

Portland Beavers Lose Two Games To Californians

(By United Press)
For the first time this season Pacific coast league games will be played on a Monday when San Francisco faces Seattle and Los Angeles meets Portland in the northwest cities tonight. Rain prevented the clubs from indulging in full series last week.

The Angels served notice yesterday that they are finally rounding into form when they grabbed a doubleheader from the leading Portlanders by score of 12-5 and 6-0. The wins put them ahead by a 3-2 count for the week. Seattle stabbed San Francisco twice, 10-3 and 9-1, for a three games to one margin, while Sacramento made it four out of seven from Oakland with 5-4 and 16-1 victories.

Padres Win
The San Diego Padres took the opener from Hollywood, 3-0, but the tallend Twinks came back for a 10-1 triumph in the nightcap. San Diego annexed the series, four games to three.

One of the biggest crowds in the history of Oakland baseball—11,267 paid—saw the Acorns kick away a chance to edge up on Portland and Seattle. Damon Hayes was easing along behind a 4-1 lead in the eighth inning of the first game when the Solons exploded for four runs on only two hits.

Most of the damage was caused by errors by Vic Picette and Glen Stewart. Joe Wood Jr. was the winning pitcher. Les Scarsella homered for Oakland and repeated the feat for the home club's only tally in the second game. Jo-Jo White, veteran Sacramento outfielder, had one of the greatest weeks of his career, collecting 13 hits in 29 trips and scoring 12 runs.

Seattle Beats Seals
The pitching of ancient Hal Turpin and young Alex Palica was too much for San Francisco as Seattle strengthened its hold on second place. Round-trippers by Ted Norbert and Johnny Gill aided the Rainier moundsmen.

Lou Novkoff, big Los Angeles outfielder, had a field day at Portland. He collected six hits and two walks in nine appearances at the plate, including three doubles in the first game. The Angels tallied 12 times in the seventh frame. Wayne Osborn limited the Beavers to three hits in the finale.

Carl Dumler racked up his ninth decision of the season for San Diego in the first game against Hollywood, yielding only two blows. Jim Sharpe scattered five Padre sutties in the second contest.

Engagements tomorrow find San Francisco at Portland; Los Angeles at Seattle; San Diego at Oakland and Sacramento at Hollywood.

Soft Road Halt Work at Mills

Prineville, May 21 (Special)—Because of the recent heavy rains the Prineville saw mills were shut down the past week. The mountain roads have become so soft that the logging trucks could not operate. The planers, however, are running and some repair work in the mills is being done.

During the last two years, bark beetles in the central Rocky Mountain region have sabotaged wood enough for 2,000 homes.

Out Our Way

Today's Sport Parade

By Jack Cuddy
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
New York, May 21 (UP)—If chipper Charley Grimm had his banjo with him, he'd be strummin' today as his Cubs headed home to Chicago after snapping their losing streak with a doubleheader victory before 36,176 flabbergasted Brooklyn fans.

Mighty sweet for manager Charley were those two wins Sunday at Ebbets field. They took the curse off a woeful road trip. They fanned the flickering flame of pennant hope in Jolly Cholly's bosom.

"This was the turning point," Grimm declared in the dressing room. "Things will improve from here. We're a much better club than we've been looking lately."

Cholly wasn't so jolly when his faltering athletes took the field against the formidable Dodgers, who had scheduled their ace pitchers: Curt Davis and Hall Gregg. It could be said that Charley was grim, if you'll pardon the pun.

"His Cubs were working on a losing streak of six straight. Moreover, they had lost nine of 12 games on their trip, which opened at St. Louis May 5. They had dropped from second place into the second division, tied with Pittsburgh for fifth position. And they hadn't won a Sunday game since April 22, when they dumped the Pirates twice.

All this was forgotten, however, as the valiant Chicagoans went to work on the Dodgers—on their own home field—before the largest Brooklyn crowd of the season. The Cubs won, 4-2 and 4-1. Veteran Paul Derringer registered his fifth pitching victory of the season in the opener, and Hank Wyse took the nightcap. According to Jack Smith of the New York Daily News, the Cubs turned Brooklyn's "team of destiny" into a "team of dustiness."

In the dressing room Grimm said, "We'll do better from now on." Catcher Mickey Livingston will join us again at Chicago. He hasn't been with us since May 9, and we've missed him a lot. He was hitting .311, you know. He was called home when a high wind blow down his house and farm buildings near Columbia, South Carolina. His wife was injured, too.

