Northwest Development Unit Opposed to 'Authority Type' Programs, Formed in Portland

Portland, Ore., May 14 (AP)—The Pacific Northwest Development association was formed today to develop a program of integrated projects for irrigation, flood control, navigation, power development and resources exploitation as opposed to the "authority type" programs with federal control. Oregon, Washington, Idaho, western Montana and Wyoming are represented in the group, which includes men interested in agriculture, business and other major fields.

The association adopted a theme of "working from the grass roots and by American principles of democratic procedure." It approved post-war projects already authorized for the region, aggregating more than $250,000,000, in the jurisdiction of the Portland district of the U. S. army engineers. Contemplated works in the area for all agencies are said to aggregate a billion dollars.

Officers named were J. C. Compton, McMinnville, Ore., president; Dean Johnson, Portland, Tom E. Potwin, Yakima, Wash., J. L. Driscoll, Boise, Ida., L. A. Colby, Missoula, Mont., and Clifford Benson, Jackson, Wyo., vice presidents; David S. Simpson, Portland, treasurer; A. L. Atherton, Seattle, secretary.

Directors chosen were: Idaho: Donald Callahan, Wallace; E. S. Erb, Lewiston; J. L. Driscoll, Boise; Y. S. Bacon, Twin Falls; Nicholas Ifft, Jr., Pocatello, and William E. Walsh, Boise.

Wyoming: L. C. Bishop, Cheyenne; Clifford Hanson, Jackson, J. T. Person, Laramie.

Montana: L. A. Colby, Missoula; J. L. Richards, Polson, and Wesley J. D'Ewart, Wilsall.

Washington: Tom Potwin, Yakima; E. S. Johnstone, Pasco; M. P. Hunter, Seattle; S. C. Morin, Spokane; J. J. Sheer, Spokane, and A. L. Atherton, Seattle.

Bend Man Speaks
Oregon: David B. Simpson, Herman Oliver, Dean Johnson, and Sherman Lovell, Portland; J. C. Compton, McMinnville.

Speakers included: Robert W. Sawyer, Bend, Ore., vice president of the National Reclamation association; E. W. Rising, Boise, legislative representative in Washington, D. C., for various groups of western water users, and Col. Ralph A. Tudor, U. S. army engineers, chief of the Portland district.

A statement after the conference said in part: "We are working for development of all the great resources of this region and we recognize that the key to most of these problems is water, the proper use of the great streams of this area. In this we recognize that local government, state government and the federal government must be partners, but the relationship of these agencies to each other and to the people is one of the basic problems..."

New Analgesic Tablet (Pain Reliever) now released to public
Thousands find it gives quicker, safe relief from headache—from pains of sinus, neuritis, neuralgia and arthritis
FOR MANY YEARS aspirin has been accepted by both the medical profession and the public as a safe, sure way to relieve pain. But many people who had complete confidence in aspirin did not find it gave as quick relief from bleeding, maddening pain as they hoped for. Hence in desperation they sometimes turned to other remedies less well proved. To meet this situation a group of medical research men set out to see what could be done to speed up the analgesic or "pain-killing" action of aspirin—to make it bring their patients quicker relief, without heart or stomach upset. Out of these researches came a really new kind of analgesic tablet, a combination of aspirin and calcium glutamate. In this new tablet, aspirin does its old, safe job of relieving pain. But through its combination with calcium glutamate, extensive tests by physicians showed it gave most people both quicker relief and greater relief from pain. After this extensive testing and use by members of the medical profession as a prescription remedy, this new analgesic tablet has now been released for non-prescription sale by every druggist. It is called Superin (from super-aspirin). You can get its blessed, quick relief from pain by asking your druggist for a bottle today—30 tablets for 59¢. Ask for Superin—Super-in. Prepared by Carter Products, Inc., New York.

MY POP'S A SMART MAN!
He's saving money for my college by buying War Bonds, and hanging onto them too! But he says that he knows what to do in case we need money in a hurry sometime when the family budget gets out of balance or an emergency comes up—like the time Granny was sick. He says we can borrow at the First National Bank!
My Pop says borrowing from a bank is good business and that it doesn't cost as much that way. He says too that when you borrow from the First National Bank you establish your credit so you can use it again if you want to.
