Herd Association Plans Meeting

The annual meeting of the Central Oregon Dairy Herd Improvement association will be held on Saturday, July 24, at the Sawyer-Steiwer farm, with a picnic to be held in connection with the meeting, according to information from Gene M. Lear, county agent and association secretary.

The Sawyer-Steiwer ranch is about midway between Bend and Redmond, just off the old highway.

A highlight of the meeting will be the first official classification of any dairy herd that has ever been held in Central Oregon, so far as can be ascertained, Lear said. H. P. Ewalt, Oregon state college dairy specialist, will be present, to classify the Sawyer-Steiwer registered jerseys. This has been the high test herd in the association for butter-fat in the past two years, and for milk and butterfat this past year. The herd average for butterfat was 55.6 and for milk 95.11 this past year.

Visitors are being asked to be present by 11:30, with adjournment set for 3 p.m. There will be a report on the two-year's operation of the association, inasmuch as no meeting was held last year. The announcement from Lear concludes:

"Bring your own picnic lunch for your family. Coffee and ice cream will be furnished. Please invite your dairymen friends. This meeting is for all interested dairymen and their families, and not just for members of the DHIA."

The grand jury, which adjourned yesterday, commended the county court for its actions in providing a suitable infirmary for aged people in Deschutes county and for improving the acoustics in the court house.

The report to Circuit Judge R. S. Hamilton stated, in part, "In concluding our work, we wish to state that we have been in session a number of times since the fall term of court, 1946, and during these sessions we have called attention to the faulty acoustics in the court house and to the need for better care of the aged people of Deschutes county, and at this time we want to say that we commend the county court for its attention to these matters by placing suitable acoustic material on the ceiling in the various rooms in the court house and especially for the prompt and efficient manner in which the county court has acted to provide a suitable infirmary for the aged people of the county."

The report was signed by Hans Slagsvold, chairman; Filmer Craven, Jessie Peoples, Martha L. Johnson, Frank Inabnit, Irving Hardendorf, and H. D. Hamilton.

The Madras Legion post will be in charge of services with Rev. E. A. Fast, of Redmond, officiating.

Members of the Bend fire department, 30 strong, honored Mrs. W. L. Van Duren at their regular meeting Monday evening at the fire hall.

Mrs. Van Duren was given a bouquet of red roses, and in his presentation remarks, Fire chief LeRoy Fox expressed the department's appreciation for Mrs. Van Duren's services over a long period of time. She has been an honorary member of the department for the past 20 years, and has been on hand at most of Bend's major fires, to serve hot coffee to the firemen. She was the first to bring coffee to the fire fighters at the big fire July 4 at Eddie's garage, it was pointed out.

Mr. and Mrs. Van Duren plan to leave in two weeks for Vancouver, B. C., to attend the annual "sour dough" convention August 11, 12, 13 and 14. Mrs. Van Duren is a member of the Seattle Yukon club. After the convention, the local couple will return to Bend to prepare for a trip to Dawson, Alaska. They plan to locate in the Willamette valley later.

Charles Clark, who was in charge of the 4-H annual rally day program in Bend last Friday, thanked the Jaycees for their assistance and submitted a report. In supervising the program, the Jaycees remained under the budget set by the senior chamber sponsoring organization.

Members of the grange hall ladies aid will meet Thursday at 1:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Walter Richard, rather than with Mrs. Julius Steen, as previously announced.

The Minnesota highway department has ruled illegal the "woof-type" whistle horn for jalopies.

Commission May Air Painter Case

Removal of Fred L. Painter from the police department after nearly five years of service may come up for discussion at tonight's meeting of the city commission, several sources hinted today. Painter severed all connection with the department last week end, after refusing to submit his resignation. He had allegedly failed to prove certain accusations made against Police chief K. C. Gulick.

City manager C. G. Reiter said that he has had no information about rumors that a delegation of townspeople will attend the meeting to ask for an explanation of Painter's release. Mayor Hans Slagsvold said that he had not talked to the commissioners, but added that "it's entirely possible that the matter will be brought up." Painter stated that he had heard that interested persons planned to inquire into the incident, but that he had not been told that they would be at the meeting tonight.

Commissioner T. D. Sexton, who has been mentioned frequently in connection with the recent police department investigation, said that the commission is "not a court," and that "you never can tell" what will come up at a meeting. Sexton insisted that the investigation "definitely was not closed" when it was turned back to the city manager three weeks ago.

The meeting tonight will be at 8 p.m. at the city hall.

Jury Commends County's Action

The grand jury, which adjourned yesterday, commended the county court for its actions in providing a suitable infirmary for aged people in Deschutes county and for improving the acoustics in the court house.

Sarah L. Wilson Taken by Death

Mrs. Sarah L. Wilson, 88, died yesterday morning at her home on route 2, Bend. Funeral services will be held Thursday at 2 p.m. at the Niswonger and Winslow funeral home. Burial will be in Pilot Butte cemetery. Rev. G. R. V. Bolster, of the Episcopal church, will officiate.

Mrs. Wilson, the former Sarah Jones, was born in Missouri on March 5, 1860. She had been a resident of the Bend vicinity for 35 years.

