To Our Friends in the Oregon Country:

Most of you people living in this area are enthusiastic boosters for your local communities and for the whole Oregon Country. Over the back fence, in letters to Eastern friends, you often do a good selling job for the fabulous region in which you live. Doing so, you may awaken your neighbors to greater appreciation of opportunities, bring new business to your town, or perhaps locate some new family nearby. This is the spirit that has built the Pacific Northwest. Each of us must first be aware of the advantages of our region, then transmit our enthusiasm to others. This will insure its future development.

Through advertising in TIME and other national magazines, The Oregonian joins you in telling of the great Oregon country.

AND ITS NEW PEOPLE LIKE Oregon

OREGON'S POPULATION INCREASE OF 11% FOR THE 1940-1945 PERIOD IS CONSISTENT WITH THE GROWTH FOR PREVIOUS DECADES

Year	Population Increase
1900	62%
1910	16%
1920	22%
1930	14%
1940	11%
1945	11%

Scores of thousands of war-workers and their relatives have moved to Oregon since Pearl Harbor to give a hand with our contracts. At first neither they nor we thought much about what would come of it. There was a job to do.

Recently they have looked at us. We've looked at them. Both are satisfied. They are our kind of people—mostly from the Mountain and Middle Western States with an enterprising smattering from the whole country. They have joined in winning for the Portland-Vancouver area, among other things, the shipbuilding record of the nation. That means the shipbuilding record of all history: Over 1000 great vessels! Over 8,000,000 tons!

We repeat, they looked at us. They have seen that Oregon has remarkable variety compared to other places: the greatest stand of timber of any state; a rising industry founded on the incredible power of the Columbia and our other swift rivers; agriculture ranging from wheat ranches through orchards to seacoast dairies; foreign trade; fishing; mining. The selection is wide; the future has no horizon.

Our war-workers want to stay; we want them to stay; we have the opportunity for them.

In making your own plans for the future, consider our Promised Land out "Farthest West".
