Many Guests Entertained By Gentners

Mr. and Mrs. Albert W. Gentner, owners of the Pilot Butte Inn, were hosts at a week-end party at the picturesque hotel, attended by a large number of guests from Portland. The festivities included a cocktail party, dinner and dancing Saturday night, with music by Bud Russell's orchestra, and a breakfast Sunday morning in the Blue room. The occasion was a joint celebration of Gentner's birthday and the 19th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kuckenberg, of Portland. The Kuckenbergs spent their honeymoon at the Pilot Butte Inn in 1928. Kuckenberg was the engineer in charge of construction of the Crooked River bridge.

Guests at the affair included Dr. and Mrs. Paul Woerner and Thomas Coleman, of Bend, and the following from Portland: Judge and Mrs. Charles Redding, Dr. and Mrs. Arnold Inches, Dr. and Mrs. Christian Kisky, Dr. and Mrs. Donald Laird, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Becker, Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Brownell, Mr. and Mrs. John Brennan, Mr. and Mrs. Don Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Arnold, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Breaker, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Boetticher, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bauer.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Casey, Mr. and Mrs. Worth W. Caldwell, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Paul De Koning, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Frum, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Garbarde, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Goentz, Mr. and Mrs. Henri Hanebut, Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Hudson, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. James Lakin, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Legg.

Mr. and Mrs. Bertram McElroy, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Meyer, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Miller, Mr. and Mrs. John O'Farrell, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Powers, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reed, Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Regan, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Spackman, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Shies, Mr. and Mrs. Waldemar Spliid, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Williams and Mr. and Mrs. Kuckenberg.

80th Birthday Is Observed Friday

Mr. and Mrs. Truman Drago honored his mother, Mrs. Una B. Miller, at a dinner party Friday evening at the family home, at 429 East Franklin. The occasion marked Mrs. Miller's 80th birthday. The table was beautifully decorated with a centerpiece of yellow pompons and yellow candles.

Guests who participated in the celebration included Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Ratney, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Metz, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Young and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Drago and daughter, Sharon. Charles Drago is Mrs. Miller's grandson.

Recipes Prepared For Distribution

A collection of recipes for main-course dishes using little or no meat has been prepared for distribution. Mrs. Donald Fahy, chairman of the nutrition committee of the local Red Cross chapter, has announced.

The mimeographed folders were prepared by high school typing classes, and a number of copies have been distributed in the schools. Home-makers who have received copies were invited to call for them at the Red Cross office.

The folders were compiled as part of the committee's program of food conservation.

TWO ARE INITIATED

Mrs. F. J. Brandon and Miss Bonnie Brandon were initiated into the Women of the Moose, at the chapter night program held Friday evening at Moose hall. Thirty-five members were present. The meeting featured floor work by the drill team, and a program of music and informal talks. The social hour was a birthday party for members whose birthdays occur in November.

Newlyweds Are At Home In Bend

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan F. Jensen (Patricia Moffitt) are at home in Bend, at 444 1/2 South Third street. They were married Nov. 18 in Vancouver, Wash. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Moffitt, of 441 Miller, and the bridegroom is the son of James Jensen, also of Bend.

Both young people are graduates of the local high school. Mrs. Jensen is employed at Evans Fly company, and her husband works for the McCann Sign company. He is a navy veteran, having served for four years in world war II. For the wedding, the bride wore a grey dressmaker suit, with black accessories and a corsage of pink rosebuds. The newlyweds honeymooned in the Willamette valley.

Eastern Star Initiates Six Members

At an impressive candle-light ceremony last night at the Masonic temple, Order of Eastern Star held initiation services for six new members. The occasion was especially significant for one of the initiates, Mrs. Laddie Gale, a courtesy candidate from Salt Lake City, whose mother, Mrs. J. A. Dudley, is worthy matron of the local chapter.

Others who were initiated were Mr. and Mrs. George Marshall, Mrs. David Wilson, Mrs. J. W. Armstrong and Claire Douglass, Jr. Out-of-town guests who were present as a surprise to local candidates included Mr. and Mrs. Edgar L. Marshall, who are worthy patron and worthy matron of the Rydewood, Wash., chapter, and Mrs. Claire Douglass, an Eastern Star member from Salem. The Rydewood man is George Marshall's brother, and Mrs. Douglass is Claire Douglass' mother.

