

Tumalo

Tumalo, March 21 (Special) — Tumalo Study club met Tuesday, March 12, with Mrs. H. A. Scoggin, Mrs. James Whitlock being the assistant hostess. Ten members and three guests attended the 3 o'clock luncheon, following which Miss Olive Jameson of the Deschutes county welfare office spoke to the group. Miss Jameson talked on the dependent children in the county for which officials must find foster homes. The need of good foster homes as a preventative for youthful delinquency of these children was stressed. Other guests, besides Miss Jameson, were Mrs. Sam Burgess of Shevlin and Mrs. Alleen Kalleen. The club voted to sponsor a tea in June at the home of Mrs. Clarence Elder to which members of the Bend and Redmond garden clubs would be invited. The April meeting is scheduled to meet with Mrs. Del Davis with Mrs. Harry Windom assisting.

Mrs. Clarence Elder is in Los Angeles for six weeks visiting her mother.

Rev. R. H. Prentice who is leaving shortly for Helena, Mont., will be the guest of honor at a supper at the Tumalo grange hall Sunday evening, March 24, which will be given by the young people of the Tumalo Community church, the First Presbyterian church of Bend and the Community church of Redmond.

Mr. and Mrs. Darrle Johns and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Brown of Redmond visited at the Joe C. Henry home Saturday.

Sam Henry who has just returned from Italy, where he was sent with a consignment of prisoners, is now on his way to Australia with another load of prisoners. Sam, who is an M. P., says they will bring back a load of Australian war brides. The trip will take two months.

Jean Hanneman spent the weekend at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Hanneman, from Eugene, where she is attending a beauty school.

The Humbert family left Sunday for Kansas where they plan to visit for the next two months. They recently sold their ranch and held a public auction sale to dispose of their household belongings, machinery and stock.

Mrs. Lee Putnam were given the obligation in the first and second degrees at grange Friday evening and Mr. and Mrs. Oida McGuire and Harry Gossler were voted into the grange. Plans were made to redecorate the interior of the grange hall in the very near future. Money for the redecorating is being raised by the home economics club from public dances.

Carol Baker has been quite ill at her home the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Perry and The Tumalo grange will entertain its new members at a party and dance at the hall Saturday evening, March 23. Music for dancing will be furnished and refreshments will be served. All new people in the community who would like to join the organization are also invited to attend. Old members are asked to bring cookies.

Mrs. Del Davis, Mrs. George Blumler and Mrs. L. E. Crecellus were hostesses for supper Friday evening at grange. Ice cream, cookies, coffee and punch were served.

Lt. Don Grubb is home on terminal leave and shortly will be discharged. Don is now a first lieutenant, having received his raise in rank recently.

A wheel on the Tumalo-Redmond union high school bus came off as the bus was nearing the end of the day's route Thursday, near the old Pinehurst school grounds. No one was injured and the wrecker hauled the bus to Redmond for repairs Friday morning.

Mrs. Carl Mitchell and daughter, Carol and Lois, left Friday noon by bus for Portland.

Sue O'Neil, third grade pupil at Tumalo, had the misfortune to have one of her front teeth knocked out while playing at school last Tuesday. The accident occurred as a result of a collision.

Don Franks, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Franks, who is home on leave from the navy following 17 months spent in the Philippines, was married to Miss Mildred Hunnell of Redmond, March 14.

Dean Davis is en route home for his discharge from Honolulu where he sailed March 12.

Nell Davis spent the weekend at home visiting from Portland. Mahlon Couch and Mildred Cunningham, both young people who grew up and attended school at Tumalo, were married in Bend last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Young who have been farming in partnership with Jap Thompson in the Plainview community for the past eight years, moved to Albany where they have bought a home, the last of the week. Thursday evening a number of friends dropped in and surprised them. Members of the Plainview grange and H. E. club presented them with a gift.

E. A. Crawford left with a truck load of stock for Medford where the family will move in a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Glass and son, Delvin and daughter, Lorna, returned Thursday from Longview, Wash., where they were called by the death of Mrs. Glass's father.

Mrs. E. W. Putnam and daughter, Mary Ellen, returned Wednesday evening by bus from a trip to Portland.

Silver Lake

Silver Lake, March 21 (Special) — Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Gerking have returned to Susanville, California after visiting the past week with Gerking's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Gerking.

Wanda and Rhonda Swan and P. D. Montgomery were called to California this week by the death of Mrs. Montgomery's father.

Bill Hamilton moved his cattle in from the desert this week. Everett Emery was taken to the doctor in Bend last week. He has been ill from the flu.

Gordon Emery visited the dentist in Bend Monday. Ted and Russell Emery accompanied him.

Joan O'Keefe is home from Portland visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. Jack O'Keefe.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lutz and children of Bend visited Mr. and Mrs. Bert Gerking over the week end.

Miss Marie Kittredge is here visiting her father, Walter Kittredge.

A meeting of the Northern Lake county business men will be held on March 28.

QUICK COFFEE CAKE

(From Mrs. O. A. Ness, 334 1/2 West Berton, Seattle, Wash.)

1 1/2 cups Albers Flapjack & Waffle Flour 1 egg
1/2 cup milk
1/2 cup sugar 1/2 cup oil or melted shortening
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon

Sift flour with sugar and cinnamon. Beat egg, add milk, add melted shortening; then quickly add all to dry ingredients.

Stir just enough to mix well, and spread in shallow pan. Sprinkle batter with mixture of 2 tablespoons sugar and 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon, and dot with one tablespoon butter. Bake in moderately quick oven (400 degrees) 20 to 25 minutes or until done. Serve warm.

Your favorite way of using some Albers product will bring you $5.00, if we print it. Address Albers Milling Company, 1060 Stuart Bldg., Dept. 9N, Seattle 1, Wash.
