

Lombardi's Four Base Hit Gives Giants Victory

By Carl Lundquist
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
New York, May 26 (U.P.)—It was as plain as the nose on catcher Ernie (Schnozzle) Lombardi's face today that he and his Giant team mates aren't depending on their bath-tub shaped home park to remain red hot pennant choices in the National league race.

Bulwarked by Lombardi's busy bat, the New Yorkers are putting the lie to critics who said their pennant bubble would burst into sudsy rubble once they got on the road. Instead they are winning as consistently as when they were aiming for the short barriers at the Polo Grounds and unless some team stops them soon they may make a run-away of the race.

Hits Long Homer
It has been Lombardi, more than any other player, who has rejuvenated the Giants from an indifferent second division club of last season into a fearsome array of heavy sluggers. The jovial soft-speaking westerner from Oakland, Cal., hit a land mark homer yesterday to pace the Giants to their third straight victory at Cincinnati, 5 to 2.

The Giants went six and a half games ahead of the second place Brooklyn Dodgers and ran their record against the supposedly strong western teams to 12 triumphs in 15 starts. They have won five straight from the Reds, four in a row from the Cubs and two out of three from the Cardinals, showing a deficit only against Pittsburgh with one win in three. Their only defeat on the trip to date was at Pittsburgh, even though Lombardi tried to win it with a homer.

Get 16 Hits
The Cubs needed 16 hits to beat the last place Phillies, 4 to 3, Hank Wyse gaining his fifth victory, a seven hitter. Vince DiMaggio's sixth homer was the only telling blow he permitted. Wyse won his game with a single in the seventh scoring Bill Schuster, who had tripped.

The Pirates won their fifth straight at Pittsburgh, beating Boston, 5 to 3, for Elwin (Preacher) Roe's fourth triumph against two losses. Veteran Jackie Saltzgaver paced the 10-hit winning attack with two singles and a double.

The Cards won their fourth straight over the Brooklyn Dodgers, 9 to 7, at St. Louis in a battle which found neither starting pitcher surviving the first inning. Brooklyn made four runs and the Cards five. Ray Sanders clinched the victory with a three-run homer in the fourth.

Yankees Win Again
The Yankees, winning their fourth straight at New York, knocked the White Sox out of first place and went in themselves with a 5 to 4 victory, brought about by George Stinewiss' two-run triple in the eighth. Nick Etten led the 14-hit Yankee attack with three singles.

Beavers Losers In Long Battle

(By United Press)
In a game marked by a total of 19 hits the San Francisco Seals last night staggered through a 13-inning 5 to 4 victory over the Portland Beavers whose league leadership was cut to a single game over Seattle.

In other contests the Oakland A's shut out the San Diego Padres 6 to 0 behind the six-hit pitching of Red Mann; the Rainiers made it four straight over the Los Angeles Angels by a score of 2 to 1 and Hollywood defeated Sacramento 10 to 6.

Joyce Gets Credit
Bob Joyce, who hurled only one of the 13 innings, was formally credited with the Beavers' downfall, but angry Portland fans blamed a lot of it on Beaver center fielder Frank Shone.

In the fifth Shone threw from the outfield into the dugout, permitting two runs to score. In the seventh two more came in when he slipped and fell while attempting to get under Ken Brondell's long fly to center. And in the 13th he let an easy one of Roy Nicely's go by, allowing Joyce to score.

Scores on Fly
The winning run in the Seattle-Los Angeles game came when Roy Johnson scored on Joe Dobbins' long fly to right field. The rampaging Rainiers' first score came when Bob Garboud singled, stole second, went to third on a fielder's choice and scored on Joe Demoran's infield out.

The Solons staged their own version of a comedy of errors, which gave the Twinks four of their first six runs. Southpaw Bob Williams was the winner.

4 Lakes to Open On Memorial Day

With four lakes scheduled to be opened to fishing on May 30, it was announced here today that the state fish commission on Tuesday would install a checking station at South Twin lake. The station is to be established by Dr. Paul Needham, state director of fisheries, and Frank Wire, state game supervisor, and it will be manned by Ross Newcomb.

For the two months that angling will be permitted in the lake, all fishermen are expected to check in and out at the station, reporting their catches. The check is to be made to determine their first victory in three at Boston, shutting out the Red Sox, 5 to 0, for his fourth triumph. The Browns made 12 hits, all but two players hitting safely at least once.

Lefty Al Smith gave the Cleveland Indians their second straight shut-out at Washington, 3 to 0, over the Senators who have gone 24 innings without a run. Smith permitted three hits and only eight balls, including five flies, went into the outfield.

Catcher Paul Richards doubled to score Jimmy Outlaw in the ninth and give Detroit a 2 to 1 victory over the A's at Philadelphia. Frank (Stubby) Overmire outpitched Louis (Bobo) Newson, though he was touched for 10 hits.

Sailor Joe Kahut Defeats Kennedy

Portland, Ore., May 26 (U.P.)—Sailor Joe Kahut of Woodburn, Ore., 180, smashed his way to a ninth round TKO over game, hard-slugging Moose Kennedy, 197, of Vancouver, Wash., at the auditorium here last night in as wild a barroom brawl as fans can remember.

Kahut had the giant Kennedy on the canvas four times in the savage storm of the first six rounds. In the seventh Kennedy threw every punch in his album and only great fighting courage kept Kahut in the melee. Even after a terrible beating for almost three minutes, Kahut showed enough power to send Kennedy to the deck for a nine count at the bell.

In the blazing eighth, the Vancouver negro was laid low by a cruel two-fisted barrage from the snarling, rugged sailor boy. Three times Kennedy was rocked to the floor.

Referee Ralph Stopped the fight at one minute and fourteen seconds of the ninth, after Kahut had dealt Kennedy all the punishment he could absorb.

In a slow match, Leroy Durst, 150, of Longview took a TKO in the tenth over Kelly Jackson, 146, of Portland.

Al Berro in a hectic battle had Powder Proctor on the resin in the second round, but Proctor came back in the third and won by a knockout after belting Berro to the canvas five times.

A crowd of 3,936 shelled out $9,701 to view the card.

Cooper Is Pleased With His Transfer

Pittsburgh, May 26 (U.P.)—The Boston Braves were happy today, big Mort Cooper was happy, and the Pittsburgh Pirates were happy, too.

Cooper was surprised but well-satisfied with the deal that sent him to the Braves from the pennant-winning St. Louis Cardinals. The Braves were glad to add Cooper to their mound staff and the Pirates were happy because Cooper will not pitch in the current Pittsburgh-Boston series.

Dr. Paul Needham To Speak in Bend

Members of the Deschutes county Sportsmen's association will be addressed Monday night by Dr. Paul Needham, state director of fisheries and noted authority on game fish. It was announced today. The meeting will be held at 8 p. m. in the IWA hall on Bond street.

Another feature of the evening will be the showing of wild life pictures by Frank Wire, Oregon state game supervisor. The pictures are in color.

A tailed amphibian, not a true salamander, was discovered in Texas in an artesian well, 188 feet deep.

Well, it has rained so long now that everybody is getting used to it. There for a while all you heard was: "Think it will rain?" Then it got to be: "Think it'll ever clear up?"

But now everybody is wondering if the game warden will fire a signal shot when the season officially opens at one hour before sunrise PWT next Wednesday at South Twin lake. Bets are being made that a fisherman will get hooked before anybody catches a fish, and one fellow is thinking of offering a prize to the fisherman who gets caught by the biggest
