

Academies Seek Five Candidates

Representative Lowell Stockman will have three vacancies at the U. S. Military academy, West Point, New York, for the class beginning July 1, 1946, his office has announced.

Stockman also will have two vacancies at the U. S. Naval academy, Annapolis, Maryland, for the class beginning July 1, 1946.

Candidates for the Military academy must have reached their 17th birthday, but must not have reached their 22nd birthday on the date of entrance to the academy.

Candidates for the Naval academy must be not less than 17 years of age nor more than 21 years of age on April first of the calendar year (1946) in which they enter the Naval academy.

Qualifications Given

Applicants for both academies should be high school seniors or graduates of high school, or college students. The civil service commission expects to hold a competitive examination July 28, 1945, to aid in the selection of nominees for the academies. Applicants must be residents of the second congressional district of Oregon and in perfect physical condition.

All boys who are interested and qualified should write immediately to Congressman Lowell Stockman, House Office Building, Washington, D. C., so that they may receive additional information and be admitted to the examination.

Grange Hall

Grange Hall, May 9 (Special)—"Dry Cleaning" was the project of the Eastern Star extension unit which met at the home of Mrs. R. L. Hamby, last Thursday. Miss Elizabeth Boeckl, home agent, was in charge of the program. Projects for the coming year were discussed by the 17 ladies present and officers were elected. They were Mrs. Chet Johnson, chairman; Mrs. E. P. Bigelow, vice-chairman, and Mrs. Walter Prichard, secretary. Mrs. E. W. Paul was the chairman this past year and was assistant hostess for the afternoon. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Homer Brown with Mrs. John Franks as assistant hostess, next September.

A large crowd attended the pie social held at the Eastern Star grange hall last Friday night by the Young school P.T.A. Proceeds of the evening are to be used for a hot lunch program next year at the school. Aubra Carnegie played the guitar and sang and Mrs. Norval Mowery played the piano as part of the evening's entertainment. R. D. ("Doc") Stowell was the auctioneer of the pies. E. H. Young and Mrs. Del Mattson won the prize waltz. E. P. Bigelow, president of the P.T.A. group was in charge of the affair.

Pvt. Lynn Everson left Saturday for Camp Locke, Calif., after spending a 56 day furlough with his wife, the former Evelyn Fix.

Miss Darlene Hoover, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Hoover, was a weekend guest of Mr. and Mrs. Del Mattson.

James Jesme of Pasadena, California, is visiting his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Bigelow. He left Monday morning for Washington where he will spend the summer.

Word has been received by Mrs. Jack Grissom that her son-in-law, Pvt. Robert Cover, has been transferred to the army hospital in Grass Valley, Calif. Mrs. Cover, the former Wanda Grissom, is with her husband.

Mr. and Mrs. George Erickson visited at the E. P. Bigelow home and the Dave Carlin home on Wednesday.

Visitors at the William Lewis home Thursday evening were Mr. and Mrs. John Lutz and family, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Gipe.

Leo Fischer and son have 5,000 baby turkeys.

Visitors at the Young school last week were Mary Lou Beach, Mrs. Jack Grissom and Mrs. Wayne Hamby.

Miss Billie Parker, student of St. Mary's academy in The Dalles, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Parker, this past week.

The board of directors of the Farmers Telephone Co., met at the Lloyd Parker home Monday evening.

Miss Elma Mullins, county health nurse, showed some talking pictures to the students of Young school last Friday. They were "School Lunches", "Malaria Mosquito Control", and "Tuberculosis Control".

D. C. Cornwell went to Eugene Thursday and returned with several thousand baby turkeys.

Feed-A-Fighter 4-H garden club met Tuesday at the Young school with 21 members present. Mrs. E. W. Paul, Mrs. B. Lindsay, Mrs. Charles Boyd, Mrs. Louis Mitchell and Mary Lou Beach were guests. The children finished filling in their record books. The next meeting will be May 15 at the Richardson school.

Mary Lou Beach visited at the George Barclay home for several days last week.

The Grange Hall ladies aid will meet Thursday, May 10, at 1:30 p. m. with Mrs. Art Robideaux.

Jimmy Livingston spent last week at the home of his aunt, Mrs. J. R. Haynes. Jimmy's mother, Mrs. Winton Livingston, has been seriously ill in the St. Charles hospital but is now reported well on the way to recovery.

Mrs. J. R. Haynes received 500 baby chicks on Wednesday.

Stanley Nichols, seaman 2/c, grandson of Mrs. Edith Beach, is now in Pearl Harbor, taking training.

Pvt. Douglas Dodge is in Jun-tura, Oregon, visiting friends. He is to report to Ft. Lewis in a few days.

Delores Mayer was an overnight guest of Joan Dugan last Monday.

Mrs. F. W. Wells is visiting a week with friends in Hood River.

Mrs. Daisy Smith returned Wednesday after visiting friends and relatives in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Bigelow and son, Alvin, and James Jesme of Pasadena, went to Redmond and Prineville on Sunday.

A play day will be held at Young school Friday, May 11, with the Rock school students, their teachers and mothers as guests. Members of the Young school P.T.A. are urged to attend the meeting. A potluck lunch will be served at noon.

ones that helped clean it out and that we are with the First army."

Brown, who has been overseas for a year, is a member of the famed 7th division which has been active in mopping-up operations in liberated areas. He entered the service Sept. 8, 1943.

Mrs. Brown recently received a bound record of the division from her husband, containing photographs and photostats of important documents, citations and greetings.

Veterans Change Meeting Place

Henceforth the Veterans of Foreign Wars will meet in Sather hall, over the old USO clubrooms, instead of in the courthouse, it was announced today by Earl Birchard, commander. Also the dates of meeting have been changed from each second and fourth Wednesday to the second and fourth Friday of each month, the commander said.

The next meeting of the VFW will be held Friday night in Sather hall, at which time, arrangements for participating in the institution of the new Redmond post the following night will be completed, it was said.

The VFW auxiliary also reported that it has changed its meeting place from Moose hall to Sather hall.

PAUL REVERE OF 1945
Braintree, Mass. (AP)—Sgt. Paul Revere of Braintree is following in his storied namesake's footsteps. Sgt. Revere is serving as a forward observer for a field artillery outfit somewhere in Italy. Like his namesake, he warns of the approach of the enemy. Recently he was awarded the bronze star for meritorious action.

Pyrethrum when mixed with harmless sesame oil becomes from three to four times as effective a fly killer as when used alone.

"A female wants" SAYS PEET

"A female wants nothin' as much as she wants a husband... but once she gets 'im... she wants everything else."

PEET SAYS:

"You can have everything you want in a washday soap... if you use Peet's... the different granulated soap. Its quicker, thicker suds work washday magic. There's nothing like Peet's for swishing grease and grime from work clothes... for making towels and sheets bright-white. Guess that's why three times as many women now use Peet's."

PEET SAYS:

"My brother Tom married a gal for just her pretty face. Y'know... it's just like him to buy a house for his paint."

PEET SAYS:

"You get more than just a pretty package... if you buy Peet's. You get suds that are really quicker, thicker, and longer-lasting. Believe me, Peet's a wonder-working suds wash clothes extra clean... in a hurry. And they do wonders with dishes, too... yet leave your hands lovely. Say—you ought to try it."
