Piano Pupils To Play at Parish Hall

The syllabus music examinations and auditions for pupils of music teachers affiliated with the Oregon Music Teachers' association will be held this week in the Episcopal parish hall, Mrs. J. R. Cowan, president of the local chapter, has announced. Mrs. Craig Coyner is syllabus chairman. Other music teachers who are members of the local chapter and Tom O'Brien and Bessie Howard, piano; Mrs. Montelle G. Coe, voice; and Orville Shultz, violin.

A large enrollment of piano students will be judged Thursday, Friday and Saturday by Miss Nellie Tholen, a musical educator whose honors include the state chairmanship of education in music and the chairmanship of the war service activities of the national music sorority, Mu Phi Epsilon. She is also state counselor for the National Federation of Music Clubs and co-director of the Williams-Tholen school of music.

The examinations are the result of the efforts of the state board of education and the Oregon Music Teachers' association to raise the standard of music teaching by adhering to a plan by which the music student in the small town shall have the same opportunity for advancement that is offered to students in large cities. In accordance with this plan, music students may receive high school credits for their study. "This program definitely ties up music study with school work and creates greater interest and added incentive for good work on the part of the student," Mrs. Cowan pointed out.

Piano Recital Monday Evening Features Varied Selections

An appreciative audience enthusiastically received five advanced piano students of Mrs. John W. Anderson who were presented in recital Monday evening at the parish hall, playing classical selections taken from their guild audition repertoires.

Mariys Prentice opened the program with a three-number group: Bach's two-part "Invention in A Minor," "Pastorale" by Mokjres and Debussy's "First Arabesque." Betty Jean Davis, playing a group expressing a variety of moods, chose Bach's D major two-part invention: "Valse D Flat" by Chopin, Grieg's "Eroik" and "Honey," by Nathaniel Dett.

"Alamande" by De-Albert and "Hungarian" by McDowell were Dorothy Bush's first group, followed by two vocal solos presenting Helen Bailey, "Silent as Night" Bohm, and "Destiny," Arthur Berth. Helen Hudson was her accompanist.

Two piano solos by Helen Hudson followed: Bach's "Organ Prelude in E Minor" and Palmgren's "En Route."

A group of three numbers were played by Cynthia Shevlin: "Romance D Flat," Sibelius; "Evening at Padu Hills," Rasbach, and "Valse Chromatique," Godard.

Helen Hudson was featured in another vocal interlude, "Trees," Kilmer-Rasbach, and "The Lord's Prayer," Mailotte.

The complete "Warsaw Concerto," arranged for the piano by the composer, Addinsell, was played by Dorothy Bush, and Helen Hudson played the final numbers, Chopin's "C Sharp Minor Waltz" and Godard's "E Courante."

At the conclusion of the program, Mrs. Hilda Bush, chairman of the Bend audition center, presented diplomas and certificates to the pianists.

Forest Employees Picnic at Lodge

Employees of the Deschutes national forest staff and their families, representing the Bend, Crescent, Fort Rock and Sisters districts, held their annual spring picnic Sunday at the Skyliners lodge. Fifty-eight guests, including members of the office staff, rangers and look-outs, were present for the occasion, which featured a hearty meal in the rustic clubhouse followed by baseball, horse-shoe pitching and other games. Mrs. Charles Overbay was general chairman for the affair.

A highlight of the day was the presentation of two gifts, by the staff. Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Duberow were given a wedding present, and Eugene Wilmoth, of the Bend district, was presented a farewell gift. Wilmoth plans to retire from the forest service and make his home at Cove.

Sub-Debs End Year With Dinner Party

The Senior Sub-Deb club held its final meeting of the season with a six o'clock dinner Monday at the Pine Tavern, in the form of a farewell party for the Misses Mary Alice Glatt and Iris Thomas.

Others present were Misses Eva Kittleson, June Alfrey, Ruth Ann Terlisner, Fern Grindle, Joyce Armstrong, Sally Schilling and Jean Raddatz. Members unable to attend were Miss Helen Hudson and Miss Betty Jeffries.

Miss Thomas left this morning to join her family in Portland, accompanied by Miss Mary Alice Glatt, who will go to Woodburn to make her home with her father, and Miss Joyce Armstrong, who will spend a week visiting friends in Portland. The girls will meet Miss Betty Jeffries in Portland to celebrate her birthday.
