

Klamath In Tie With The Dalles In State Thriller

(By United Press)
Action raged fast and furious on the Oregon prep football front Friday as The Dalles, Albany, Jefferson and Hillsboro reached next week's semi-finals in the battle for the state Class "A" championship.

Over 4,000 screaming fans at The Dalles saw the unbeaten Indians, trailing 13 to 0 with only five minutes left, come back to tie the score and then win the playoff on statistics.

Morrow Goes Over
A 62-yard drive climaxed by a one-yard plunge by fullback Gene Morrow gave The Dalles its first score. Then with only two minutes left Morrow shot a screen pass to halfback Phil Turner who raced 74 yards for the tying touchdown. The Dalles was awarded the game under OHSAA rules on the basis of 281 net yards gained to 183 for Klamath Falls. Both teams had eight first downs.

Albany's powerhouse came through as expected by trouncing Marshfield 25 to 13 at the Coos Bay city. Marshfield made the Bulldogs go all out to win, but proved to be no match for the heavier Albany eleven.

The 31 to 7 victory by Jefferson high of Portland over previously unbeaten St. Helens before 7,305 fans at Multnomah stadium in Portland was a mild surprise because of its ease. Jefferson led 12 to 0 at half then poured on the steam behind its heavier line and ran up three more touchdowns to win going away.

Hillsboro Wins
Hillsboro pulled the night's biggest surprise by traveling to Milwaukie and handing the Maroons a 12 to 0 beating before 3,000 fans. The win avenged an earlier 20 to 6 loss inflicted on the Spartans by the same team earlier this season. The game was even for three periods, but Hillsboro drove to two tallies in the final stanza.

In the semi-final play next Friday, The Dalles meets Albany and Jefferson plays Hillsboro. Sites were yet to be named.

60 Redmond Boys Seek Team Places

Redmond, Nov. 22 (Special) — The Redmond Panther and kitten squads are the goal of some 60 boys who turned out this week for basketball practice. The boys are undergoing vigorous practice in preparation for the December 5, Hoop Jamboree in the Redmond gymnasium.

Panther coach, Hugh Hancock, has been screening the boys the last few days and declares that he is a long way from shaping up a squad.

Only three lettermen are back from last year's state tournament squad. These boys are Stanley Sturza, senior; Jim Riggs, junior; and Verl Hammaek, junior. Riggs and Sturza were both first stringers last year and will probably form the backbone of this year's squad.

The Panthers will pit their efforts against four other strong teams from different parts of the state before entering conference competition.

The first of the games will be with the Willamette university freshmen. Later in December the Panthers will play Medford, Roseburg and Central Point. The game with Madras is uncertain because of the football play-offs.

"The Panther schedule as it now stands," Willamette university freshmen, here, Dec. 12 and 13; Madras, there, December 16; Medford, here, December 19; Roseburg, here, December 20; Medford, there, December 29; Central Point, there, December 30; open January 9 and 10.

Bend will play here January 13; Burns, here, January 16; Lakeview, here, January 17; Prineville,

Stadium's Future Still Uncertain

Portland, Nov. 22 (U.P.) — The future of Portland's baseball park was still in doubt today.

A motion that the Vaughn street stadium be torn down failed to pass the city council here Friday.

City Commissioner Kenneth L. Cooper called for immediate destruction of the ancient structure. A long pause followed after which Mayor Earl Riley ruled that the motion failed to pass because of lack of a second.

Presentation of the motion came at the end of a two and one-half hour meeting between the council and representatives of the Beaver front office. Fire department officials reported on the findings of an earlier investigation. They asserted that the stadium was a dry-rotted "threat to public safety" and hopelessly beyond the repair stage.

Failure of the motion to pass left the stadium's fate still undecided. Mayor Riley ordered Cooper to arrange further meetings between the club and the council.

Oaks Move Up To League Top

Oakland moved into a first-place tie with San Francisco and Vancouver took undisputed possession of second place in their respective divisions in the only Pacific Coast league ice hockey games played last night.

The Vancouver Canucks forced into the runner up spot behind Seattle, northern circuit leader, by nipping New Westminster, 4 to 3. The front line of Ernie Gruhn, Mot Neilsen and Bernie Bathgate took care of all the scoring for the Canucks.

Unbeaten Elevens Rule As Favorites

By John Griffin
New York, Nov. 22 (U.P.) — Football came up for its final big Saturday of the season today with "traditional classics" the order of the day and the leading undefeated and untied teams heavy favorites to stay that way.