Wear White Formals
The officers, dressed in white formals, executed the ritual expertly, with over 100 members of the order attending.

Business included plans for a dance, to be held Dec. 13, for members of the Masonic and Eastern Star orders and their families and house guests.

After the meeting, refreshments were served. Mrs. T. A. Simmons was chairman of the hostess committee, assisted by Mrs. Elmer Ryan, Mrs. Leo Cox, Mrs. Norman Gilbert, Mrs. Irving Waiter, Mrs. D. Ray Miller, Mrs. W. K. Euston, Mrs. Steve Steidl, Mrs. LeRoy Fox, Mrs. D. C. Jones and Mrs. A. A. Symons.

Latter Day Saints will hold a pre-holiday fancywork sale Saturday, Nov. 29, beginning at 10 a. m. in the O'Donnell meat market. Proceeds will go to the church building fund.

Local Couple Wed Sunday In Church Rite

Miss Phyllis Irene Kutch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kutch, of 1444 Kingston, became the bride of Henry Hal Carter, of Bend, at an impressive ceremony solemnized Sunday, Nov. 23, at 2 p. m. at the First Christian church. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Carter, and both he and his bride are members of the sales staff at the local Penney store. Both are graduates of Bend high school, and the bridegroom is a navy veteran with three years of war service to his credit.

For the ceremony, the bride wore a lovely wedding gown of traditional white satin, made with full train and a full gathered skirt which fell from a scalloped bodice. The sweetheart neckline was edged with seed pearls. Her fingertip veil of lace-edged white net was held in place by a satin coronet, embroidered with pearls. She carried a white Bible, with gardenias and carnations, cascaded with satin streamers.

Attended by Sister
Miss Betty Jean Kutch was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a floor-length gown of pastel blue chiffon and taffeta, and carried a colonial bouquet of white chrysanthemums, backed with blue lace and tied with pink streamers.

Bruce Markell acted as best man, and ushers were Pherrin Moody and Delmer St. Onge. Rev. Len B. Fishback read the ceremony. Mrs. Ralph Bailey played the wedding marches and accompanied, Mrs. Clifford Ingram, who sang "Because" and "Always." The altar was decorated with bouquets of yellow and white chrysanthemums.

Both mothers were dressed in blue, with black accessories and pink carnation corsages. After the ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlors. The wedding cake was decorated in white and yellow, repeating the colors of flowers which decorated the room. After the bridal couple cut the first piece of cake, Mrs. Oscar Anderson, the bridegroom's sister, took charge of the serving. Mrs. Minnie Mason, the bride's aunt, and Mrs. Fred Hale, cousin of the bride, poured. Mrs. Wilbur Sholes had charge of the guest book. Others assisting were Mrs. Emory Gardner and Mrs. Walter Moody.

The wedding and reception were attended by about 30 guests, including immediate family members and close friends of the couple. The bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Kelley, of Halsey, were among those present. Mr. and Mrs. Carter are at home in the Coyner apartments.

'Hans Brinker' Is Rated High

For 24 years, critics throughout this country have been applauding the productions of the famous Clare Tree Major children's theater of New York, whose traveling players will present "Hans Brinker, or The Silver Skates" Wednesday, Dec. 10, at the high school gymnasium.

The Washington Post commented in an editorial, "When the curtain rises . . . more than a mere actor dressed in wig and pantaloons to represent Hans Brinker will clatter out. To the audience, the play will be real in the sense that all make-believe is real. And as such, its beauty, its drama and its moral will not escape them."

The Bend branch of the A. A. U. W. is sponsoring the local appearance of the troupe. Final plans will be made at a meeting of the committee, at 8 p. m. tonight at the home of Mrs. Lorance B. Evers, 620 Riverside.

Many Are Given Prizes At Recent BPW Card Party

Fourteen tables of bridge were in play at the benefit card party sponsored last Thursday by the Bend Business and Professional Women's club, in the library auditorium. Prizes for scoring were awarded as follows: Mrs. L. Rees Brooks and Clair Barnett, high; Mrs. M. R. Scott and D. R. Thompson, second; and Mrs. Fred H. Paine and A. P. Butler, third. Special prizes went to Mrs. Fred King, Ben Hamilton and Miss Wilma Jacobson.

