Borneo, rapidly overrunning that oil-rich island.

War Budget Cuts Please Congress

Washington, May 3 (AP)—Congressional leaders disclosed today that President Truman's recommended cuts in war agency budgets marked the big turning point in heavy war spending. They said further reductions would come at a speeded-up pace.

Truman yesterday asked congress to pare more than seven billion dollars from budgets of 10 top war agencies as part of the adjustment from a two-front to a one-front war.

Members of both houses promptly applauded the president's action and praised him for taking the lead. They said congress would act quickly to effect savings in the nation's spending.

The president's action came too late to make much of a dent in the current year's record spending.

Big Drop Noted
The highest outlay for war costs in any one month of the year occurred in March of this year when the treasury checked out $8,246,000,000. It fell off sharply to $7,139,000,000 (B) in April and was expected to drop at a faster rate thereafter.

Total war cost for the fiscal year ending June 30 has been estimated at $90,000,000,000 (B), compared to $89,000,000,000 (B) for the previous fiscal year. The late President Roosevelt estimated that fiscal 1945-46 war costs would be $69,400,000,000 (B).

'MEDICO' AN OLD FRIEND
Leominster, Mass. (AP)—Pfc. Herbert L. Mitchell of Leominster agrees that anything can happen in the army. Mitchell was undergoing treatment for a throat ailment in a hospital on the western front. When the medical officer arrived, it proved to be Maj. John J. Curley, his family physician, who had brought Mitchell into the world.

TIPS STATE 13 CENTS
Boston (AP)—His is one to confound Massachusetts income tax records. A Somerville school teacher sympathized with Gov. Tobin's tax problem, so she left the state a 13-cent tip when she paid an 87-cent income tax. The postscript read, "Keep the change."

Tired Kidneys Often Bring Sleepless Nights

Doctors say your kidneys contain 15 miles of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. When they get tired and don't work right in the daytime, many people have to get up nights. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't neglect this condition and lose valuable, restful sleep. When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may also cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

HOW DO YOU KEEP YOUR TOWELS SO SNOWY-WHITE?

OH, THAT'S EASY, I USE CLOROX!

CLOROX is Extra-Gentle in bleaching. It makes white cottons and linens snowy-white (brightens fast colors), makes laundry fresh, sanitary. And Clorox lessens rubbing, thus prolonging life of fabrics.

TOWELS usually get dingier, grimmer, more stained and discolored than other white cottons and linens. That's one reason why they need the bleaching and stain-removing efficiency of Clorox to keep their whiteness up to "guest towel" standards. Another reason they need Clorox is for the sanitation it provides. Then too, bleaching with Clorox does away with the need for vigorous rubbing that's so harmful to linens. Clorox is ultra-refined, extra-gentle... it is free from caustic, an exclusive, patented quality-feature.

For Sanitary Kitchens! Use Clorox in routine cleansing of refrigerators, sinks, drainboards, china and glassware; dishcloths and dish towels; floors, garbage containers... as an added safeguard to health. Clorox is extra-efficient in disinfecting, it also deodorizes and removes stains.

For Hygienically Clean Bathrooms! Bacteria thrive in bathrooms unless hygienically cleansed. Play safe... reduce chances of infection. Use Clorox in routine cleansing of washbasins, bathtubs, toilet bowls; tile, enamel, linoleum, wood surfaces. Simply follow directions on the label.
