Buy Bonds — Keep Them!

What Is It - a Game?

As a newcomer I have noticed a peculiar practice of most of the Bend

Two or more people will meet on the street and stop to chat. Almost invariably after a short time one party or the other, maybe both, will put their hands up in front of them, with hands from eight to 24 inches apart. Now, of course, I don't stop to listen, but right after these people spread their hands apart the animated conversation seems to slow up and shortly afterward the two people go on their way again. The one who has spread his or her hands the farthest apart seems to have a very self-satisfied expression. Oftentimes the other person has an expression of chagrin or disbelief. Now folks haven't you observed that little scene for yourself? Personally I don't believe anyone has caught one that big.

The sign we want you to make is to reach for your telephone or walk in when you are in town and let us give you an estimate on your car repair work or engine overhaul. Frank says he can you prompt attention now that the back-log of orders is down.
