

Bernard Collins Sees Isle Action

Aboard an Aircraft Carrier in the Pacific—Bernard A. Collins, machinist's mate, second class, USNR, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Lewis, live at 846 Colorado avenue, Bend, Ore., was aboard this Essex class aircraft carrier when her planes battered Okinawa prior to the marine and army landings.

With other units of the Pacific fleet, this ship sent out her planes in a long series of sweeps and strikes that blasted enemy aircraft, shore installations and shipping from the Ryukyu islands to the Japanese homeland.

Veteran Pacific fighters aboard the ship consider the recent action among the severest of the war in the Pacific. Sometimes day and night were broken by only short pauses for food and rest. Planes were fueled, armed, launched, then landed and at once prepared to fight again.

Besides doing her primary job of servicing its air group, the carrier put in a few licks with her own guns, destroying one enemy plane and helping down another.

Frenchman Weds In German Jail

Paris, May 21 (UP)—Former French Premier Leon Blum was married while jailed by the Germans to a woman who fought her way to his side, he revealed in an interview today.

"After I was deported to Germany, my wife gave the Germans no peace until they granted her permission to come join me," the white-haired socialist leader said. "After her arrival they let us marry. My wife showed iron courage throughout and shared my life of internment."

Blum's first wife died in 1935. His present wife formerly was married to Henri Torres, French lawyer now in the United States.

Blum said the American troops who liberated him and his wife in an Austrian mountain village on May 4 "treated us with a kindness and courtesy we shall never forget."

He said he would resume his post as chief editor of the socialist newspaper Populaire. But he wouldn't discuss his political future.

Bad Birds Bring Warnings Home, On String Ends

Springfield, Ill., May 21 (UP)—H. Clay Gott, attorney general's office employe, today awaited results of an experiment he hoped would aid all victory gardeners.

Gott discovered chickens in his garden. They scratched up the seeds as fast as he planted them. Yesterday the chickens found and quickly gobbled up several large kernels of golden corn spread about the garden.

A little later the chickens' owners were surprised to find hanging from the fowls' bills pieces of paper with the typewritten note: "I have been a bad bird. Please keep me home, before I get killed."

The notes were attached to pieces of string tied to the kernels of corn through laboriously drilled small holes.

Sweet Home Man Arrested Here

A Sweet Home logger was arrested for drunk driving, and his woman companion was held briefly in the county jail on charges of being drunk and disorderly as a result of an early morning chase by Bend police yesterday. Mrs. Bevens was arrested when she appeared at police headquarters and assertedly demanded Geringich's release.

Alaska The eyes of the world are upon Alaska. Called "Seward's Folly" when it was purchased from Russia for $7,200,000, it is today realized to be truly "The Great Country," as the natives have always called it. Linking the Occident to the Orient, in the dawning era of the Pacific Alaska will be on the trade-routes of a stupendous new world commerce. Itself a rich storehouse of fabulous treasures in minerals, timber, fish, fur-bearing animals, and even of areas of great agricultural fertility, it provides the West's greatest challenge to the spirit of the pioneer. Commercially served by modern steamships which ply sheltered inland seas of incomparable grandeur, Alaska will be the mecca of both tourists and enterprisers in the fascinating new world of the peace.
