

Show Boss Your Card, Is Advice Of SSB Official

With many returning servicemen entering the labor market for the first time, and with students getting jobs in the coming holidays, Howard J. Nelson, manager of the Klamath Falls office of the social security board advised all workers "to show their social security account card to every employer for whom they work." Nelson was here today.

"This is essential to protect the worker's wage record, which is maintained under his name and number for his future monthly insurance benefits, Nelson pointed out. For example, there are approximately 375,000 Smiths on the social security board's records and, therefore, there are approximately 575,000 accounts under the name of Smith. It is important that no two Smiths have the same number, it was explained.

Points Stressed

In stressing this point of one number for a worker's lifetime, Nelson said that employers are required to report each worker's wages, under both his name and number to the government every three months. Then these wages are credited by the social security board on each worker's individual ledger sheet, under both his name and number.

For these reasons, Nelson said all workers in industry and commerce should follow this advice:

1. Show our card to every employer for whom you work.
2. Make sure that he copies both your name and number correctly so that your wages may be credited to our account.

3. Hang on to your card. Don't lose it; but if you do lose it, get a duplicate. Never get a different number. Two numbers may cause some loss of wage credits and consequently of benefits. If you have more than one number, go to the nearest office of the social security board and see which one you should keep. You need only one number throughout life.

Redmond Seeking New Census Count

Redmond, May 25—Seeking an adjustment of state revenues given cities based upon their population in 1940, the Redmond city council has requested the secretary of state to permit an early census taking here, it was reported today. Contending that Redmond's population has greatly increased since 1940, the council sought the new census under authority of recent legislation permitting the census before the next scheduled one in 1950.

Local officials point out that the present $2.04 cents per capita received from the state would be greatly increased if the new census figures were supplied the state.

NONCHALANCE PLUS

South Bend, Ind. (AP)—Passengers gathered around sympathetically as William Kozlowski, 53, Mishawaka carpenter, crawled uninjured through the broken rear window of his demolished automobile after it had been dragged 75 feet by a fast passenger train. "Anyone see my glasses?" Kozlowski asked.

Bend Men Serve Under Doolittle

England, V-E Day (Delayed)—Among the 185,000 men and women of the Eighth air force congratulated today by Lt. Gen. James H. Doolittle, who assumed command of the Eighth in January, 1944, were several from Bend.

"I wish to extend my personal congratulations and my heartfelt appreciation to every one of you for the magnificent job you have done," Gen. Doolittle said in a message to all personnel.

"Each of you," he continued, "may be proud of your part in the defeat of Germany. I am proud of you. The world is proud of you."

The Eighth air force was the world's mightiest strategic bombing force. Its personnel of 185,000 was the equivalent of 12 infantry divisions, and it could send 21,000 airplanes in 2,000 four-engine bombers and 1,000 fighters over Germany at one time, a combat effort possible only through the support of tens of thousands of non-flying specialists.

Among the personnel of the Eighth from Bend were: 1st Lt. George H. Redden, Jr., 140 Xerxes; 1st Lt. Nicole A. Toole, 112 Drake Rd.; 2nd Lt. Frederic K. Shepard; Sgt. Alfred S. Ludi; Cpl. Gilbert L. Pickerns; Cpl. William D. Grindle, 18 Oregon St.; Cpl. Roy Shoemaker, 28 Hastings and Pvt. Joseph Halda, Jr., 1245 Albany street.

Louis B. Mayer Makes Big Money

Philadelphia, May 25 (AP)—Louis B. Mayer, managing director of production for Loew's, Inc., received $908,069.95 in 1944 after taking a wage-bonus cut of $4,400 a week, a report filed with the securities and exchange commission revealed today.

The salary paid Mayer was the highest reported to the SEC this year and included $752,070 received from bonuses and as a share in profits.

In 1943, Mayer received a total payment of $1,138,992, including a bonus of $1,034,492.

BUY U. S. WAR SAVINGS BONDS OUT OF Today's Earnings
—NOT OUT OF YESTERDAY'S SAVINGS

Your Government urges the purchase of U. S. War Savings Bonds out of new earnings by the sacrifice of unneeded things.

Remember that your savings deposits have already been largely invested in Government bonds by the bank. Therefore, if you withdraw from your account, you do not put any new money into Uncle Sam's hands. You merely start a wasteful shifting around of funds already working for victory.

Buy U. S. War Savings Bonds and keep buying them. Nothing else in your life is so important as that right now.
