

Tommy Bridges Hurls Beavers to 8-3 Victory

San Francisco, Aug. 5 (UP)—A 1-year-old right-hander from Tennessee — Portland's Tommy Bridges — showed the pennant-winning Oakland A's that his right arm is still had the strength of a mule.

The veteran Bridges, who pitched for the Detroit Tigers for 5 years, scattered seven hits, struck out seven and chalked up his tenth win of the season as his beaver mates trimmed the Oaks to 3 last night.

Down Los Angeles way, the Angels spanked the ball-playing orphans from Sacramento 9 to 5 on the strength of Tom Hafey's fifth inning homer with the bases loaded. The San Francisco Seals continued their league-leading pace by defeating San Diego 3 to 1.

The Beavers were trailing Oakland 2 to 3 going into the top of the seventh. They rallied for five runs on singles by Harvey Storey, Ed Basinski, Fenton Cole, Bridges, Charley Silveira, and a double by John Rucker. Cole slammed his 16th four-man homer of the year in the second inning, while Oakland's Nick Etten hit his 21st of the season in the sixth.

It looked as if the Senators were going to pocket their second straight win over the Angels going into the last frame. But Albie Glossop doubled in the tying run, and Hafey put the game on legs with his four-run circuit blow. Los Angeles manager Bill Kelly used three hurlers in the game, and Walt Landman, who pitched the last four innings, got credit for the victory.

Werde Chalked Up San Francisco's Billy Werde chalked up his 12th victory as the Seals trounced the hapless Padres. The Seals came from behind to take the game. They scored three tallies in the top of the ninth when Gene Woodling and Mickey Rocco singled and Dino Restelli and Mickey Shofner doubled.

Charlie Schanz, making his first start for Seattle since his recent purchase from Kansas City, gave up seven hits and one run as he hurled the Rainiers to victory in the opener with the Stars. Seattle displayed an even stronger moundman in the nightcap when right-hander Guy Fletcher checked the Stars with three hits.

Homesick Cat Returns After 400-Mile Hike Leonminster, Mass. (UP)—A homesick cat walked more than 400 miles in a month and returned here footsore and travelworn. Year-old Fluffy, an angora, departed the trailer of the Ben Hansberry family at Buffalo, N. Y., while they were en route to a new home at Moses Lake, Wash.

The provincial-minded pussy padded up to the back door of their former home, where neighbors found him mewing sadly. Arrangements were made to forward him to the Hansberrys by air after a rest cure.

Cashman's and Medo-Land Teams Are Softball Winners

Cashman's nine topped the hard-fighting Childs hardware team by a 5-2 score in last night's Independent league game. The second game of the evening found Medo-Land creamery outscored in earned runs 3-2 by Jess's Pastime of Sisters, but the Medo-Landers took advantage of 14 Pastime errors to win an easy 15-5 Industrial league encounter.

Mayer, Sanders and Raper all played out doubles for Cashman's in the first inning last night, three runs crossing the plate, enough to win their first, second-half league victory. In that frame Cashman's got its only two earned runs. Childs had one earned run.

The losers went scoreless until the fourth when they scored twice on three hits and one Cashman error. Both runs scored and all three hits came after two were out. Cashman's had sewed up the game in the top of the fourth with a two-run outburst of their own, coming in on just one hit.

Get Single Hits Childs notched single hits in each of the three stanzas after the fourth, but they couldn't push them across against the fine-fielding Cashman outfit. Jess's Pastime scored three earned runs to Medo-Land's two, but 14 errors by their side made winning a near impossibility. Every man on the losing team had at least one error.

The winners had only eight hits, and all of them were garnered by three infielders. Second baseman Walt Douglass continued his hitting spree, getting three for four, catcher Blucher came up with a three for five night, and third sacker Einman got two hits in four.

Double Murder at Sea Mystifies Philippines Manila (UP)—A strange shooting at sea heads the list of current cases in the Philippine constabulary's "unsolved" file. A fishing captain sighted a small, neat sailboat bobbing aimlessly off the coast. Overtaking it, he found the corpses of a man and a boy.

The bodies were riddled with carbine bullets. Seven empty shells were scattered about the boat, but the carbine itself was missing. There were no signs of a struggle. Robbery was dismissed as a motive when $25 was found in one of the dead men's pockets.

Their boat, which bore the words, "You are always in my heart," in brightly painted letters, appeared on no official registry lists. Officials said the small craft might have drifted several hundred miles before it was discovered.

St. Louis Cards Take Two Games From New York

New York, Aug. 5 (UP)—Eddie Dyer, the man on the fire, had all the answers today as to why his St. Louis Cardinals might shortly be out in front in the National league pennant race. Dyer, supposedly on probation because he hasn't made a better showing thus far with the Cardinals, didn't bother to discuss his personal status. He couldn't help but be jubilant—his Cards had just topped the Giants, 7 to 2 and 3 to 0 to move into second place only four games behind the pace-setting Boston Braves, who were defeated, 4 to 2 by Cincinnati.

"Look at us now," Dyer said, "we may have found the spark that will get us started, just as it did in 1946." Braves Beaten The Reds made it three in a row over the pace-setting Braves, topping them 4 to 2 at Boston as Ken Raffensberger outpitched Bill Voiselle.

