

Bears, Axemen In Local Finale

The final no-name league contest for Bend and the last home game of the year will pit the Bears against the power-packed Eugene Axemen here Friday night.

The Axemen will need this win to assure themselves of the league championship since they are only a game ahead of Salem's Vikings.

The Axemen are generally conceded to rank with Medford, Oregon City, Washington High of Portland and Baker as pre-tournament favorites for the state championship.

Tickets for this, the final game are on sale at the City Drug Co. Don Fawcett, popular Portland referee, will handle the game.

Seattle Ironmen Trounce Oakland

It was an all-around bad night for central California's representatives in the Pacific coast hockey league last night. The San Francisco Shamrocks took an 8-2 beating from the Los Angeles Monarchs in the south while Oakland was being trounced 6 to 2 by the Seattle Ironmen.

In Seattle, the humbled Oakland Oaks were handed their third straight loss in their current invasion of the northern circuit when the Ironmen broke a tie with a four-goal spree in the last period.

Seattle opened the scoring with two goals in the first period, but the Oaks came back with one in the first and another in the second to knot the score.

Out Our Way

"EYES THAT SEE NOT" J.R. WILLIAMS

Today's Sport Parade

By Oscar Fraley (United Press Sports Writer)

New York, Feb. 21 (UP)—Baseball men seemed a mite surprised today that Manager Eddie Dyer of the St. Louis Cardinals named 34-year-old Terry Moore as team captain—which must surprise both Dyer and Moore.

For the plain fact of the matter is that Dyer has believed as gospel all along that Moore would be his outfield pivot man when the Cards go out in April to start winning back that National league flag from the Chicago Cubs.

"Our outfield certainly is no problem," Dyer explained. "Moore will be back."

Just like that the Texas man solved the situation. And, when somebody wanted to know whether Moore wasn't getting just a bit too decrepit, Eddie explained:

"Sure, Terry soon will be 34 but he's just as fast as ever, he's smart and he'll cover as much ground as any of them. On top of that, Moore is just about the greatest team player in the majors today."

That's a tipoff on how badly the Cards missed Moore when he enlisted in the army on May 31, 1943, after leading the Cards to a 1942 world series victory over the Yankees.

The popular misconception was that with all the youngsters returning to the Cardinal fold, and a sterling lot at that, such "old men" as Moore might find themselves on the waiver list.

But they were forgetting the fact that three years ago Terry was the best in the center field business. Okay, so you're a Di-maggio fan. But they'd give you a red-hot argument in the Cardinal camp. And two of the erstwhile St. Louis pilots, Billy Southworth and Ray Blades, are on record with assertions that Moore was the man for their money.

So after talking with Dyer, there never was a question but that Moore would wind up in the Card outfield. They like his spirit and his all-out team try. Senior Miguel Angel Gonzalez, the Cardinal coach who gained linguistic fame with his "good infield, no hit" report on a rookie, hit it right on the head.

"Terry? Oh, heeze great fellow. Great ball player. Never saw better wan. Ala time getting better. Heet him on head, he never mind. Lots of what you say, guts. Mike make no mistake when he see him first time. Allus lots of class. No bad habit. Fine man on team to have. Like ween alla time. Lose—he know he do best. Can't ask what more of ball player."

Mike is right, as usual. Moore is a ball player's ball player. He'll be in there battling to the final out every time, welding his team mates into one unit that meshes and even at 34 giving it plenty of pepper.

That's because he has the canininess of 60 and the frolicsomeness of 16. The answer would seem to be that Moore is a very young 34.

Death Of Boxer Is Investigated

Salem, Ore., Feb. 21 (UP)—Jack Von, 22-year-old 180-pound Salem boxer, died in a local hospital last night from what doctors believe was injuries received in a bout with Bobby Ford, 178-pound Portland negro.

An autopsy will be made today to determine definitely the cause of death, the coroner's office said.

Ford, who is 16, and his second, Adolph A. Caputo, 30, were being detained by Salem police pending an investigation by the district attorney's office.

Taken to Hospital Von, a discharged marine corps veteran, was taken to the hospital immediately after he lost by a technical knockout in the fifth round. He died 20 minutes after entering the hospital.

Von was fighting his fourth professional bout. In the fifth round Ford drove the Salemite through the ropes. Von recovered and Ford closed in again, knocking Von down. As he fell his head violently hit the center rope. Referee Packy McFarland stopped the match and awarded Ford the contest.

The ex-serviceman staggered to his own corner then collapsed.

Indians' Feller Heads For Camp

Chicago, Feb. 21 (UP)—Baseball's erstwhile "wonder boy," Bob Feller of the Cleveland Indians heads south tonight to take part in his first spring training in five seasons and like a million diamond fans he has a big question he expects the Florida drills to answer: "Did four years in the navy and away from baseball chores take away any of the blinding speed that helped catapult him from obscurity into major league stardom?"

Feller was discharged from service in time to pitch eight games late last season, but he doesn't regard that "trial" as of sufficient length to provide a real answer as to the effects his long absence may have had on his pitching.

"Whether I'm as fast as ever is one of the things I think spring training is going to determine," Bob said in a frank evaluation of himself. "I believe I am, but then we'll see. Even if I am as fast as ever maybe I won't look it to those on the bench or in the grandstand for I've got a lot better control than I had when I broke in."

Dyer Holds Hopes For 1946 Redbirds

St. Petersburg, Fla., Feb. 21 (UP)—Eddie Dyer, in his first "strategy announcement" since taking over as manager of the St. Louis Cardinals, said today that the 1946 Redbirds would be a "big inning" baseball team this season.

Revealing plans to make his first Cardinal team the "Yankees of the National league," Dyer told reporters that "we're going in for sluggers so we can have the kind of club that can wind up a game in any inning."
