

5 Tons Clothes Packed in Bend

The combined efforts of 28 volunteers last night resulted in completing the sizeable chore of sorting and packing approximately five tons of old clothing gathered for overseas war relief. It was announced today by Clarence Bush, chairman of the Lions club sponsored salvage drive. Heeding the call for help and boxes, the volunteers continued to appear at the salvage depot in the basement of Lydvick's throughout the evening, while donors supplied sufficient cartons for packing the garments.

Chairman Bush said that arrangements have been made to ship the clothing on Tuesday. At that time the total tonnage of clothing furnished by Bend residents will be made known, it was stated.

Groups from different organizations appeared to help last night, as well as a number of persons who "just wanted to help out." From the Oregon Trail Furniture company came Ed. Voight, Clifford Diez, Bill Diez, A. D. Lindertelt, Evelyn Everston, Ann Mize and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Edwards. The Elks and Lions detailed Ray Dahl, Earl Ware and Gally Marshall. The following women of the Moose assisted: Winona Egg, Flora Kirkpatrick, Hattie Tunnell, Betty Carter, Carmen Hyde and Nellie Mazar.

Others who aided were Helen Ross, Helen Cross, Ada Summers, Juanita Piggott, Clara Earls, Ruth Finley, Henrietta Denman, Ethel Wolfgram and James Piggott.

First Veterans Given Discharges

Camp Beale, Calif., May 12 (AP)—Still dizzy, wild-eyed, and bewildered, but wearing huge, apparently permanent grins, the first California soldiers to leave the army under the new point system went home today.

The more than 100 enlisted men were awaiting immediate reassignment here after a recent overseas combat service. The point discharge system was a last-minute reprieve for many.

S/Sgt. Jesse H. Lockwood, San Bernardino, who was scheduled for new duty Friday, said: "I just couldn't believe it when they told me to get ready to leave for home." He has five battle stars and a bronze star in his 117 points total.

Vows Are Said Last Sunday At Chapel

Fort Lewis, Wash., May 8—In a pretty ceremony Sunday afternoon in the post chapel before a large group of relatives and military associates, Miss Marilyn Jane Briggs and Warrant Officer Richard H. Lee were united in marriage. Major Daniel W. Stevens, post chaplain, read the single ring service after a prelude of organ music.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford M. Briggs of Bend, Ore., the bride's parents, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Lee of Ventura, Calif., the groom's parents, were all present for the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a powder blue zabardine suit, its cardigan neckline outlined with navy blue braid matching her sandals and small hat. Her corsage was of pink roses and white gardenias, and she carried a white prayer book.

Mrs. Sharley Perrine came from Berkeley, Calif., to be her sister's only attendant. She also was dressed in a blue suit with dark accessories. Mrs. Briggs wore a navy crepe and white-trimmed sailor. Mrs. Lee's suit was gold with a sheer black blouse trimmed in bugle beads, and her hat was black straw. They wore gardenia corsages.

Captain Robert Demgen of Hibbing, Minn., with whom the groom is associated here in the post personnel division, was best man, and Lt. Mervin L. Atwell of Canton, O., ushered.

Warrant Officer Lee and his bride left immediately following the ceremony for a honeymoon in Vancouver, B. C., after which they will make their present home at Route 3, Olympia. The couple met when Lee was stationed at Camp Abbot, Ore., near Bend where Miss Briggs was an operator for Western Union following her 1941 graduation from Bend high school. In the spring of 1944 she came to the Western Union office at Fort Lewis. Their engagement was announced last Feb. 14, when he presented her with a diamond ring for a Valentine.

The groom is a graduate of the University of California at Los Angeles, and is a member of Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity.

Miss Gillean's suit was gold-colored, with brown accessories and yellow roses. The bride's mother was in navy blue, and the groom's mother wore brown. Their corsages were of carnations.

Following the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served at the Pine Tavern. Besides the bridal couple, those present were Mr. and Mrs. Wayman Maurer, Mr. and Mrs. Vance Coyner, Mrs. E. A. Watkins of McCall, Idaho, a sister of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. W. A.
