

Cleveland Wins Twin Bill With "Bobs" Pitching

New York, June 21 (AP)—If Bob Feller has turned out to be a bit of a lemon this year, Bob Lemon has turned out to be a peach.

And with the Indians "bobbing" along to a vital double victory over the Athletics, 4 to 3 and 10 to 0, before the largest crowd in baseball history at Cleveland yesterday, it was Lemon and not Feller who drew the biggest cheers from the overflow multitude of 81,781 fans at the finish.

Feller was lucky to win the opener, giving the A's a 3 to 0 lead as Eddie Joost and Sam Chapman tagged him for homers. But his mates rallied for four runs in the seventh, and he survived for his first victory since May 19, breaking a five-game personal losing streak.

Lemon had no such travail in the second game. He struck out 10, walked only two batters and pitched no-hit ball for six innings as he scored his 10th victory, tops in the majors.

Yanks Win

The Yankees took over second from the A's by winning 4 to 2 and 6 to 2 victories at St. Louis as Joe DiMaggio hit three homers.

The Red Sox, very much in the American league pennant reckonings again won their fifth straight and their 12th victory in 14 games, 8 to 3 at Detroit to take over fourth place from the Tigers.

Luke Appling set a new American league record for third baseman by handling 10 assists as the White Sox defeated the Senators, 8 to 5, after which Washington broke an eight-game losing streak with a 4 to 1 triumph on Sid Hudson's pitching.

Braves Lead

The Braves took a lead of 1 1/2 games in the National by topping the Reds at Boston 5 to 4 and 4 to 1.

The Giants tied a major league record when they hit consecutive homers by Johnny Mize, Willard Marshall, and Sid Gordon in the eighth inning of the second game to top the Cardinals 6 to 4, at New York.

The Phils snapped Pittsburgh's six-game winning streak when Dutch Leonard pitched a four-hit, 9 to 0 shutout at Philadelphia, but the Pirates retaliated to win the second game, 7 to 5, as Ralph Kiner hit two homers, bringing his total to 19.

The Cubs swept their three-game series with the Dodgers, 6 to 3, at Brooklyn on 13 hits and four errors.

New York, June 18 (AP)—There was a contented look on the ruddy face of Billy Meyer today and you could trace his happiness to the fact that his Pittsburgh Pirates were right up there, tied for the top of the National league with a chance to cop it all "because there are no standouts."

That the team, which finished in the cellar last season, is even within striking distance is a tribute to the gray-haired pilot who almost missed his chance in the big time. Billy, at 55, is a "freshman manager." Once he almost went to the Chicago Cubs but decided to stay in the Yankee organization. Then illness cheated

WHY MOTHERS GET GRAY

Negro Softball Team Scheduled

Many fans insist softball comes second with football's three-ring circus, Fisher's Original Negro Ghosts, who meet the strong Superior Cafe club here tonight. But the Ghosts field a good team year after year, and in some seasons manage to have one of the best outfits in the country.

This year the Sioux Citizens have one of the best clubs ever to play under the Ghosts' banner. Paced by Red Strickland, probably the greatest hurler ever to don Ghost togs, the Iowa comedians have compiled an amazing record against the best of competition. Up to June 11 the traveling Negroes had won 20 while losing just two, since the season started May 17.

Sparkling Infield

Always a feature of the Ghost show is sparkling infield play. This year's team is no exception. On first base they have a fancy Dan in diminutive Marland Buckner. Buckner will be remembered as the mighty mite by those who saw the finest ghost basketball team perform last winter. He was the crowd's darling at every stop, and is increasing his fans with his scintillating play around the initial sack. Second base is in the capable hands of young Carl Hurt. Fred Luke from last season's team is repeating at short stop, and steady James Grant is doing a fine job at third base.

In addition to good softball, Central Oregon fans are sure of seeing a bang-up performance when it comes to comedy. For years the Ghosts have had the reputation of having one of the funniest clubs on the road, and their shadow ball game alone is worth the price of admission.

Klamath Loses To Redding Nine

Jack Martin, a 17-year-old, just out of Hometown, Ida., high school, pitched his Redding Browns to an 8 to 7 win over the Klamath Falls Gems yesterday in the Far West league.

