

Accidents Take Lives of Five In Northwest

(By United Press)

Five persons were killed and six injured in weekend accidents in the northwest.

Two fishermen drowned Sunday. Gordon Erickson, 29, Vancouver, Wash., slipped from a high bank on the Wahouah river. State police said his head struck a rock when he fell.

Charles Nash, 30, route 5, box 104, Oregon City, Ore., was swept away by the current when fishing the Clackamas river, 30 miles upstream from Estacada.

Three were killed and six injured in automobile mishaps. Dover F. Waldrup, 26, Myrtle Creek, Ore., was injured fatally near Roseburg when his car skidded on a rocky road, careened 135 feet along the shoulder of the highway, snapped off a telephone pole and rolled over an embankment. A passenger, Robert Watts, 32, Myrtle Creek, suffered a broken arm.

Die In Crash
Two Portlanders died Saturday night in traffic mishaps along the rain-swept Oregon coast highway. Mrs. Pearl J. Myers, 52, Portland beauty salon operator, was killed instantly in a head-on crash near Oceanlake.

Driver Carl Dean Lawson, 18, Portland, died after the car he drove with four high school students skidded off the highway near Nelscott and hit a parked logging truck.

After the head-on collision which state police blamed on poor visibility, the driver of the second car, Robert R. Portale, Portland, was taken to a McMinnville hospital with a brain concussion.

Others injured in the crash were: Dr. Earl Cutler, Seattle, Wash.

Washington and California Crews Likely to Beat Navy

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., June 21 (AP)—Washington and California, two perennial rowing greats, today loomed as the crews most likely to "scuttle" defending champion navy in tomorrow's 45th renewal of the Poughkeepsie regatta.

The Washington eight, coached by Al Ulbricksen, appeared the classier of the two western powers. The light-weight Huskies beat California at three miles and later set a course record on Lake Washington in defeating Wisconsin by two-and-a-half lengths this season.

California was disappointing after a promising start this year. But the Golden Bears are a rugged bunch who will delight in the three-mile sweep down the Hudson. They have stamina, a factor which may prove vital in the race.

with broken ribs; his wife with a fractured hip.

Injured high school students were: Barbara Zeller, Wecoma, Ore., fractured skull; William Fournier, Depoe Bay, Ore.; fractured skull; Elsa Holmes, Ocean Lake, Ore., broken jaw and leg injuries; John Stuhlreiter, Portland, cuts and bruises.

All were taken to a McMinnville hospital.

Tacoma Widens Lead in WIL

(By United Press)

The league-leading Tacoma Tigers drove the hapless Yakima Stars deeper into the Western International league baseball cellar yesterday by taking both ends of a twin bill, 5 to 4 and 6 to 2.

Tacoma widened its lead to 2½ games over second-place Bremerton. The Bluejackets won its single game with Salem, 9 to 7.

Victoria dropped into a third place tie with Vancouver, losing its game with Spokane, 13-11. Meanwhile, Vancouver was splitting a double-header with Wenatchee. Vancouver took the opener, 7 to 4, and lost the nightcap, 5 to 4.

Kramer Takes National Net Title
Forest Hills, N. Y., June 21 (AP)—It took four sets for Jack Kramer to wrest the national professional tennis championship away from Bobby Riggs yesterday, but only one of them really counted. It was the first one, which Kramer won, 14-12. Riggs showed unmistakable signs of fatigue the rest of the way. But the cocky little defending titleholder came back to win the third before Kramer roared on to his 14-12, 6-2, 3-6, 6-3 triumph.

Kramer topped off the victory by teaming with Francisco (Pancho) Segura of Ecuador to dethrone Riggs and Don Budge in the doubles finale, 4-6, 5-7, 6-2, 7-5, 8-6.

Big Sum Offered For Oregon Boxer

Portland, June 21 (AP)—Jack (Doc) Kearns, the fight manager who guided Jack Dempsey's boxing career, has offered $20,000 for the contract of Jack (Ginger) Snapp, Klamath Falls, Ore., middleweight.

