

Seals' Lead Is Now Four Games; Bevos Win Again

THE STANDINGS

Team	W.	L.	Pct.
San Francisco	84	58	.592
Oakland	82	64	.562
Los Angeles	79	66	.545
Seattle	71	73	.493
Portland	70	74	.486
San Diego	71	76	.483
Hollywood	64	82	.438
Sacramento	58	86	.403

San Francisco, Aug. 21 (UP)—Weather, baseball and a wave of the league president's magic wand today combined to make some weird changes in the Pacific Coast league standings.

San Francisco pulled out four games ahead of the Oakland A's when President Clarence (Pants) Rowland ordered a partial replay of a protested game. The Seals held the margin by defeating Hollywood for the fourth time in a row, 5 to 3, last night.

Oakland was the victim of the Rowland ruling, which ordered a replay of the last of the ninth inning of the Aug. 14 Oakland-Seal game in which Acorn hurler Ralph Buxton was caught putting goop on the ball. The fact that the Acorns broke a three-game losing streak by dropping Los Angeles, 13 to 10, in a wild 29-hit slugfest failed to offset the loss.

Beavers In Fifth Place
Meanwhile, on an assist from the weather, the Portland Beavers annexed fifth place by dropping the Sacramento Solons, 12 to 2, while San Diego and Seattle were watching the raindrops fall in the northwest.

When Rowland made his decision to order the controversial innings replayed, he, in effect, removed one loss from San Francisco's record and a win from the Oakland column. That condition will be cleared up Sept. 20 when the teams take the field at Seals stadium for a half inning of baseball.

Oakland's victory ended a five-game winning streak for the Angels. Eight pitchers — four on each team — saw action in the lengthy contest, with Floyd (Hummingbird) Speer getting credit for the win and Dewey Adkins being tagged for the loss. Albie Glossop and Cliff Abernethy homered for the Seals. Nick Etten hit one for the Acorns.

Duane Pillette earned his tenth victory, on a seven-hit performance at Portland. Fenton Mole homered for two Bevo runs and scored three. Dee Moore hit a round-tripper for the Sacs. Kenny Holcombe was the loser.

The San Diego-Seattle rainout will be made up in a doubleheader tonight.

All-Army Golf Tourney in Finals

Fort Lewis, Wash., Aug. 21 (UP)—The all-army golf tournament went into the final 36-hole rounds here today with a sergeant from Camp Cook, Calif., and a lieutenant from the Rossmore ordnance depot, Toledo, Ohio, battling it out for the Mallin Craig trophy.

Yesterday's semi-finals saw both men taking early leads in their matches and holding onto those leads.

In the match between S/Sgt. Joe Torres Sixth army, and First Sergeant Roy Schneider, Fourth army, Torres took an early lead and was 5 up at the end of nine. He won over Schneider, the top medalist, by that same margin, defeating him 5 and 3.

In the match between Lt. Willard M. Mann and Sgt. John Laxon, Mann had a 2-up lead by the end of the ninth. Laxon evened things up by taking the 11th and 12th but Mann moved back in front to win 2 up in 18.

Golf Club Plans Mixed Foursomes

Competition by two-ball mixed foursomes will take place at the Bend Golf club tomorrow afternoon, with play scheduled for 3 p. m.

Following the competition club members will be served a free dinner, the main course of which will be baked salmon. The fish for the dinner is being provided by W. E. Van Allen.

Capitol Cleaners Win Second Half Softball Championship

Capitol Cleaners had to play its best game of the season last night to turn in a victory over the little Slate's team, the win giving them the second half championship in the Junior league and the right to meet the Jaycees in a two out of three series for the league title.

Capitol bunched two of its three hits in the third inning to score the game's only run, topping the tough Slate's Barber Shop club in the lowest scoring game yet played in local softball action, 1-0.

Chicago Cards Defeat All-Stars

Chicago, Aug. 21 (UP)—The College All-Stars flunked their final exams before the Chicago Cardinals last night, and the brightest members of the class didn't scintillate a bit.

The National Football league champions taught them line play, pass defense and passing, too, even to Johnny Lutzack, Charley Conery and Bob Chappuis, in taking a 28 to 0 victory from the "greatest" collection of college stars in the 15-year history of the annual pro collegiate game.

Last night before 101,220 fans in Soldiers' field, the Cardinals went to town. They outsped their younger competitors man for man all the way from the heaviest linemen to the lightest backs.

They hit first and hardest, and their timing and conditioning was excellent. Contrary to custom, last night the pros didn't wilt.

The pro titleholders went at top speed for the entire 60 minutes and no matter how deep Coach Jimmy Cozelman dug into his reserves, his line and backfield were always a shade better than what the collegians had at hand.

The Cardinals set the tempo of the game in the first half, grinding without a halt on two marches of 80 and 83 yards, both ending in touchdowns. Fullback Pat Harder, Halfbacks Elmer Angaman and Charlie Trippi and Quarterback Paul Christman all participated.

Christman connected on short passes while the others ripped the line steadily, and finally Angaman scored on a two-yard plunge. In the second period Vic Schwall was the score, on a 14-yard dash through guard.