Martin pitched creditable ball, although he weakened and had to be relieved in the ninth inning. Another newcomer to the league, Ed Payer, won his third game for the Pittsburg Diamonds since he joined the club two weeks ago. He beat the Marysville Braves last night, 8 to 2.

Practice Shoot Held by Bend Club

Jack Sawyer and Walt Howard made perfect scores yesterday at the Bend Trap club's practice shoot, in preparation for the Grand Pacific handicap, to be held next month in Salem. About 15 scattergun enthusiasts participated in the shooting yesterday.

Near-perfect scores were made by Everett Rambo, Len Henderson, George Krueger and N. R. Gilbert, who scattered 24 targets out of 25. Scores of 23 were made by Cecil Rhodes and Phil Dahl.

Seals Defeated Twice by Seattle

PCL STANDINGS

| Sacramento | 27 | 49 | .355 |

San Francisco, June 21 (AP)—It's usually a tough life for any league-leading team when another club is yapping at its heels.

But consider the case of the San Francisco Seals—five teams closing in on the trail! And one misstep against any of them and the club that has headed the pack since opening day could slip all the way into the second division.

That's how close the Pacific coast league race lined up today. It was only five and one-half games from first to fifth place—which means that one disastrous series could ruin a team's social standing.

The tightening-up process worked to perfection yesterday as the loop-leading Seals bowed twice to Seattle, 8-3 and 5-4. Fourth place Oakland displaced third-place San Diego with a pair of wins, 4-3 and 5-4; and second place Los Angeles was rained out at Portland.

Beavers Leave Cellar

In the race at the other end of the ladder, the Portland Beavers climbed out of the basement for the first time in 33 days as Hollywood took a pair from Sacramento, 9-0 and 5-4. Note that all three seven-inning second games yesterday had identical 5-4 scores.

Seattle rallied in the seventh inning of the nightcap to push across the winning run against the Seals, after outfielder Neil Sheridan had kept the suds in the race with a three-run homer in the third. In the opener the Rainiers pounded out 12 safeties off three Seal hurlers. San Francisco won the series, 4-3.

This week, San Francisco plays host to Oakland; Portland invades Sacramento; San Diego visits Hollywood and Los Angeles goes to Seattle.

The linescores: Los Angeles at Portland, double-header, postponed, rain.

Earns Reputation

Now that he decided to wait no longer to leave the Yankee organization and take over the Pirate helm, Meyer fast is getting a reputation as a miracle man.

He has a weak defensive outfield and a creaking pitching staff. But those defects are more than made up by spirit and hustle.

"That's all there is to it," the man from Knoxville explained. "The boys are giving it all they have. And those boys from Brooklyn helped, too, because they finally got a chance to play ball."

Meyer admitted that he has received much unexpected help, particularly in the way of pitching. But Billy isn't predicting a pennant. He knows that you can get your slumps large and sudden.

Pitchers Need Rest

"I just hope we don't run into a rash of double headers," he said. "Some of our pitchers need a lot of rest between starts. Like Fritz Ostermuller, who should have eight or nine days."

One of the first to tab the Giants as a pennant possibility, Billy laughingly insists that he doesn't see how anybody can win it.

"I thought the Cardinals might romp out there alone for a while," he explained, "but they have pitching woes. As for the Boston Braves, they just can't seem to win at home."

"There isn't a standout club, but then, you can't expect the race to settle down yet," he added. "About July 1 some club will step out there with a hot streak. I imagine, and they'll be gone. I hope it's us."

Interested in Yanks

Meyer leaned back easily and carried the conversation to the Yankee silver anniversary celebration last Sunday.

Meyer's interest in the Yankee doings was understandable. He led the Yanks' Kansas City and Newark teams to four pennants and two junior world series, developing such stars as Phil Rizzuto, Gerry Priddy, Tommy Henrich, Eddie Miller and Vince DiMaggio.

But that interest doesn't hamper his work with the Pirates. As the best of the league will tell you, that man Meyer seems to be using magic.