The Dodgers moved into third place ahead of the Giants in the National league when they topped the Cubs, 5 to 4, in the ninth inning on Bruce Edwards single with two out. The activity in the skin-tight American league race was curtailed by rain but the idle Cleveland Indians remained in first place and the third place Boston Red Sox tumbled to fourth when the Browns defeated them, 9 to 8, at St. Louis.

All other American league games were rained out and so was the Pittsburgh at Philadelphia game in the National.

Yank President Is Salem Visitor Salem, Aug. 5 (UP)—Del Webb, president of the New York Yankees, was a spectator at Waters park last night when the Salem Senators defeated Bremerton in both ends of a doubleheader baseball game.

"I seem to have brought you luck," Webb told a reporter. Last night's scores: Jess's Pastime 5 5 14 Medo-Land 15 8 3 Hawes and Bob Turner; Mills and Blucher. Cashman's 5 6 3 Childs Hardware 2 6 3 Woods and Jensen; Hull, Mike Mitchell (5) and Sullivan.

Gehrman to Hurl Against Davidites

Paul Gehrman will pitch for the Bend Elks tonight against the House of David nine, Wally Kremers, team manager, said this morning. The Davidites will arrive by bus some time today and will remain here until tomorrow.

Kremers said the Elks hope to give the whiskered team a tough battle, although the odds will be all in favor of the Benton Harbor, Mich., nine. The House of David has for years ranked as one of the top traveling squads in the country and usually wins three out of four of its games.

Tonight's game is called for 8:30 p.m. at the Bend Municipal park. Farmhouse Quits Moving As Gusher Is Capped Plymouth, Ind. (UP)—Clarence Hoover's farm house has finally come to a standstill.

The house began moving after a gusher broke through the ground while a driller was sinking a new well. The well spouted a barrel of water a minute. All efforts to stop the gusher resulted only in its breaking out in surrounding spots. By the time the well was sealed off, the farm house had one wall cracked and had settled several inches away from a new chimney that had been added to it recently.

Three Stars Falled None of the three was able to make the team in his specialty. Dadds nursed an injury as they gamboled home without him.

Salem Defeats Bremerton Twice

The Salem Senators snapped Bremerton's nine-game string of wins last night as they swept both games, 3-1 and 8-3, in a Western International league doubleheader.

The Senators came from behind to score all their runs in the sixth frame of the seven inning opener. Salem took the lead in the fourth inning of the nightcap and were never headed. The double win put the Senators in sixth place.

Tacoma pored one and one-half games off Bremerton's lead as the Tigers trampled last place Yakima, 15-2. In another slugfest, Vancouver hammered five Wenatchee hurlers for 20 hits for an 18-3 victory. The Victoria Athletics split its twin bill with Spokane. The Athletics took the nightcap, 12-3, after dropping the opener, 7-3.

Sport Parade

By Oscar Fraley (United Press Sports Writer) New York, Aug. 5 (UP)—The Olympic athletes are making it look easy today as they shatter records like maniacs in a music shop and it must be considered proof that this is the greatest all-time collection of athletes when you contemplate the tremendous upsets being recorded.

Right from the start, the U. S. trials, it was evident that the form book wasn't going to mean as much as a pauper to a chorus girl. Sure bets for Olympic berths were Gil Dodds, the galloping parson; Chuck Foville, Michigan shot putter who broke the world mark with frequent abandon, and Harrison Dillard, the globe's ace high and low hurdler.

Barron Leading At Tam O'Shanter

Chicago, Aug. 5 (UP)—The 90 top pros of America's golf circuit turned into the final half of the annual All-American open today with Herman Barron, White Plains, N.Y., veteran, one stroke ahead of the field.

Barron, 1947 winner of the championship and most consistent of the field this year, had a pair of 68's for a 136 total at 36 holes and a one-stroke edge on record breaker Ralph Guldahl of Chicago.

Guldahl set a new course record of 64 on his first tour of this tourney links, but he fell apart on his second round for a 73 and a 137. Barron, meanwhile, was steady despite bad playing conditions, and he seemed well on the way toward his second title in May's annual event. The title this year will carry a $5,080 first prize, big money in golf's business, even though not enough to cause leading money winner Ben Hogan to appear.

U. S. Increases Olympic Lead

London, Aug. 5 (UP)—Unofficial scoring in the Olympic games at the end of 43 events: United States 308; Sweden 99; France 88 1/2; Hungary 72; Turkey 54; Holland 50; Australia 48; Finland 44; Italy 32; Austria 27; Britain 27; Switzerland 26; Denmark 25; Norway 23 1/2; Czechoslovakia 18; Belgium 15; Jamaica 11; Peru 10; Argentina 9; Panama 8; Yugoslavia 7; Canada 6; Poland 6; Ceylon 5; Mexico 3; Brazil 2, and Spain 1.

Our our Vicki Draves nosed her out. And our basketball team, which admits it is the world's finest, came from behind to nose out Argentina, by two very slender points. It isn't only the food situation which is tough in London.