Proceeds from the party are earmarked for the club's fund for student nurse scholarships.

First Lutheran L. D. R. members will hold their annual bazaar Saturday, Nov. 29, from 9:30 a. m. to 5 p. m. in the church basement. Hand-made gift items will be offered for sale, and lunches, featuring home-baked pies and cakes, will be served. In connection with this event, the Luther league will hold a sale of popcorn, Christmas cards and home-made candy.

Miss Dietz Is Church Bride

Miss Anna Lee Dietz and Ralph L. Edwards, both of Bend, were united in marriage at an attractive wedding Sunday at the First Baptist church. After spending several days in Portland, the couple returned to Bend, and are at home at 108 Lava road.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Dietz, of 215 Florida. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Edwards, of 1357 Kingston. He came to Bend a year ago, following his release from the coast guard, where he served for a year. He was graduated from high school in Adair, Iowa. The bride, who attended Bend schools, is a clerk at the Newberry store. Her husband is employed at the Oregon Trail furniture shops.

The wedding was performed at 3 p. m., with Rev. K. A. Tobias officiating. Miss Marjorie Tobias was at the organ to play the traditional wedding marches and accompany Bob Hoeker, who sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly." Baskets of carnations decorated the altar.

Dressed in Suit
The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a tailored gabardine suit, of grey with brown stripe, and brown accessories. She carried a white Bible with an orchid. Miss June Loken was bridesmaid. She wore a burgundy suit, with brown accessories and a carnation corsage.

The bride's three brothers took part in the ceremony. William Dietz acted as best man, and Ray and James Dietz were ushers. A reception for relatives and members of the wedding party was held after the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents. Mrs. K. A. Tobias cut the wedding cake, and Miss Nancy Dietz assisted with the serving.

Stork Shower Is Given Recently In Shevlin

Shevlin, Nov. 25 (Special)—Mrs. Ernest Fuller was honored at a stork shower recently, given by friends at the home of Mrs. Orville Fuller. Luncheon was served, with table decorations featuring a stork centerpiece. The dessert was an angel food cake made by Mrs. C. M. Olson.

Guests present included Mrs. Hazel Freeman, Mrs. Olive Townsend, Mrs. Harry Stingley, Miss Cynthia Fuller, Mrs. Pete Simpkins, Mrs. Henry Erdmann, Mrs. Eva Dahl, Mrs. Ruth Huddleston, Mrs. Leo Keppers and Mrs. Earl Fuller.

Women of the Moose will sponsor a turkey dinner Sunday from 4 to 8 p. m. in the Moose hall. The affair is the lodge's monthly public dinner, with proceeds to go to the Moosehaven home. The second in a series of public card parties will be held Friday at 8 p. m. at the lodge hall.

Catholic Altar society, circle 4, is completing plans for the annual bazaar, to be held Thursday evening, Dec. 4, beginning at 6:30 p. m. in the St. Francis parish hall. Games will be provided to entertain all ages, it was announced, and there will be booths for the sale of aprons, fancy work and home-made candies, pies, cakes, cookies and hot rolls.

DUNCAN PHYFE DINING ROOM SUITE

In celebration of its 57th year of producing fine furniture for Western homes, the B. P. John Furniture Corporation presents a new dining room group of superior quality and unusual beauty.

This marks the first time since the war that we have been able to offer furniture of this high standard to our customers. The 57th Anniversary Group is an open stock pattern of Duncan Phyfe in beautifully grained imported African Mahogany. The design is truly traditional in character — a happy blending of true Duncan Phyfe with a touch of modern simplicity. In workmanship, materials and detail it is one of the finest patterns being produced today.

We have a limited quantity of this new 1948 pattern and will be able to make advance deliveries to our customers in the very near future.

The careful workmanship and authentic designing of every detail of this group will be immediately appreciated by the discerning homemaker. A typical example is the Authentic 18th Century English Antique brass hardware which enhances the warm, rich tones of the imported African Mahogany.