"Bill Nicholson is getting back into hitting form. You know what a difference Big Bill will make when he really goes to town. Claude Passeau has been pitching; but he's been handicapped by arm trouble that is yielding to treatment now. And Ed Hanyewski's arm should be back in shape soon. We'll do all right from now on. This double win over Brooklyn was just the lift the club needed."

Now that Grimm and his Bruins had played every club in the National league, could he say which outfit impressed him most?

"Certainly—the Giants. They're a tough team. They're getting fine pitching, and they pack a lot of punch."

But, won't the Giants slow up when hot weather hits them?

"I see no reason why hot weather should make them sluff off," Grimm said. "The Giants have a good combination of veterans and young players. And, believe me, their veterans are in good condition—the like I wish something would slow them up, but I don't depend upon hot weather to do it. Incidentally, the Braves have improved so much that Boston is tough for any club to beat now."

Veterans' Group Criticizes Racing

New York, May 21 (UP)—An organization of former service men and men who have relatives in the Pacific war theater deplored the nation-wide resumption of horse racing today after a two-day meeting.

The group known as the "That's the Spirit League," passed a resolution which stated that "the only spirit horse racing engenders is high-octane betting spirit."

"It is deplorable that the horse and dog racing bans were lifted without first getting a symposium of reaction from the Pacific war theater's fighting men," the resolution stated. "They were dumbfounded with the news of the sudden lifting of the ban."

Joseph F. McDonald of New Orleans was named president of the league which was formed when Germany surrendered with the aim of helping to end the war in Japan quickly. McDonald said the league had the support of veteran's organizations.

Sergeant Tokle Hailed as Hero

Washington, May 21 (UP)—Sgt. Torger Tokle, champion ski jumper who was killed in Italy last March, "died fighting while disregarding all danger," a report reaching the war department today said.

The report was made by Sgt. Lyle Munson, Iron Mountain Mich., a squad leader in Tokle's platoon and a sports rival of the champion for seven years. Munson was less than 20 yards from Tokle when an artillery shell killed him instantly. Munson was seriously wounded next day and made the report at the Stark General hospital, Charleston, S. C.

"He died in much the same fashion he had lived, engaged in action up to the hilt," Munson's report said.

Good Fighter
"Tokle," he continued, "was a ferocious and determined fighter. While we sometimes staggered and lost sight of the issues involved, Tokle never once relaxed in the fight against the Nazi beasts."

Tokle's family had been caught in Norway by the Nazi invasion, Munson explained.

"In Italy," he continued, "it seemed that Tokle undertook a one-man campaign to repay the Nazi for the hardship and injustices visited on his family and countrymen."

On March 3, the day Tokle was killed, "he was all over the place," Munson said. "The division was fighting to open the road to Bologna."

Plug Gaps

A German machine gun held up Tokle's platoon. With another man, Tokle manned a bazooka to silence the Nazi fire.

"I saw him load one," Munson reported. "The first shell was a dud, and then, before he had a chance to reload, an SS man shell plucked in on him."

"Torger never knew what hit him," Munson concluded.

Tokle jumped 286 feet at Iron Mountain to establish a national mark.

Telephone equipment installed by the Germans in France during their occupation has been giving efficient service to the U. S. army signal corps.

St. Louis Browns Finally Hit Pace, Tie With Detroit

New York, May 21 (UP)—The St. Louis Browns, who get there by plugging instead of slugging, surprised their fair-weather friends today by moving ahead of the 1944 pace with which they won their first pennant.

Riding a five-game winning streak, the American league champions boast a record of eight victories in nine starts and the fans are climbing back on their bandwagon. After sweeping their four games with the Yankees by winning a double bill at St. Louis yesterday, 10 to 1, and 5 to 2, the Browns moved up to a second place tie with Detroit.

Their 13 victories and nine defeats for a percentage of .591 compared with a .567 figure on 17 wins and 13 losses at this time a year ago.

Last season, the Browns got off to a great start but no one took them seriously because they had gone 42 years without a flag. This year the fans deserted when they had an early-season slump that lasted nearly a month.

The Browns gained no ground on the leading White Sox, who won their fourth Sunday double header at Chicago, beating Boston, 4 to 2 and 8 to 2. The White Sox rallied late to win the first game for lefty Thornton Lee with three runs in the sixth. They supported Orval Grove more quickly, clinching the second game with four runs in the second.

