

A.P. Executives Lose Privileges

New York, May 9 (UP)—Robert Bunnelle, managing executive for the Associated Press in the United Kingdom, notified the AP today that he had been suspended from filing privileges.

Bunnelle reported that no reason was given for his suspension, but the AP here said it presumably was in connection with the unauthorized dispatch which Edward Kennedy, chief of the AP Paris bureau, filed on the German surrender at Reims.

Kennedy, who admitted he had violated Shaeff regulations by filing the Reims dispatch before its release was authorized by Shaeff, said he telephoned it to London where Bunnelle is in charge of the AP.

Kennedy and Morton Gudebrod, who supervises the distribution of AP news to the French press, have been suspended from filing privileges by Allied supreme headquarters in Paris. Shaeff has appointed three officers to investigate Kennedy's action in sending the unauthorized dispatch, but they have not reported yet.

Bunnelle was notified of the action against him by Capt. Harry Clark, rear echelon public relations officer in London.

A message from Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's headquarters, explaining the reason for the action against Kennedy, was received by Kent Cooper, executive director of the AP. It read:

"Suspension filing privileges Associated Press revoked and authority now granted correspondents other than Ed Kennedy to submit material for transmission. Kennedy suspended due self-admitted deliberate violation Shaeff regulations and breach confidence. Investigation filing story by Kennedy continues and report results of finding will be communicated to you as soon as practicable."

The first sentence in the Eisenhower message was a reference to the fact that Shaeff at first suspended all filing privileges for the AP throughout the European theater of operations. That later was lifted to apply only to Kennedy. Then Gudebrod and Bunnelle were suspended.

V-E Day Is Quiet; Thanks Are Given

Redmond, May 9 (Special)—As flags were unfurled on downtown streets and churches were open throughout the day for the accommodation of those wishing to offer prayer and thanks, observance of V-E day yesterday in Redmond was quiet.

Nowhere was there any indication of jubilant celebration, but rather a determination to carry on the home front work until the Japs have been defeated.

Patriotic speeches were made on the Redmond union high school lawn, while members of the high school band played appropriate numbers.

Captured "ersatz" stockings, worn by German soldiers last winter, have been turned into blankets for German prisoners.

Dinner to Honor Bend Ministers

Members of the Bend Ministerial association and their wives are planning a farewell dinner for two of their number next Tuesday evening, May 15, at which time Rev. and Mrs. Ray E. Kiel and Rev. and Mrs. W. I. Palmer will be guests of honor. After six years of service as pastor of the Church of the Nazarene, Rev. Kiel has accepted a call to Placerville, Calif. Rev. Palmer, president of the association, is retiring from the active ministry after 32 years of service in eight different churches. The Palmers have been in Bend for three years and will continue to make their home here.

A turkey dinner will be served by ladies of the First Presbyterian church at that church on Tuesday evening.

The May meeting of the Ministerial association was addressed by Dr. Charles Durden of Salem who had been requested to tell of his experience in community of faith and church extension and evangelism work. The association went on record as favoring a community survey to be followed by visitation and evangelism on the part of each church during the month of September, 1945.
