Bonds Approach Thirty Year Peak

By T. W. Kienlen (United Press Staff Correspondent) New York, May 29 (P)—Stocks advanced today for the fifth con-secutive session, reaching further new high ground for more than seven years, while commodity prices improved and listed bonds approached their recent 30-year

Stock market sentiment was bolstered largely by yesterday's optimistic view of the reconversion period taken by WPB chief J. A. Krug, recent favorable railroad and corporation earnings statements and the moves of a suppler of companies to reduce number of companies to reduce heir debt and strengthen their apital positions.

Loans Obtained

American Telephone plans a $175,000,000 flotation of deben-tures with a lower interest rate, designed to save around $875,000 in annual interest charges, and today Warner Brothers Pictures announced a $17,000,000 loan had been taken out to aid refinancing of outstanding debentures and re-payment of an old bank loan.

Twilight Tear to Work Out Despite Bleeding

Louisville, Ky., May 29 (U)— and mattress, Side walk Twilight Tear, great four-year-old filly of the Calumet stables, was scheduled to work out as usual today despite bleeding after a run yesterday. Trainer Ben Jones said there was "nothing to reports" that the horse would be retired. "Many horses bleed after work-outs and it isn't necessarily serious," he said. "Twilight Tear will work out again today."