Red Sox Pegged As Team to Watch In Late Season

New York, Aug. 21 (UP)—A club which comes roaring from behind to win its games usually is one to watch in a tight pennant race and on that basis the Boston Red Sox, who have won 32 of their 68 victories by overcoming early deficits were a team to watch today.

The Red Sox still have an uphill climb if they want to catch the league leading Cleveland Indians, but they seem to thrive on mountainous terrain and even if they don't win the pennant they certainly will wind up by providing their fans a lot of thrills.

They were at their very best yesterday when they topped the Senators, 5 to 4 in 10 innings, then capitalized on a seven-run rally to win the second game, 10 to 4 and take second place.

Williams Homers
After Washington took a 2 to 0 lead in the nightcap, Boston put over seven runs in the second inning, four on Dom DiMaggio's grand slam homer and Jack Kramer had no difficulty in winning his 14th game against four defeats. Ted Williams hit his 21st homer and Bobby Doerr got number 22 as the Red Sox "murderers" fattened their totals.

The Red Sox took over second place from the Philadelphia A's, who lost to the Yankees in a night game, 6 to 2, in Philadelphia.

Boston also gained a half-game on the league-leading Cleveland Indians, although the tribe beat Chicago 1 to 0 in a night game that tied one record and broke another.

Paige Wins Again
The shutout, a neat three-hit job, was the second in a row for 44-year-old Satchel Paige, being the fourth straight for the Indians, following jobs by Bob Lemon, Gene Bearden, and Sam Zoldak, it tied a record set by the Yankees in 1902. The crowd at Cleveland's Municipal stadium, 78,832, was a new major league night game mark, beating the old record of 74,147 set at Yankee stadium by the Yankees and Red Sox last year.

Bob Dillinger's 10th inning home run gave the St. Louis Browns a 5 to 4 win over the Tigers at Detroit.

In the National league, the St. Louis Cards moved within a game and a half of first place by beating Pittsburgh, 7 to 4.

The Cubs, cashing in on a two-run homer by Andy Pafko and four innings of five relief pitching by Jess Dobernic, defeated the Reds, 5 to 2, at Chicago.

Boston at Brooklyn and Philadelphia at New York were postponed by rain in the National league.

Women Reach Golf Meet Finals

San Mateo, Cal., Aug. 21 (UP)—The 1947 trans-Mississippi golf finals must have been a true test of the field, because the same cast of characters holds the center of the stage here today in the 1948 finals of the tournament.

It will be defending champion Polly Riley, Ft. Worth, Tex., vs. 1947 runner-up Margaret Gunther, Memphis, Tenn.

They banded their way into the finals over the tree-lined, heavily sand-trapped Peninsula Country club course yesterday, with Miss Riley ousting Curtis cup teammate, Dot Kieley, Long Beach, 4 and 2; and Miss Gunther trimming little Betty Mims White, Austin, Tex., 5 and 3.

Haas, using the goose-necked clubs he sells under his own patent, turned in a hot 65 yesterday to lead the field. The former National Intercollegiate champion was experiencing one of the best tournaments he has had since turning professional and appeared likely to upset the favored Hogan.

Lawson Little, of Monterey, Calif., had an 80 yesterday to put with his 70 of the opening round and ranked well below most of the ranking money winners of the Professional Golfers association circuit.

ARMY HAS A HEART
New York (UP)—The army has issued a call for 23,760 size 2 infant undershirts, not, it is understood, for any two-year-old recruits, but for the offspring of personnel in army hospitals.

Team Scores 30 Runs in Twin Bill

(By United Press)
Thirty Redding runs crossed the home plate last night as the Browns swept both ends of a Far West league double bill with the Willows Cardinals, taking the first game 12 to 6 and the nightcap 18 to 8.

Chuck Godshall and Ray Perry both hit first game homers for the Browns. Vic Solari, Johnny Johnson and Buzz Jackson amassed nine hits in the second game. Bob Seltzer homered for Redding.

Right-hander Larry Shepard drove in three runs, struck out 11 men and gave up only eight scattered hits to earn his 18th win as the Medford Dodgers slapped down Santa Rosa, 9 to 3. Five stolen bases aided the Dodger attack.

Johnny Moore tallied the winning run in the bottom of the ninth for the Marysville Braves as they edged the Oroville Red Sox, 3 to 2, in a pitchers' duel. Del Smith gave up five hits for his sixth win, while the loser, Don Thrasher, limited the Braves to four safe blows.

Butch Faller drove in five runs to spark the Klamath Falls Gems to an 8 to 2 win over the Roseville Diamonds.

Louis to Fill Out Retirement Notice

Indianapolis, Aug. 21 (UP)—Joe Louis said today his formal retirement notice will contain a clause enabling him to reclaim and defend the title within six months.

Louis said he is "definitely finished with boxing" and will hand Mike Jacobs' 20th Century Sporting club his retirement notice next week, with the six months provision.

The Brown Bomber came here to compete next week in the National Negro amateur and open golf tournament.