In the top games played last night, Wake Forest drubbed Duke, 33 to 0, and Florida edged Miami 7 to 6.

Topping the choice items on the menu today is the meeting of old rivals Southern California and UCLA, with Southern Cal the seven-point favorite.

The Rose Bowl bid from the west coast is the aim of Southern Cal's Trojans in this battle between the Los Angeles neighbors. Unbeaten and untied only by Rice early in the season, the Trojans are picked despite UCLA's stern resolve to keep them away from Pasadena on New Year's day.

Easy Game Faced
Notre Dame meets Tulane in a game that Coach Frank Leahy evidently regards as already won, since he will be scouting Southern Cal. Michigan, with the Big Nine title already safely stowed away, closes its regular season by facing Ohio State.

Southern Methodist, powerhouse of the Southwest conference, is a 13-point choice over Baylor, and Penn State, which fears a wet field, is rated 14 points better than Pitt.

In the Big Six, Kansas was a one-touchdown favorite over Missouri with the conference championship and a probable bowl bid hanging in the balance. In the Pacific conference, Oregon, playing Oregon State with a chance to tie for the championship, was favored to do so.

St. Louis Browns Losers In Trades

New York, Nov. 22 (U.P.) — Most veteran baseball writers agreed today that the St. Louis Browns, as now constituted after trading away six of their big-name players, would have a tough time making the first division in one of the top minor leagues, much less in the American league.

In their search for "young" players who do not have a defeatist complex and for hard cash the Browns have reduced themselves to a team which does not include a single first baseman or a single player who hit over .300 in the majors or minors last season and which places its main pitching reliance on two major league castoffs whose 1947 records of over .500 were recorded in the minors.

In a copyrighted story in the St. Louis Star Times, Browns' owner Richard Muckerman admitted that the sales which led to this condition were dictated by an urgent need for quick cash and defended the policy of selling players to meet debts as "sound business judgment."

Ashland College Loses To Aggies

(By United Press)
Southern Oregon College's long winning streak was ended at 15 today following a 21 to 6 upset by the California Aggies eleven from Davis yesterday in a far western conference finale.

The victory, which kept Southern Oregon from completing two years of football without a defeat, gave the Aggies a tie with the Oregonians for the conference title. Each college has three victories and one defeat in league competition.

Barney Bridges drew first blood for Southern Oregon in the second quarter, but reserve halfback Charley Richards gave the Aggies a 7 to 6 halftime lead and then added an insurance touchdown in the third quarter. Don Nedderman tallied the final score on two long runs. Jack Coppes converted all touchdowns for the Aggies.

New York, Nov. 22 (U.P.) — Leo Durocher, exiled manager of the Brooklyn Dodgers, will not be rehired to head the flatbush flock in 1948, according to a usually reliable source.

Durocher definitely is out, according to a source very close to the ball club, and official announcement may be made early next week. . . . It's a crime in this corner. . . .

Terry Brennan, Notre Dame halfback, would like to re-run the opening play of the army game. That was the one in which he took the kickoff back 97 yards for a touchdown.

Few of the spectators ever will forget that jaunt but at least one of the customers missed it—Terry's father, Martin, a Milwaukee lawyer.

The elder Brennan, late reaching his seat, was just in time to see Fred Early add the extra point. He asked what had happened and his seat neighbor replied: "That Brennan kid just went 97 yards for a score." . . . we will not quote Mr. Brennan. . . . Coincidence: It was strange that tennis star Jack Kramer and pitcher Jack Kramer both should turn professional on the same day. The tennis Jack went from the amateurs to the pros; the baseball Jack from the St. Louis Browns to the Boston Red Sox. . . . Both are highly pleased.

LINFIELD DEFEATED
Tacoma, Wash., Nov. 22 (U.P.) — College of Pacific defeated Linfield college, 26-0, at the Tacoma stadium here last night in the final game for both teams in the Northwest conference.

A freshman halfback, Dale Larson, scored three of the winner's four touchdowns. He made one on a 72-yard run in the first quarter.

NEOPRENE DOES IT
Wilmington, Del. (U.P.) — Neoprene may be the answer to a fisherman's prayer. Neoprene is the new rubber substance that is going into artificial lures which look like real live bait and are easier to handle.

In extracting bromide from seawater, 2,000 gallons of the water must be treated to get one pound of bromide.