She is survived by a sister, Mrs. Jennie Snook, Grants Pass; a brother, Joe Jones, Kansas; two daughters, Mrs. D. J. McClelland and Mrs. Rose Innes, both of Bend; seven grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren.

Pioneer Picnic Set for Aug. 14

Directors of the Deschutes Pioneers' association meeting today noon at the Pilot Butte Inn set Saturday, August 14, as the date for their annual picnic, to be held again in Pioneer park. Carl A. Johnson, association president, presided at the meeting of the directors and outlined tentative plans for the picnic, which will be highlighted this year by a program of entertainment.

R. M. Smith, vice president of the association, was named to make arrangements for entertainment, and LeRoy Fox will again head the committee in charge of the potluck dinner. Ice cream and coffee will be served by the committee, with members to bring food for the dinner.

Also discussed at the luncheon meeting today were plans for participation in the Crook County Pioneers' picnic on Sunday, August 1, in Prineville. All pioneers of the midstate region have been invited to join in the Prineville meeting, at which Ormond R. Bean, Portland, president of the Sons and Daughters of Oregon Pioneers, will be the guest speaker.

The Bend pioneers held their first picnic last year. The group holds its annual meeting in December.

About one-tenth of the nearly 100,000 frozen food locker plants in the country are operated by co-operative associations.

Program Given For Band Concert

Bend's municipal band, under the direction of Don P. Pence, will present the regular weekly outdoor band concert Thursday at 8 p.m., in Drake park. Vocal solos by Rev. Allan Philp and Ted Chester, with band accompaniment, will be included in the program.

Opening number will be Sousa's famous march, "The Stars and Stripes Forever," followed by "American Patrol," by Meacham. Next will be Alford's arrangement of "My Hero," from "The Chocolate Soldier," by Straus, and "Trees," Oscar Rasbach.

Rev. Philp will be vocalist in the popular "Whiffenpoof Song," arranged by Paul Yoder, and "American Legion March," by Charles Parker. After the band's rendition of "Lady of Spain," Evans-Cailliet, Ted Chester will do the vocals in "Peg o' My Heart," arranged by Paul Yoder, and "Shine On Harvest Moon," arranged by William Teague. The program will conclude with Joyce's 71st New York Regiment March, "Boyer Lake," and "Irish Tune" from County Derry, arranged by Percy Granger.

18-Year-Old Is Signed by Navy

The Central Oregon navy recruiting station filled its quota of one 18-year-old for one year's service when Johnny Junior Henderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Henderson, of Redmond, was signed up.

The army recruiting station, which has a quota of one man this week and one next week, reported several applicants were thinking it over today, but that none had yet signed for the one-year term.

Henderson returned home to Redmond and will go to Portland on August 2 for final examination and enlistment.

CHILDREN BLAMED Children playing with matches started a brush fire yesterday near the end of Elgin avenue, according to reports by Bend firemen, who extinguished the blaze shortly after 2:30 p.m., in answer to a still alarm. No damage was reported.

Driver Injured In Canyon Wreck

Lester Corrigan, Portland, is in critical condition in St. Charles hospital following an accident near Madras yesterday morning. The large Safeway truck and semi-trailer which Corrigan was driving went off the road and rolled nearly 100 feet down Cow canyon. The truck has not yet been brought up from the canyon.

Corrigan is suffering from a fracture of the spine in the neck region and a paralysis of the arms and legs, according to attendants.

Stocks Register Small Net Gains

New York, July 21 (AP)—Stocks scored small net gains today on what appeared to be a lessening of tension over Berlin.

Late in the day earlier gains of fractions to more than a point were shaded, but in the last few minutes of trading the market made another comeback and the leaders generally finished higher.

Trading fell off from yesterday's session, which in turn was sharply under that of Monday when the market broke wide open.

There were many individual news items affecting stocks as well as several broad developments. The latter included an 11 per cent rise in steel prices by U.S. Steel corporation, expected to be followed by other companies in the industry. There was talk of another rise in automobile prices as a result, and a move toward a Washington investigation of the steel increase.

Steel shares assumed leadership at the opening and held it for several hours. Then the rails took over and at their highs had gains

Two Californians Taken by Officers

Two young Californians, Troy Elwood Woolever and Jerry Schurford Curtis, both about 25, were arrested by state police yesterday at the Three Creeks ranch in Crook county and are being held in the Deschutes county jail for the Fresno county sheriff. The men face an armed robbery charge.

Information received by state police indicates that the young men are sought on several charges, but details are lacking. Woolever and Curtis reportedly left California late in June and headed north, first working in Washington. Recently they came to Central Oregon and hired out as hay hands. Yesterday, Sgt. L. Hirtzel and Officer Floyd Chestnut, accompanied by Earl Shaw from the city police office in Prineville, visited the Three Springs ranch and found the youths working in a hayfield. The men did not resist arrest, and were unarmed. However, a .38-caliber revolver was found in the man's pocket of one of the men, in the ranch bunkhouse.

Woolever is a former resident of the Madras area. He left there last year. The two have been living in the Fresno, Calif., country. California officers are expected to arrive this evening or tomorrow to take the men to Fresno.

Hogs which are kept cool during the summer months eat better gain faster and put on weight at less cost.
