"Erv" Says We know two disappointed fellows who won't be having turkey for Thanksgiving tomorrow. One had the family refrigerator so full of geese and ducks his wife refused to consider another fowl. The other had a turkey all bought from a farmer, but his car froze up and he couldn't go after it. If you haven't winterized your car by now, you've probably learned better. But don't forget, it needs continual service. Bring it to us — we'll treat it right. Mission Service E. B. "Erv" Hogan Bond & Franklin Phone 340
