Attractive Party Is Held Recently For Mrs. Flory

The home of Mrs. Alvin Simonson was the scene of a surprise stork shower recently, honoring Mrs. Lloyd Flory. Large bouquets of gladioli decorated the rooms for the occasion. The table centerpiece was a cluster of pink and white gladioli in a miniature white stork, flanked by candelabra holding shell pink tapers. Guests participated in a "gift hunt" with pink and white streamers, which fell from a bouquet of gladioli, holding directions for finding the packages. After the gifts were opened, the hostess served refreshments. Guests present included the following: Mrs. Caroline Paul, Mrs. Thomas Ellis, Mrs. Richard Winslow, Mrs. A. Steele, Mrs. Irma Daniel, Mrs. James Zelger, Mrs. Daniel Ferguson, Mrs. Charles Driscoll, Mrs. Lloyd Kirk and Mrs. Obie Simonson. Gifts were sent by Mrs. Mary Boltnor and Mrs. John Howe.

Shower Is Given For Bride-Elect

One of the largest bridal showers of the season was an attractive party last week at the home of Mrs. Philip Pedersen, 219 Scott street, honoring Miss Gladys Iverson. Miss Kathleen Ives was co-hostess. Thirty-six guests were present at the affair. Games provided entertainment, with prizes going to Mrs. George Erickson and Mrs. Everett Jones. Refreshments were served following the presentation of the shower gifts. Miss Iverson, daughter of Mrs. Hilda Iverson, of 144 Delaware, is the bride-elect of Robert Cox, of Seattle. The wedding is planned for Nov. 15, at Faith Lutheran church, in the Washington city. Miss Iverson is employed in the office of the Pacific Fruit and Produce company and her fiancé is with the Seattle Post-Intelligencer.

Study Club Names Year's Officers

Mrs. Phil Philbrook was re-elected president of the Young Mothers Study club, at a meeting held last night at the home of Mrs. Max Schilling, 1730 Harrison. Other officers named include the following: Mrs. J. M. Fogarty, vice president; Mrs. G. A. Smith, secretary; Mrs. James Alm, treasurer; Mrs. L. S. LaBerge, historian; Mrs. R. A. Breckenridge, librarian; Mrs. T. R. Meyer, transportation chairman; Mrs. W. W. Irtick, publicity, and Mrs. R. L. Howard, hospitality. The officers will be installed at the club's first annual banquet, to be held Nov. 17 at the Pine Tavern.

Halloween Party Held For Rushees

Rushing activities of Beta Sigma Phi sorority reached their peak last Wednesday evening, with a Halloween costume party at the home of Mrs. Howard Krog. Games were included in the festivities for the hilarious evening, and prizes were awarded for the best costumes. Miss Joanne Bousha's costume was judged the most attractive, and Mrs. Krog's, the most original. Rushees who were present included Mrs. Dale Gibson, Miss Ramona Morgan, Miss Bousha, Mrs. Donald Dyer, Mrs. William D. Grindle, Miss Nancy Organ, Mrs. Ann Wanner and Mrs. Jerry Matheson.

ACTIVITIES SCHEDULED
Members of the Pythian Sisters lodge will meet Wednesday for an all-day sewing session at the home of Mrs. Lawrence Blakely, 1204 East Third street. Quilt-making and completion of needlework for the bazaar Nov. 10 will be projects for the day. Potluck luncheon will be served at noon. "Pythian Sunday" will be observed Oct. 26, with all Pythian Sisters invited to attend the morning services at First Methodist church.

