

Oregon Receives Heavy May Rains

Portland, Ore., May 17 (AP)—Victory gardeners and picnickers today bemoaned the continued rain while most farmers predicted it would prevent a dry growing season this summer.

More rain has fallen the past week in most parts of Oregon than during the average of the whole month in past years. Portland had a rainfall of more than 2 1/2 inches up to last night, as compared to the average of 2.19 for May.

Bursts of rain damaged truck crops and a severe lightning storm last night caused power failures in Portland. Stalled streetcars caused an unprecedented traffic jam in downtown Portland and on the bridges. Some areas were with out power more than an hour.

Eastern Oregon welcomed the rain in wheat sections.

Here were sample rain figures for nine days as of yesterday: Salem, 3.27; Eugene, 2.06; Pendleton, .91; Heppner, 1.96; Condon, 1.38; Wasco, 1.04.

And more rain is forecast.

given the Oregon Trail Manufacturing company to remove a large pile of sawdust from beside their plant, which Fox described as a "definite fire hazard." Both Fox and Mayor A. T. Niebergall said that they had received numerous complaints from residents in the neighborhood who said they feared their property would be damaged should the pile ever catch fire.

City Attorney Ross Farnham told the commissioners that a notice had been served on the company officials, and that upon the expiration of a 10-day period, they were subject to prosecution and a $25 daily fine until the pile had been removed. The 10 days are up this weekend, he said.

Surplus Studied
Learning that the city has a surplus of more than $10,000, Commissioner Loyde S. Blackley urged that the money be invested in 3/4 or 7/8 war bonds. No definite action was taken on this matter, however.

The Brookings Lumber yard was authorized to remove dead trees from Shevlin park, with the understanding that the workers pile the slashings. Arrangements were made for the payment of a small sum per cord for the wood. An ordinance was passed finally vacating Railroad avenue and East Burnside street.

E. O. Stadter, former city attorney now residing near Oregon City, was an amused visitor, and after the budget committee and commissioners debated at length over financial items, he said:

Pay Is Small
"It's just beyond my comprehension how you fellows can sit there and tussle with all those figures and city problems for the money you get!" The commissioners get $10 a month.

Attending last night's meeting were Mayor Niebergall, Commissioners Blackley and Melvin Munkers, City Manager C. G. Reiter, City Attorney Farnham, City Recorder George Simerville, Fire Chief Fox, Chief of Police Ken C. Gulick, and Sumner Deitrick and Robert H. Beck of the budget committee. George Gove, another member of the budget committee, did not attend.

DRUNKENNESS CHARGED

Said by police to have been intoxicated late yesterday on Bond street, Tom N. Howland, 34, of 1436 Jacksonville street, was arrested, and today faced hearing in municipal court on the charge.

Labor Chiefs Back From War Zone

Washington, May 17 (AP)—Ten west coast labor leaders, recently returned from the Pacific fighting areas, said today in a report released by undersecretary of war Robert P. Patterson that the American homefront "must never again permit" delays in the delivery of war supplies.

"We on the home front must insure that our fighting men have not only what they need when they need it but, in addition, sufficient arms to provide that margin of safety which hastens victory and saves American lives," the report said.

The labor executives also came out strongly in favor of setting up strong Pacific bases.

Among those who made the tour are Claude R. Ballard, president, International Woodworkers of America (CIO); Roy M. Brown, vice president, International Association of Machinists (AFL); Orrin A. Burrows, civil service employe, Puget sound navy yard, Bremerton, Wash.; Rosco G. Crocraft, vice president, International Brotherhood of Boilermakers, Iron Shipbuilders and helpers of America (AFL).

2 Ex-Lava Bears Meet in Islands

Two young Bend seamen, Bob Rines, son of Mrs. Ida Rines, and Jim Chambers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cary W. Chambers, recently met at a naval station in the Philippines, talked over Lava Bear football games, "replayed" several of the contests, then topped off the day going to a native cook fight.

News of the meeting of the two ex-Lava Bears was contained in a letter received by Mrs. Rines from Bob.

While at the Philippines base, Jim received from home clippings from The Bulletin, and the boys then renewed their talks of the good old days.

CARS ARE TAGGED

Overtime parking on downtown streets has been charged to owners of four more cars, according to police reports today. Citations were placed on cars registered to O. L. Bowman, 1103 Harmon boulevard; C. L. Smith, 424 Kearney street; C. V. Silvius, 118 Oregon avenue; and G. D. Norcott, 902 Ogden avenue.

Family Quarrel Ends in 1 Death

Portland, Ore., May 17 (AP)—A family quarrel in which a kitchen knife prominently figured today brought death to Albert H. Clark, 52.

His widow, Mrs. Helen M. Clark, faces open charges, police said. Sgt. S. E. Heath and patrolman W. H. Groves who investigated the case after Mrs. Clark called police for a first aid car, found Clark was dead when they got there.

Police quoted Mrs. Clark that she stabbed him in the right leg with a kitchen knife last night after he came home from a prolonged drinking spree and became abusive.

Bag Holding Real Cash Tossed Out of Window

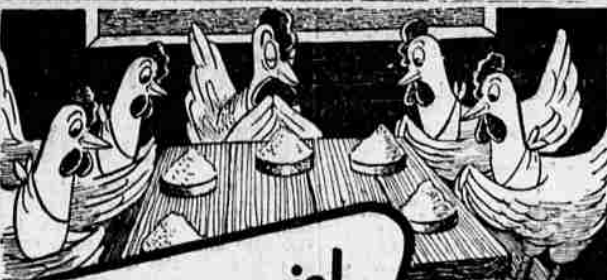

New York, May 17 (AP)—Muriel Wells, 19, Brooklyn, tossed a canvas bag across the room to a co-worker at a loan company office. Catherine Doeen, 21, Queens, missed the catch and the bag went flying out a sixth floor window. The bag, containing $1,050 in ten and one dollar bills, was picked up by a stranger who beat it before police arrived.

Point Values May Drop for Meat

Washington, May 17 (AP)—Price administration Chester Bowles said today that OPA "hopes" there will be more meat for civilians later this year. In such a case, he said, point values will go down.

He made the prediction in a statement explaining for the benefit of housewives why they don't find as much meat on butcher's shelves as government figures would lead them to expect.
