

Seventh War Bond Campaign on Here

With a slogan of "a bed for a wounded soldier", campaign workers today launched the Seventh war bond drive in Bend, with the opening of headquarters in the J. C. Penney store on Wall street.

The Deschutes county quota is $1,141,000, and A. L. O. Schueler, war finance chairman, predicted that residents of the county would promptly invest that amount in war bonds.

The headquarters, donated by Kenneth Longballa, manager of Penney's, is headed by Mrs. Ralph Hensley, assisted by Stella Pearl Runge.

In adapting the slogan "a bed for a wounded soldier", campaign workers pointed out the acute shortage of hospital facilities for the veterans. With the war at an end in Europe, officials believe that much of the funds raised in the Seventh bond drive would be directed to hospital use.

Women of the Moose worked at headquarters today, with the balance of the week the workers to be as follows: Tuesday, American Legion; Wednesday, Eagles; Thursday, Veterans of Foreign Wars; Friday, the P. E. O., and Saturday, the Rebekahs.

Mrs. Hensley reminded women's organizations that citations will be awarded for bond buying, and that bonds bought for babies will be accompanied by the Walt Disney certificate.

3 Bend Soldiers Serve With Hard-Fighting 6th Army Unit

Sixth Army Group, Germany, May 13—Veteran doughboys of the 142nd infantry regiment, experiencing some of their hardest combat in more than 350 days of battle, broke through the Mieder line at Oberhoffen, captured Wissembourg, and slashed their way through strong Siegfried line defenses, prior to the collapse of the German armies.

These 36th division infantrymen, among the most battle-weathered troops in Gen. Jacob L. Devers' Sixth army group, fought for three days against completely-manned Siegfried defenses but smashed through to get in on the kill of two German armies in the Saar basin. They observed their second anniversary overseas by boosting their total of Germans captured to 10,000.

Commanded by Col. George E. Lynch of Orlando, Fla., the men of the 142nd achieved a spectacular record in Italy and France where they stormed strongly-defended beaches, waged difficult mountain warfare, and effected rapid thrusts deep into enemy territory.

Rugged fighting in Italy saw them among first Americans to battle on European soil when they waded ashore at Salerno. They took the treacherous heights of Mount Maggiore and on Mount Castellone beat off a force of 1,000 Germans with 400 men. Playing a key part in one of the most brilliant maneuvers of the war, they infiltrated enemy lines two miles to take heights overlooking Velletri, opened gates to Rome, and became the first unit to pass through the capital city.

From the beaches of southern France, these doughnuts sped north and smashed back remnants of the German 19th army trying to break out at Montellimar. First to pass through Lyon, they captured Remiremont, historic Koenigsburg castle, St. Marie pass and Selestat.

Members of the regiment include three Bend soldiers, Pfc. Byrl A. Shellhart, Jr., Pfc. Albert A. Skaggs and Pvt. Rollin H. Thompson.
