Miss Catlow Wears White For Wedding

In a lovely tea frock of white broaded satin, Miss Kathryn Grace Catlow became the bride of Donald Raymond Erickson, of Philomath, Saturday afternoon in Trinity Episcopal church.

The bride's costume was accented with a smoked white felt halo hat, trimmed with a curling ostrich plume in off-white and a shade of brown that exactly matched her hair.

Miss Mary Vandeventer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Vandeventer, was junior bridesmaid, in a knee-length gown of white net, with satin trim.

Bert Vogel, of Corvallis, acted as best man, and ushers were Claude Vandeventer, Jr., and James Hastings, of Portland.

Following the ceremony, a reception for over 50 guests was held at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Vandeventer, aunt and niece of the bride.

couple cut the first piece of wedding cake, Miss Mittie Vandeventer, an aunt of the bride, took charge of the serving.

After the ceremony, the bridal couple left on a wedding trip to Victoria and Vancouver, B. C., after which they will make their home in Philomath.

The bride was a student at St. Helens Hall in Portland, and Oregon State college, after attending schools in Bend and Portland.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Claus Erickson, of Hebo. He was formerly a student at Oregon State college.

Date Is Set For Christmas Party

Meeting last night for dinner at the Pine Tavern, members of the Soroptimist club made plans for a Christmas party Dec. 12, at the home of the president, Mrs. D. Ray Miller.

Envelopes addressed to Soroptimist club members in Holland were distributed to the 14 women present, who were asked to insert a handkerchief or other small gift and mail in time for Christmas distribution.

Ladies aid members of Eastern Star grade hall will hold a rummage sale Monday and Tuesday, Nov. 25 and 26, in Aune's store.

Following the ceremony, a reception for over 50 guests was held at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Vandeventer, aunt and niece of the bride.

Miss Peden Is Church Bride Last Sunday

North Redmond, Nov. 21 (Special) — The Redmond community church was the scene of an attractive afternoon ceremony Sunday, November 17, when Miss Terry Peden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Z. Peden, of Redmond, became the bride of Delmar Eugene Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Del Davis, of Tumalo.

Rev. Elvin A. Fast performed the single-ring ceremony in the presence of relatives and close friends of the couple.

The bride wore an aqua blue atreel-length dress and an orchid corsage. She was given in marriage by her father, Neil Durfee of Redmond, brother of the bridegroom.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents after the ceremony.

Miss Ridgeway Is Wed In Home Rite At 3 P. M. Sunday

At Powell Butte, Nov. 21 (Special) — The community church was appropriately decorated with two large baskets of yellow and white chrysanthemums Sunday afternoon when Mavis Louise Ridgeway, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Ridgeway, of Powell Butte, became the bride of Ray Eugene Durfee, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Durfee, of Redmond.

The bride wore an aqua blue atreel-length dress and an orchid corsage. She was given in marriage by her father, Neil Durfee of Redmond, brother of the bridegroom.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents after the ceremony.

Wedding Planned For Thanksgiving

An approaching wedding of interest here is that of Miss Carol Freese, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Freese, of Portland, and Lyle O. Bowman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ollie L. Bowman, of Bend.

The wedding is planned for Thanksgiving day at the home of the bride-elect's parents.

Miss Freese has been the inspiration for a round of entertaining in Portland, where she is a student at Reed college.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Beesley.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding included Mrs. Stella Nelson and Mr. and Mrs. George F. Cooley, of Bend; Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Allen, of Salem; and Maj. Gen. and Mrs. Claude Larkin and Mr. and Mrs. Max Larkin of Portland.

After the ceremony, the bridal couple left on a wedding trip to California.

The bride wore a brown dressmaker suit with matching accessories.

A pre-nuptial affair honoring Miss Peden was a shower party held in Redmond at the home of Mrs. Clyde Latta, last week.