But Snapp's manager, Roy Drake, turned down the offer. Kearns predicted that within a couple of years Snapp will be a top middleweight contender—perhaps an eventual champion.

Snapp will fight a 10-round semi-final fight against LeRoy Wade, San Francisco, prior to the main event between heavyweights Joe Kahut, Woodburn, and Joe Maxim, Cleveland, at the Civic auditorium tomorrow night.

Kearns, who handles Maxim, watched Snapp work out. It will be Snapp's first bout since he defeated the former champion, Al Hostak, last March.

Snapp is 21 years old, 5 feet 7 inches tall, 165 pounds, and has a powerful left jab.

attracted a flock of major league scouts to his door.

In 29 games of the 1947 collegiate season, while playing for the San Diego State college Aztecs, Bruckner powered the horsehide at a .400 average. He played 28 games in the 1948 season and batted .358 including five home runs and 24 runs batted in.

The youth played in the outfield as well as behind the plate at college but probably will be groomed for backstopping duties in the Athletic system.

Bruckner was voted his team's most valuable player for the 1948 season and led the club in batting and was second best in the California Collegiate Athletic association.

Having just finished his sophomore year in college, he expects to return to the campus after the baseball season and complete his education.

Portland's Jail Called Antiquated

Portland, June 21 (AP)—The Portland City club has made public a committee report criticizing Portland's jail facilities as "nothing more than a small town lockup."

The report said: "The jail is both antiquated and inadequate. However it may have been judged at the time it was constructed, today it is something of which this city should be heartily ashamed."

The report specifically criticized the use of "drunk tanks" and said they should never be used again.

"The practice of holding prisoners incommunicado should be entirely discontinued, but preferred bail should be declined from intoxicated persons until they are sober," the report said.

The report will be discussed at the club's Friday luncheon meeting.

San Diego, Cal., June 21 (AP)—With a reputed $30,000 in the bank and unlimited confidence in his future, 21-year-old Earle Bruckner, Jr., was "down on the farm" at Lincoln, Neb., today hoping to learn the tricks that will make him a big leaguer.

Bruckner, son of the Philadelphia athletic coach, is supposed to have been paid $30,000 by Connie Mack for signing an athletic contract.

However, there are some skeptics on this story because Mr. Mack is not noted for lavish misuse of his funds and there is considerable talk that the younger Bruckner isn't quite up to what it takes in the way of speed in becoming a major leaguer—or a triple-A boy for that matter.

Be that as it may, the youngster packs a potent bat and as a powerhouse hitter the six foot, two-inch, 205-pound athlete at-

Officers Elected At 4-H School

Corvallis, June 21 (Special)—Deschutes county 4-H club members, on the Oregon State college campus for a 10-day summer session, have been elected to office in the various living organizations where they are housed.

Joan Fuhs was elected president of the group at the Gamma Phi Beta house; Keith Snyder, sergeant-at-arms at Sigma Phi Epsilon; Ann Moore, counselor for first and second floors at Snell hall; Marjorie Davidson, program chairman at Alpha Phi; and Jack Alley and Gary Strunk, members of the court committee at Hawley house.

At an afternoon assembly last week, Don Benscoter, who accompanied the Deschutes members to Oregon State, was introduced as the new 4-H club agent for Deschutes county. He was introduced by Cal Monroe, assistant state 4-H club agent.

The state leaders meeting was held last week with Mrs. E. N. Wright, Portland, state president, presiding. W. C. Seymour, former state 4-H club leader, led discussions on leading work and its problems.

Deschutes county will be on the air over station KOAC tomorrow from 7:30 to 8 p.m. Benscoter will be in charge of the program. J. L. Jones and Mrs. Walter Prichard, chaperones, and Arlene Chaney and Keith Snyder, 4-H club members, will speak.

Idaho Signs for Game With Texas

Moscow, Ida., June 21 (AP)—Ambitious University of Idaho was another step closer to big-time football today with University of Texas, perennial powerhouse in the southwest conference, signed for a 1949 contest.

The game, first Idaho has played with a member of the rugged southwest conference, will be played in Austin, Tex., Oct. 1, 1949.
