

Coast All-Star Tilt Taken By Nine From South

San Francisco, Aug. 10 (AP)—A hustling Irishman from San Diego's outfield—Jack Barrett—was the brightest star in the Pacific Coast league all-star clash.

Barrett, who at one time patrolled the outfield for the Pittsburgh Pirates, sparked the slashing 14-hit southern attack which overpowered the northern forces 6 to 2 last night. He collected three hits in three trips to the plate, scored two runs, and drove in two.

San Francisco southpaw Bill Werle turned in the best mound performance, shutting out the northerners with one hit in his three-inning chore.

The north was shut out with three hits until the top of the ninth when they rallied for two runs on three hits. Leon Mohr started the attack by beating out an infield grounder. Stringer played Dario Lodigiani's grounder to second but his throw was too late.

Hills Layne doubled to left center, scoring Mohr with the first northern run. A few seconds later Lodigiani scored with the final tally of the game on Nick Etten's fly to short right center.

Oaks to Meet Seals

Goshen, N.Y., Aug. 10 (AP)—It's applejack instead of mint juleps and scorn for such flimsy get-terers as thoroughbred instead of high sounding talk about "improvement of the breed" as the farmer yellows get ready for tomorrow's running of the Hambletonian, trotting's Kentucky Derby.

In this hayseed hamlet where they annually take the city slicker for a ride, the harness horsemen have no time for the sleek thoroughbred. Imagine carrying 105 pounds for seven furlongs and calling it a day! Around Goshen they wouldn't make stall room for a brace like that. The trotter has to be fit for 12 miles in an afternoon, five at full speed.

And after a fair feed of oats or good bran mash, that critter better be ready to do it all over again tomorrow afternoon, by cracky.

JACK IN THE CORNER

By JACK HALBROOK
Army headquarters is looking for a marching song that is "worthy of becoming an over-all Army song." It'll have to be the kind of melody that'll make the lads forget their feet are killing them . . . and that they're ten miles from camp and "late chow"! A song like that would take the lumps out of the mashed potatoes and part the Colonel's whiskers with a smile that would make Santa Claus seem like an old grouch. An Army march on its stomach, but there's nothing like a dynamic-ditty to keep the sag out of the sad sacks in the rear ranks. For a happy army, the men must have music in their souls!

By the way, did you see the new face and "innards" of the Bend Pilot last week? It was a grand job and here's hoping they continue to improve. Of course that may make The Bulletin a little "groovy," to have me say nice things about some other paper—but give credit where credit is due. Success to you, Mr. McAllister.

Two-Hit Pitching Aids Dairy Team in Win Over All-State

Medo-Land Creamery, behind the two-hit pitching job of young Chuck Mills, upset the All State Realty apple cart, dumping the favorites in winning handily, 6-1. The Medo-Land win has all the possibilities of turning the second half Industrial league race into shambles.

And wonder of wonders, the West Side Tavern made it two Independent league wins in a row and a perfect second half record so far, smothering pitcherless Childs' Hardware 19-7.

In the Junior league tussle of the evening, nothing much was decided as two of the cellarites met, the Jaycees coming away winners by a 12-1 score as Dick Darst tied the newly made strike-out record.

Commit Seven Errors
Seven All State errors and seven spineless bats proved to be the deciding factor, as each team made one earned run. Seven All Staters couldn't bear, borrow or buy a hit from Mills who just poured the ball in and let the fielders do the rest. Medo-Land scored enough runs to win in the second stanza, getting two runs on two hits and three errors. Both runs were unearned. They scored one more unearned run in the fifth, and got a gift of two more in the sixth. They scored their only earned run in the seventh on two hits and a sacrifice.

The All Staters scored their only run in the sixth when the first man up in the inning, catcher Maudlin, walked, stole second, and scored.

Brecheen Wins 13th Victory As Cards Down Reds

New York, Aug. 10 (AP)—No congressman has investigated Harry Brecheen's left-wing activities because the Cardinal southpaw is unfair only to National league batters, but unless something stops him, he may renew his feud against the American league—in the world series.

The pet cat of the Red Birds, considered by many experts as the best left-handed pitcher in baseball, created world series history in the 1946 world series against the Red Sox when he became the first southpaw ever to win three games in the classic.

Last night as the Cards climaxed their recent winning drive with a 6 to 2 Brecheen victory over the Reds at Cincinnati it was the pitching of "The Cat" and the hitting of Enos Slaughter which provided the spark.

Slaughter Gets Hits
Brecheen, winning his 13th game and his fourth in a row, put the second place Cards within 3 1/2 games of the leading Braves with an eight-hitter. And Slaughter drove in five runs with a triple, double, and two singles besides scoring the sixth himself.

Rookie Carl Erskine put the Dodgers four games off the pace when he edged Syl Donnelly of the Phils, 2 to 1 in a pitching battle in Brooklyn for his fourth straight victory since coming up late last month from Fort Worth.

Cleveland's revived Indians defeated the Tigers at Detroit, 6 to 2 as Gene Bearden won his 10th game, a seven-hitter, and Eddie Robinson supplied the hitting punch with a three-run homer, his fourth in two days.

In a "who cares" battle of the basement at St. Louis, the seventh place Browns topped the last place White Sox, 8 to 6 as Bob Dillinger paced a 13-hit attack with a triple and two doubles.

There were no other games scheduled.

Medford Team Scores 8-2 Win

The Medford Dodgers surged past the Marysville Braves last night in an 8 to 2 Far West league victory. It was the Dodgers all the way after a seven-run, six-hit attack in the second inning. The big second was made even bigger by three Marysville errors and Don Taylor's homer with two on.

The Santa Rosa Pirates blasted out five runs in the fourth inning and then squelched a Redding rally in the fifth to defeat the Browns in a closely fought 8 to 6 game.

The Pirates batted out four singles and a double in their big inning. Redding's attempted rally in the fifth fell short by two runs. It was sparked by Manager Ray Perry's homer with one on.

The game between Willows and Klamath Falls was rained out.

Victoria Moves Into Third Place

(By United Press)

Victoria moved into a third-place tie with Spokane in the Western International league last night after beating Salem, 9-7.

The Athletics rapped two Salem hurlers for 16 hits and staved off a three-run eighth inning rally to take the contest.

In the only other game played the Vancouver Capitanes won a thriller from last place Yakima, 8-7. The Stars, trailing 5-4 going into the ninth inning, took the lead with a three-run scoring spree.

Vancouver bounced back in their half of the ninth with three runs for the victory.
