Former Bend Girl Is Recent Bride In California Rites

Powell Butte, March 21 (Special)—The chapel of the First Presbyterian church in San Francisco was the scene of an early March wedding of interest here. Vows were exchanged by Miss Beverly Wennerstrom, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Wennerstrom, formerly of Bend, and Charles Minson, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Minson of Powell Butte, at 3:30 p.m. Saturday, March 9. Rev. Creighton performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride's attendant was Mrs. J. C. Minson, mother of the groom, and Charles Vice acted as best man. Following the ceremony, a wedding dinner for the bridal party was held at the Pan-American inn. The table was centered with an elaborate wedding cake baked and decorated by Mrs. Dick Minson of Terrebonne.

Other guests at the wedding included J. C. Minson, the groom's father, and Mrs. Porter Sprague and Miss Barbara Sprague of Prineville.

The newlyweds will make their home for the present at 3250 Divisadero St., San Francisco. Mrs. Minson is attending business college while her husband is serving in the navy, stationed at Treasure Island.

CLUB MEETING CANCELLED

Officers of the Allied Arts study club announced today that the regular meeting scheduled for next Monday has been cancelled.

Shower Motif Is Theme For Party At Garland Home

Miss Jane Snipper, bride-elect of James N. Garland, was honored at a bridal shower for which Mr. and Mrs. Ivor Garland were hosts Friday evening at their home.

The shower gifts were hidden about the rooms. Clues for finding them were included in the decorations on a serving table, centered with an arrangement of daffodils. Cards with instructions for finding the gifts were suspended from a diminutive umbrella of pastel crepe paper.

The following guests were present at the party: Mr. and Mrs. Jim Price, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. McCurdy, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Kirby, Mr. and Mrs. George Lou, Mr. and Mrs. Alma Raper, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Raper, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Mayer, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rukaveno, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Morley, Mr. and Mrs. Skip Wallen, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Anderson, Mrs. Earl Birchard, Mrs. Bob C. Anderson, Mrs. Inez Knight, Helen Anderson, Doris Morley, Rosie Rukaveno, Dorothy Macey, Rosie Knight, Dawn Price, Joan Price and J. N. Garland.

Gifts were also sent by Mrs. D. E. Hill, Mrs. Jerome Ward, Mrs. Rea Shaver, Mrs. Midge Grinstead, Mrs. Dorothy Howard, Mrs. Pearl Howard and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Newby.

Miss Snipper is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Snipper of Seattle, Wash. Her fiance, who was recently discharged from the navy after serving three and one-half years, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ivor Garland of Bend.

Betrothal News Told Bend Friends

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Roberts of Bend this week announced the engagement of their daughter, Eleanor, to Phillip Hensley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hensley, also of Bend. No date has been set for the wedding.

Miss Roberts, who has been studying nursing in Yakima, Wash., was graduated from the Redmond high school with the class of 1943. Her fiance was graduated the same year from the local high school and was recently discharged from the army, after serving 23 months in the South Pacific, as a staff sergeant with the 77th division. He was awarded the bronze star and the silver star citations.

Two Are Initiated At Regular Grange Meeting

Powell Butte, March 21 (Special) — At the regular grange meeting Friday evening, Lloyd Wyatt was elected overseer and Mrs. Bud Harns was named lady assistant steward to fill the vacancies caused by the resignations of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Copley.

Joe Huntley and Stanley Emerson were given the first and second degree obligations and the membership applications of Mr. and Mrs. Nick Rachor were presented. The grange voted to sponsor a 4-H scholarship again this year. The next meeting will be April 5, with the home economics club in charge of the program.

CAMP FIRE GIRLS

Window Display Feature

Interest in national Camp Fire week has been heightened here by a display of handcraft and other articles which have attracted notice for several days in the center window of Wetle's store. The exhibit was arranged by Mrs. John Mogan, Mrs. Gale Blakley, Mrs. Gail Baker, Mrs. G. L. Olson, Mrs. Joe Elder and Miss Jean Webster.

Prominent in the display are articles made by the Waditaka group at Shevlin, whose guardian is Mrs. Milo Chamberlen. The collection includes a hand-knit afghan made for the Junior Red Cross, one of the hand-painted drapes which the girls made for their club house and samples of woodcraft.

Mrs. John Mogan's Ocowasin group displayed novel lapel pins and the window is centered with paper dolls which depict Camp Fire activities, made by the Unaliyee group, under the direction of Miss Jean Webster, guardian.

Ceremonial Gown Shown

A ceremonial gown which is displayed belongs to Shirley Surface, a member of Mrs. Gail Baker's Wahanka group. Her group also displayed personality notebooks and leaf prints and plaques, all handcraft projects.

A block-printed bandana and cross word puzzles, for the junior Red Cross were contributed by Mrs. G. L. Olson's Tawanka group. Mrs. Gale Blakley's Pine Blue Birds exhibited hand-made table favors.

Skating Party Planned

Culminating the local observance of national Camp Fire week, a skating party will be held from 3:30 to 5:30 Friday afternoon at the roller rink. All Camp Fire girls and Blue Birds, as well as girls who are prospective members of either organization, are invited to attend. Guardians will be in charge, Mrs. Joe Elder, executive secretary, announced today. The customary admission fee will be charged.
