

Cards Win Third Straight Contest To Defeat Giants

New York, June 4 (AP)—Any team in either major league which can begin to win consistently on the road must be considered a pennant contender on the basis of unmistakable trends revealed today at the completion of the first stage of the races.

As the teams completed "looping the loops," playing every other team in the league on a home and home basis, it was evident that there isn't an outstanding road club in either circuit.

The best "traveling men" in either league are the Detroit Tigers, but surprisingly they have not done well enough at home to match their road records of 11 wins and eight losses. Had they been able to win more than nine and lose seven in their own park they might be nursing a substantial lead instead of playing second fiddle to the New York Yankees.

Cardinals, Reds Gain
Only two National league clubs profited to any extent in the Sunday slate of double bills, the Cardinals and the Reds, strengthening their position by beating the Giants and Dodgers respectively.

The Cards gained their third straight victory from Charley Barrett to beat the Giants, 11 to 3, in the opener. Ted Wilks showed signs of a return to his 1944 form by winning the second game, 8 to 2.

The Reds won their eighth straight at Cincinnati, beating the Dodgers, 6 to 2 and 4 to 1, and dumping them into fourth place behind the Cards.

The Pirates topped the Phils, 7 to 6, with a ninth inning run on an error. The second game was "curfewed" in the sixth with the Phils ahead, 11 to 9. It will be completed in July. Catcher Bill Skelid hit a three-run homer for the Pirates in the opener.

Clause Passeau shrugged at 40-degree Chicago weather and pitched the Cubs to a two-hit, 3 to 1 victory over the Braves after Boston had taken the first game, 2 to 1, on the effective "spot" pitching of Lefty Bob Logan.

Bowery Wins Seventh
Hank Bowery won his seventh game against one defeat for the Yankees, beating the Indians in the opener, 8 to 2. Steve Gromek was just as effective for Cleveland to gain a 4 to 1 win in the nightcap.

Lanky Russ Christopher, whose record is the more remarkable because he hurfs for the last place Athletics, won his eighth game against two defeats trimming the Browns, 3 to 1. He yielded a first inning homer to Don Gutteridge but wasn't bothered after that, Bobby Estallela clinching his fifth hit win with an eighth inning homer. Newman (Tex) Shirley pitched 13 innings for "nothing," working for the Browns against Bobo Newsom, Joe Berry, and Steve Gerkin in a 0 to 0 standoff called by the Pennsylvania curfew.

Detroit ended Boston's five-game winning streak with a 4 to 3 second game victory behind Lefty Hal Newhouse after the Red Sox won the first, 4 to 3 in the eighth on a double by Eddie Lake and a single by Jack Tobin.

The Senators topped the White Sox, 3 to 1, to give Roger Wolff a seven-hit triumph but Chicago came back to win the second, 5 to 1, with Johnny Humphries also pitching a seven-hitter.

Portland Beavers And Seattle Split

(By United Press)

The Portland Beavers still had a two and one-half game lead on the Pacific coast league pack today after a week of tangleing with their nearest rivals, the Seattle Rainiers. The two clubs split a double-header yesterday, giving the Beavers five out of eight games.

Don Pullard scattered seven Rainier blows in the opener to set up a 5-2 Portland triumph, while Seattle came back with a 2-1 decision in the nightcap even though they were limited to four hits by Ad Liska.

The San Francisco Seals also made it five out of eight from Oakland by taking the second game of a twin bill, 7-2, after the Oaks grabbed the first contest, 2-0. Los Angeles defeated Hollywood twice, 7-0 and 4-3, for a 5-2 series edge, and San Diego annexed a pair from Sacramento by 4-3 margins. The Solons, however, had a 4-4 break for the week.

Gets Good Support
Pulford of Portland had batting support from Frank Demaree and manager Marv Owen, each of whom drove out three hits. Si Johnson was the winning hurler for Seattle in the second game after he relieved Joe Demoran in the fourth.

More than 15,000 San Franciscans watched the Seals whip their old Oakland jinx, Italo Chelini, in the nightcap after Damon Hayes had twirled a shutout five-hitter for the Acorns in the opener. Jake Caulfield, Oakland shortstop, took hitting honors for the afternoon with four for eight.

