at second base, seeking the money offered by prexy Branch Rickey. Then he retired in favor of Eddie (Spunky) Sanky, ex-amateur box-er from Pennsylvania. And for the bewildered who can't figure out how the lightly-rated Dodgers can be in second place, with a six-game winning streak they need to look no further than the cen-ter of the diamond where Stanky ter of the chamond where Stanky holds forth. Stanky Makes Error He made an error yesterday on his first chance of the game, but his teammates excused him. He had handled 98 straight chances before that without a bobble and be stened by handling six more before that without a bobble and he atoned by handling six more cleanly as the Dodgers beat the world champion St. Louis Cards for the second time, 7 to 0. Again the champs were humbled by a rookle southpaw, Tom Seats, who like his praedecessor, Vic Lom-bardi, won his first major league cleanting victory. It was a seven bardi, won his first major league starting victory. It was a seven-hitter in which he beat Ted Wilks, the National league's leading pitcher of 1944. The leading Glants in the Na-tional also made it two straight over visiting western opposition, beating Cincinnati, 4 to 3, on a three-run homer by Phil Wein-traub in the eighth. Veteran Van Lingle Mungo won his second game as Glant outfielder Johnny Rucker went hitless for the first time in 19 games. Chicago Cubs Win The Chicago Cubs, rounding

The Chicago Cubs, rounding out the day with a four-run ninth inning, beat the Phils at Philadelphia, 7 to 1, on five-hit pitching by Hank Wyse, who lost a shutout on Vince DiMaggio's homer. George Stainback's first homer since 1941 started Hank Borowy since 1941 started Hank Borowy of New York off to his fifth straight win, 7 to 3, at Detroit. The Yankees, squaring the series, beat Tiger ace Hal Neyhouser and moved back into second place. Rex Cecil backed up his seven-hit pitching by driving in two runs as Boston won, 8 to 4, at Cleveland. The Red Sox made 14 hits off four Cleveland pitchers, Pete Fox and Lloyd Christopher getting three each.