Reception Is Held For Minister At Lutheran Church

Rev. Carsten Brien, new pastor of First Lutheran church, and Mrs. Brien, were honored at an informal reception held Sunday evening in the church parlors. A short program was presented, after which refreshments were served, with Mrs. Theodore Aune and Mrs. Carl Raupach pouring. Special music included two numbers by a quartet consisting of Carl Lindh, Carl Raupach, Carl Hoogner and Joe Haugen, accompanied by Mrs. Nels Skjersaa, and a clarinet duet by Clara and Marsha Skjersaa. Greetings were extended by Rev. G. R. V. Bolster, on behalf of the Bend Ministerial association; by Rev. Burns Rogness, of the Prineville Lutheran church, and by Larry Lermo, representing laymen of the local church. Rev. Brien responded. Joe Haugen led in group singing, with Mrs. Skjersaa as accompanist. Representatives of the ministerial association who were present included Rev. and Mrs. R. E. Nicholas, Rev. Allan B. Philip, Rev. Walter Watson and his mother, Mrs. Helen C. Watson, of Portland, and Rev. and Mrs. Bolster.

Dessert Meeting Planned Thursday For Bend AAUW

A full program is planned for Thursday evening at the Pine Tavern, when members of the Bend branch of A. A. U. W. will meet for dessert at 7:45 p. m. Speakers will include Mrs. Joe Elder, Miss Dorothy Miller and Mrs. M. W. Moore. Mrs. Elder, Camp Fire executive secretary, will discuss the work of her organization, stressing the sponsor's part in the activities. With her will be several Camp Fire girls, who will display handwork and answer questions about their program. Miss Miller, high school physical education instructor, will outline plans for the projected organization of a Horizon club, for girls older than Camp Fire age. Mrs. Moore, an A. A. U. W. officer, will report on the state president's conference, which she attended last month in Salem. Members of the organization who are interested in formation of a literary studies group have been asked to meet briefly before the meeting, at 7:30. Mrs. Carl Johnson will be in charge. Those who plan to attend should make reservations immediately with Mrs. Wilfred Burgess, phone 302-R, or Mrs. C. E. Stranahan, phone 706-R.

Missionary Volunteers Meet At Grange Hall

The Seventh-Day Adventist associated missionary volunteer societies of the Bend district met a week ago at the Redmond grange hall, with Elder H. R. Gay and Andrew Running, from the Oregon Book and Bible House in Portland, as guests speakers. Others who assisted with the program were Elder Clarence Shepherd, Mrs. Raymond Gibson, of Redmond, Mrs. Florence Aime, of Bend, and Mr. and Mrs. I. G. Stewart.

In preparation for the initiation, the degree team will practice tonight and Thursday, at 7:45 p. m. in the lodge hall.

REFRIGERATOR NO SAFE
Philadelphia (AP)—Joseph Harris, cafe proprietor, reports sadly that current high food prices make a refrigerator a dangerous place to hide spare cash. Harris told police that his refrigerator, where he had hidden a coffee can containing $800, had been emptied of food and the money.

Redmond Women To Serve Dinner

Redmond, Oct. 21 (Special)—The ladies' guild of the Community Presbyterian church met Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Jack Elliott and completed plans for a bazaar and turkey dinner, to be held Friday, Oct. 24, at Townsend hall. The bazaar will start at 2 p. m., and dinner will be served from 6 p. m. Mrs. W. B. Foote is general chairman, with Mrs. Walter Heppner in charge of advertising and Mrs. M. E. Larive as chairman for the bazaar. Mrs. W. Newton, Mrs. Philip Farrell and Mrs. C. H. Irvin were appointed as a committee to nominate officers for the new year. Mrs. F. J. Hodecker, president, officiated. Refreshments were served after the meeting.

ONE CHINCHILLA NO GOOD
Philadelphia (AP)—There's disappointment in store for the person who stole a mountain chinchilla from the Philadelphia zoo, in case he thinks he's made the start of a chinchilla coat. Curator Roger Conant said the animal was not the type from which coats are made. Besides, he added, what good is one chinchilla?

December Wheat At Record Point

Chicago, Oct. 21 (AP)—Wheat for delivery in December rose to $3.10 a bushel, highest ever paid for that future, shortly after dealings opened on the Chicago board of trade today. Other wheat prices were slightly higher. The price for December wheat was the highest paid for any future of that grain since 1917, when May deliveries sold for $3.25.