Los Angeles had little trouble with Hollywood as Charlie Cuelar came up with a four-hitter in the first game and Red Adams spaced out eight blows in the finale.

Padres Take Pair
San Diego won both games from Sacramento the hard way—in the ninth. Carl Dumler and Carl Monzo were the winning pitchers. Pepper Martin led the Padre batters with four for eight, including a triple.

Engagements this week find Seattle at San Francisco; Oakland at Sacramento; Portland at Los Angeles and Hollywood at San Diego.

Dempsey Lauds Oregon Fighter

Portland, Ore., June 4 (AP)—The Woodburn wonder of the leather pushers—Sailor Joe Kahut—has been taking some voice lessons from a master: He's been listening to Jack Dempsey tell him he has as good a chance as any to become heavyweight champ.

At a naval base where Joe is stationed near Port Townsend, Wash., Joe listened to the ole' mauler while the former heavyweight champion was there on a bond tour, Joe wrote to Portland friends.

"Your weight is OK," Jack said to Joe, who for his last fight here weighed in at 181, "but you should gain another inch in height before you are 24 years old. (Joe is 21).

"But don't hurry, sailor. Joe Louis is getting older and fatter in the army and Billy Conn isn't getting any younger. As for the other heavyweights in the game today, you have as good a chance as any of them."

Dempsey said he expected to arrive in Portland Friday morning.

Today's Sport Parade

(United Press Staff Correspondent)
New York, June 4 (AP)—Frank "Frenchy" Hawley is a racetrack feller; but it's not the hosses that bother him—it's the women.

They're after him in increasing hundreds each month—chorus gals, models, steno's, matrons, etc. Women who are afraid of becoming fat seek him out because of his success in keeping little men small—jockeys. He is the most successful trainer of racing riders in turf history.

Hawley is a middle-sized French Canadian of 49, whose jet black hair and athletic build make him look at least 10 years younger. Some 60 jockeys at what ever "big" track is running turn their bodies—their weights—and their tutures to him. And their confidence is expressed in their familiar greeting: "Poppa."

Weight is all-important for a jockey; poundage is more important for a pro rider of thoroughbreds unquestionably than for a member of any other profession. The average "jock" tries to keep at about 103 pounds, so that he and his "tack"—uniform, saddle, etc.—will not exceed 110, or at most 115.

Even for a little man, it is difficult to remain a flyweight. Down through the years jockeys have run miles on the road in the morning to take off weight, and in emergencies have buried themselves in piles of steaming manure—with only their heads sticking out—to make certain that the surplus flesh has been sweated off.

Frank Hawley, a former professional fighter, accomplishes the reducing job for jockeys in such a modern, stream-lined, cleanly fashion that he is hired by the major New York and Florida racing associations to condition the riders. Every major track in those areas have provided him with a large and modernly-equipped training room—as an important part of the jockeys' quarters.

There are two secrets to Hawley's success: (1) He has devised a concoction of salt solutions and ammonia in which one can bathe,

(2) meanwhile having the bath take the most beef off certain selected spots of the body which have been anointed with a secret rubbing cream that increases the heat on those parts.

Loggers Victors Over Prineville

Hitting in every inning, the Bend Loggers scored an easy victory over the Prineville Cowboys at Prineville Sunday, 16 to 6, in the first baseball game of the 1945 season. The two teams will meet again in Prineville on June 17, and other games are being arranged for the season, according to Jack Gordon, manager of the local nine.

With Bill Hatch on the mound for Bend, the Cowboys were held to only one hit in the first five innings, while the Loggers hammered in nine runs. Then Harold Barfnecht took the mound for Bend and safely protected Hatch's lead.

Bend made a total of 16 runs on sixteen hits and four Cowboy errors, while the Broncho-Busters garnered only 6 runs on seven hits. Only two errors were chalked up against the Loggers.

While no regular baseball circuit can be arranged, prospects for several good games in Bend during the summer appear bright, Gordon said.
