Robert F. Iler in Isle Battles

Aboard a Light Cruiser in the Pacific—Taking part in the invasion of Okinawa was Robert F. Iler, electrician's mate, second class, USNR, son of Victor R. Iler of Route 1, Bend, Ore.

Six weeks before he participated in the invasion of Iwo Jima, Iler began his fighting career in the bombardment of the Marshalls. Then followed raids on the Caroline and Mariana Islands, the invasion of Hollandia, and the battles of the Philippine sea and Leyte gulf.

Then came the invasion of Saipan, Guam and Tinian, the bombardment of the Bonin Islands, attacks on Formosa and Luzon, a raid on the Tokyo sector, and sweeps against the coasts of China and Indo-China in which Hong Kong, Hainan, Saigon and Camranh Bay were hit.

Mr. and Mrs. Justin King have announced that they are the new owners of the Carl Galloway garage and service station, located on Sixth and C streets and will assume possession on Friday, June 1.

Summer School Plans Are Made

Vacation Bible school for children of all ages opens at First Lutheran church on Monday, June 4, at 9:00 a. m. This will run for two weeks and will occupy the full morning period, five days a week, it is announced.

The school has the added new equipment of a SVE AAA projector. This will be used to show the life of Christ in pictures, "Pilgrim's Progress," "Missionary Background" and hymns, church officers say.

Mrs. Clifford Davis, Mrs. Geo. Giskus, Mrs. Fritz Wallan, Mrs. M. A. Thompson, and the local pastor form the initial staff. The teaching will be divided into three sections, kindergarten, primary, and upper.

A Bible school—Sunday school—congregational picnic at Shewlin's park after services on Sunday, June 17 will finish the teaching. W. E. Anderson, H. Christensen, Mrs. Ralph Curtis, Mrs. Maurice Melsness, and Mrs. Fritz Wallan are on a committee making arrangements for this outing.

Homemaking

MAKE YOUR OWN SHELVES Many homemakers can provide extra storage by making better use of the space they now have in their cupboards says Elizabeth H. Boeckel, home demonstration agent of Deschutes county.

If the space between shelves is greater than need be, just add a step shelf, Miss Boeckel suggests. This is a narrow shelf placed so as to make use of room that is now wasted above supplies and under the next shelf.

Shelves on the inside of cupboard doors make a good storage space for lightweight staples like soda, baking powder, cornstarch, etc. A 3/8-inch strip of wood at the front of each will keep things from slipping off.

These racks and shelves are easily made from scrap lumber with a saw, hammer, nails and some glue. Many Oregon homemakers are doing just these things at simple carpentry meetings being sponsored by the home economics extension service.

Kings Take Over Galloway Garage

Redmond, June 1 (Special)—Mr. and Mrs. Justin King have announced that they are the new owners of the Carl Galloway garage and service station, located on Sixth and C streets and will assume possession on Friday, June 1.

Galloway who has owned and conducted a garage business in Redmond for over 20 years, will still retain the ownership of the building, which houses the garage and service station, which he constructed in 1938.

Mr. and Mrs. Galloway will continue to reside in their Redmond home and will operate their two ranches near the city.

Marriage is a Serious Business by Randolph Ray

CAUSES OF DIVORCE How many wives are bitterly jealous when their husbands speak to attractive women, yet often enough, when the marriage breaks up and the husband marries again, he chooses a good companion with not half the sex appeal of the wife he has left.

There are few forces as destructive as possessiveness. It turns love into a grim battle for the survival of a personality and, more often than not, it kills the thing it loves.

Approximately one marriage out of six ends in divorce. And these are only the failures which reach public attention. Of the others, a vast number are unhappy—but in many cases, unnecessarily so.

One thing seems to be certain. A man and woman who are successful as lovers are able to overcome far more difficulties than a couple who are not happy in their sex life.

Learning to live together, learning to adjust to one another physically and emotionally and intellectually, is a slow and difficult process. It cannot be learned in a night, or a week or a month.

Mr. and Mrs. Galloway will continue to reside in their Redmond home and will operate their two ranches near the city.

ship in marriage. It is the woman more often than the man who is disappointed in married life. After marriage, it is the husband's part to show his aptitude in arousing and maintaining the responsiveness of his wife.