The smallest pitchers in the majors, Frank (Stubby) Overmire of the Tigers and Marino (Bantam) Pieretti of the Senators, won at Detroit. Overmire scattered seven hits to beat Washington, 4 to 1, George Binks scoring the only Senator run with a homer. In the second game, Pieretti won a 1 to 0 duel from Alton Benton, handing the Tiger ace his first defeat after five wins.

Two Teams Split
The Athletics and Indians split at Cleveland, Philadelphia winning, 5 to 2, on four 10th inning runs which gave Charley Gassaway his first victory. The Indians took the second, 4 to 2, to give Charley (Red) Embree his second win.

The Chicago Cubs highlighted National league play by winning two from the ambitious Dodgers at Brooklyn, 4 to 2, and 4 to 1. Bill Nicholson's homer gave Paul Derringer the margin for his fifth victory, while a three-run rally off Hal Gregg in the first inning gave Hank Wyse all the incentive he needed to win a four-hit second game.

Bill Voiselle won his eighth straight game for the Giants, beating Pittsburgh, 5 to 1.

The Phillies held the Cards to an even break at Philadelphia, winning 7 to 6, after losing, 6 to 2. Bucky Walters was a hitter instead of a pitcher, getting two homers to make up for the 15 hits he allowed on the mound as Cincinnati beat the Braves at Boston, 10 to 8. The Braves won the second game, 9 to 4.

Firemen Called Out By Scorched Toast

Wenatchee, Wash., May 21 (UP)—They're still shaking their heads over this one at the Wenatchee fire department.

Answering an alarm, firemen found an excited housewife with a house full of smoke. They gently pointed out the smoke came from burning bread in the toaster.

While the firemen were forcing the smoke from the house with blowers, the woman made some more toast. That's right—she burned it again.

Veteran on Tudo Scores Victory

Tijuana, Mex., May 21 (UP)—War veteran Frank Chojnacki rode Tudo to a surprise victory in the Caliente handicap at the Hipodromo de Tijuana yesterday covering the six furlongs in 1:11 4/5.

Tudo, owned by the Red Bull brothers, was well up, but slightly off the early pace, then came up with a rush in the stretch to win going away from the long shot Riskaduce and the Speed Horse and Pacemaker Kid finish.

Tudo paid $11.20.

No-Name Meet Attracts Bears

Bend high school athletes participated in their first No-Name league competition last week-end, when the annual league track meet was held at Eugene and the Lava Bear thin clads placed behind Salem and Eugene and ahead of Albany.

Thirteen boys made up the squad, eight of them being freshmen and sophomores and the rest juniors. Considering the inexperience of the group they made a fine showing and should be one of the teams favored for the title in 1946.

George Rasmussen, Bend vaulter, set a new meet record of 12 feet in his event. An injury kept him from participating in his two other specialties, the high and low hurdles.

Winners Named
Other winners and place getters were Dick Maudlin who won the mile in 4:55 and Don Bushnell who placed third in that event. Vern Clark took a second in the 880, Lindel Filey a fourth in the 440 and Wayne Halligan fourth in the high hurdles. Bob Sutton made his best throw of the year in the javelin to place third at 148 ft. 5 in. Don McCauley, flipped the discus over 115 feet, his best competitive throw, to place third in that event. Maudlin took second in the broad jump, an event in which a new record was set by Weber of Salem.

Following the meet coaches of the league met to draw up their league football and basketball schedules. Definite dates have as yet not been set but the Bears will play all five of their league opponents, Springfield and Eugene will come to Bend while games with Albany, Corvallis and Salem will be played on the road.

Schedules Studied
The schools agreed to play home and home games in basketball. This will bring Albany, Corvallis, Springfield, Salem and Eugene to Bend this coming season for one night stands. The Bears will play Eugene and Springfield, Albany and Corvallis, Salem and some non-league team on their swings to the valley.

Computed schedules on the two sports are expected to be announced the latter part of this week.

187,399 Fans Pay Visit to Parks

New York, May 21 (UP)—Baseball attendance hit a new 1945 high yesterday when 187,399 spectators paid their way into eight parks, with the 46,575 cash customers at the Giant-Pirate game in New York a high mark for individual games.

The best previous attendance at Sunday doubleheaders was on April 29, when 171,162 fans were on hand. The four National league doubleheaders yesterday outdrew the quartet of American league twin-bills, 116,197 to 71,202.

Screw-worm infestations of cattle, heaviest in southern states, are reported spreading northward to Missouri and Illinois.
