San Francisco, Sept. 11 (UP) — If Jack Warren, Seattle's new catcher, packs up his gear and moves back into the Western International league, nobody in the Pacific coast league has any squawk coming.

Warren, brought up to the Suds from the Vancouver Capilanos, hit a fair ball over the left field fence with the bases loaded last night on his first time at bat for the Suds.

When the dust on the base paths cleared, the blow had won the ball game, but Warren was credited with only a single and was called out between first and second.

Umpire Jack Powell decided that Warren was out because the runner ahead of him, Johnny O'Neill, stopped to shake the hand that sent him home. Nevertheless, O'Neill and the other two runners were safe and the Rainiers beat San Francisco's league-leading Seals, 6 to 3. Warren's abortive homer capped a five-run Sud rally in the eighth frame.

Oaks Also Lose

The loss failed to cost the Seals their leadership, however, because Sacramento's Solons downed the Oakland Aorns, 8 to 7, shutting off an Oak ninth-inning rally just one run short of a tie.

At Portland, the Beavers blanked the Los Angeles Angels, 5 to 0 on the five-hit pitching of Roy Heiser in a seven-inning first game. The Angels came back in the nightcap to win, 8 to 5, although Red Adams gave the Ports 14 hits.

Hollywood squeezed past the San Diego Padres, 2 to 1, on the three-hit hurling of George "Plinky" Woods, who chalked his 13th win of the season.

Charley Schanz hurled the Seat-le victory over San Francisco, pinning the loss on Willie Werle.

Four Portland runs in the first inning tagged Los Angeles' first-game loss on Ron Bauers, while Vince Dibiasi was charged with the Bevo loss in the afterpiece. Cliff Abernethy homered for the Angels in the second game.

New York, Sept. 11 (UP) — Bert Dell, commissioner of the National football league, pointed his coffee spoon at a reporter in a downtown restaurant today and asked suddenly:

"What clubs met in our championship game last December?"

Without giving the reporter a chance to answer his $64 question, the chunky commissioner declared triumphantly: "The Chicago Cardinals and Philadelphia Eagles!"

As Bert spooned some sugar into his cup, he explained with outward satisfaction that it was necessary to keep in mind what happened last year in order to appreciate fully the prospects of the league's 1948 season, which opens next Friday night.

He said, "I stress the fact that the Cardinals were tops in the

Cleveland Moves Up in American With 10-1 Win

New York, Sept. 11 (UP) — Lou Boudreau's Cleveland Indians — long overdue — inched quietly toward the top of the American league today while the Red Sox and Yankees drew the fanfare and the furor.

The Indians, who yielded first place to the Red Sox August 26 after leading the league for most of the season, won their fourth straight yesterday by beating the Detroit Tigers, 10 to 1, behind Gene Bearden's six-hit pitching.

Climbing to within three and a half games of the pace-setting Red Sox, Cleveland clubbed three Tiger hurlers for 14 hits, including three hits by manager-shortstop Boudreau and three by third baseman Ken Keltner. Joe Gordon of the Indians slammed his 25th homer of the season in the sixth with one on.

DIMaggio Homers

Joe DiMaggio's home run with the bases loaded in the 10th inning gave the Yankees a hard-earned 11 to 6 decision over the Red Sox. The defeat snapped Boston's nine-game winning streak and cut the Red Sox lead to two-and-a-half games over the second-place New Yorkers.

The Philadelphia Athletics tripped Washington twice, 9 to 5 and 3 to 0 in a doubleheader.

The Browns collected 15 walks to down the White Sox, 10 to 7.

Stan Musial's booming bat sparked the St. Louis Cardinals to a 6 to 5 victory over the Reds in a night game at St. Louis, and that moved the Cards to 4½ games out of first place. Howie Pollet got his 11th victory of the season out of the deal.

Musial rapped in the winning run in the ninth inning with two outs and two strikes on him. It was his 200th hit of the season.

The Giants and the Dodgers were rained out as were the Braves and the Phillies in the National. The Pirates and Cubs were not scheduled.

West Side Beats All-Stars 10-3

The Independent League All-Stars, composed of the finest talent in that league outside of West Side Tavern, fell apart at the seams from lack of practice to drop a 10-3 decision to West Side Tavern under the lights at Bend municipal field in the beginning of the paint tournament Friday night.

The Industrial League All-Stars fought an uphill battle against the Jaycees, "B" league winners, but found the going too tough as they lost 7-5.

This evening the two all-star teams will meet in the preliminary tussel which will begin at 7:15 while the Jaycees and the West Side square off in the main tilt.

The two teams are loaded with talent, but without ever playing together they naturally were all a little off their feed. The Independents will be the heavy favorites, with the Industrialists having just a slight chance to pull the old dark horse act.

Play Tonight

The Jaycees and West Side should be fairly well matched, although the former will be playing slightly out of their class. The Jaycees have two one-run losses to Cashman's to their credit, who in turn have a pair of single tally losses to West Side.

A feature of the night will be a 100-yard dash to determine who is the fastest man in Bend softball. Already lined up are Danny Sullivan, Childs' Hardware; Les Hufstader, Superior Cafe; George Baker, Cashman's; Dick Maudlin, Palace; Eugene Smith, West Side Tavern. This, however, does not mean that the field is closed. Anyone is welcome to West Side pounded out 12 hits — nine of them by the first four batters — to easily gain a victory over the All-Stars and send them into the finals of the paint tournament. Eugene Smith, Weber, Brown and Gordon led the West Side hit parade with the first three up getting two each and Gordon getting three for four.

Give Up Woods

The All-stars gave up Johnny Woods to West Side so that the latter might have a pitcher, adding instead Childs' Ronnie Hull and the Palace's Bill Halverson along with Bob Hutchins who had been previously named on the team.

The losing of Woods proved to be a mistake as he twirled a two-hitter with no earned runs to win handily. The losers helped West Side's cause with eight errors.

The first game last night might well have been called the Jaycee All-stars vs. the league All-stars, with the Jaycees adding three Cashman players to their roster. Those additions made a Jaycee win inevitable, the three players batting third, fourth and fifth.

Short stop Bob Douglass, one of the Cashman men, was the biggest spark, driving in three runs in the opening inning with a long round tripper.

Leads Hitters

Medo-Land's Sam Blucher was the All-stars leading hitter, getting three hits in four up and driving in three of the four R.B.I.'s.

Last night's scores:

	R.	H.	E.
"B" All-stars	5	6	2
Jaycees	7	11	5
Mills and Maudlin; Schwab and Lermo.
	R.	H.	E.
