

Many Students Have Parts in Talent Assembly

Bend high school students participated in the annual talent assembly last Friday in the high school gymnasium, with prizes presented in four divisions. The show was sponsored by the student council, with Barbara Mize in charge.

A girls' sextette, composed of Audrey Bailey, Ann Nelson, Suzy Gillilan, Pat Blakeley, Peggy Terwilliger and Mary Fowler, won first prize in the singing division. They sang "I Don't Know Why," accompanied by Gwen Russell. Dolores Prater, singing "It's Magic," accompanied by Mary Lou Hudson, and a girls' trio composed of Buena Barton, Marilyn Brown and Dorothy Hayes, accompanied by Christine Ryman, tied for second place. Duwain Kaufman, singing "It's You or No One," accompanied by Gwen Russell, placed third.

Doris Aspenwall, who played a piano solo, "Valse," was given first prize in the instrumental division. Larry Standifer, who played an accordion solo, "Sabre Dance," placed second, and Mary Lou Hudson, with a piano solo, "Romance," was third.

In the dancing section, first prize went to Sally George, Barbara Reim and Gary Monicle, who appeared in a tap routine, accompanied by Wilson George.

Mickey Sullivan placed first in the humorous section, and Winona Fishback was second, both giving readings. Mickey's reading was "A Refuge," and Winona gave "Tressa Tells the Truth." Mickey Sullivan and Keith Tucker, as Bob Hope and Bing Crosby, were third with a skit entitled "Put 'Er There, Pal!"

Others on the program were Sandra Reimer, who played a clarinet solo, "Stardust"; Adelya Bartlett and Joan Fuls, playing a piano duet, "Tea for Two"; Marilyn Waterman, Dee Ann Parsons and Carolyn Hoogner, with their version of "Mummy"; an electric guitar number by Marjorie Corbin, and a skit, "The Quiz Kids," with the following participants: Adelya Bartlett, Juanita Burrell, Bertha DeShazer, Rose Jackson, Janis Jappert, Norma Kelsay, Paul Rhodes, Paula Smith, Gerald Woods, Clarence Neuman and Stanley Crawford.

Prizes in each division were $2 for first place, $1 for second and a theater pass for third place.

talk at the business meeting. After the meeting, an impromptu program was presented, including group singing and talks by Mabel Bozarth, W. C. McNely and Sam Ritter, and songs by Mildred Sherman. Lantz also spoke again, with "The Best Argument for the Grange" as his subject.

Plans were made for an open meeting November 19, with all organizations in the community to be invited to participate in a stunt night. Prizes will be given for the best stunts, and the evening's entertainment will also include dancing and the serving of a potluck lunch. Those taking part in the program will be charged 25 cents. It was decided. Proceeds will be used to defray expenses of the party.

The next grange meeting will be November 5, when officers for the coming year will be elected.

Boylan-Ryman Vows Are Said Sunday at Methodist Church

First Methodist church was the scene of an attractive wedding Sunday afternoon, October 17, when Miss Anna Mae Ryman became the bride of Carrel A. Boylan. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Ryman, of Bend. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Bert C. Boylan, formerly of Bend and now of Portland.

Rev. Ross Knotts read the double-ring ceremony at 3 p.m. in a setting of candlelight and white chrysanthemums. The pews were marked with bows of white satin ribbon.

Mrs. Bernice Towner, at the organ, played the wedding marches and accompanied Don P. Pence, who sang "O Promise Me," "If I Could Tell You" and a benediction hymn.

Miss Christine Ryman was her sister's only attendant, and Ralph Boylan, of Portland, acted as best man for his brother. Ushers were Stanley Langeberg, of Olympia, Wash., brother-in-law of the bridegroom, and Robert Burleigh, of Boise, Ida., brother-in-law of the bride.

Carries Heirloom Bible

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore an empire-style gown of white faille, with long white gloves. Her fingertip veil was caught to a coronet of button mums. She carried an orchid on a gold and white Bible, which her paternal grandmother, Mrs. C. M. Ryman, of White Salmon, Wash., had carried on her wedding day 60 years ago. Mrs. Ryman, who was unable to attend the wedding, presented the Bible to her granddaughter recently.

Miss Christine Ryman wore a gown of hyacinth blue faille, detailed with a full, tiered skirt, and basque bodice with puffed sleeves and Bertha collar. She wore a coronet of yellow chrysanthemums, and carried a colonial nosegay of the same flowers.

Reception Is Held

After the ceremony a reception was held in the fireside room of the church, with Mrs. Oscar Larson in charge, assisted by Mrs. Vernon Smith and Mrs. Willard Higgins. Miss Anna Ziegenhagen, of The Dalles, great aunt of the bride, cut the cake, assisted by Miss Laura Omeg, of Lyle, Wash., the bride's cousin. The punch was served by Mrs. Langeberg and Miss Pauline Caskey, who was the bride's room-mate at The Dalles general hospital, where both took nurses' training. Mrs. Robert Burleigh, sister of the bride, kept the guest book.

The cake, in yellow and white, was garlanded with yellow chrysanthemums, and flanked by white tapers. The table was covered with a white damask cloth.

The bride's mother was dressed in dark brown, and Mrs. Boylan was in taupe. Both wore gardenia corsages.

About 75 relatives and close friends of the bridal couple were present at the wedding and reception. Among those from out-of-town were Mrs. Peter Peterson, of The Dalles, grandmother of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Pat McNeil, Vancouver, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Watson, of McMinnville, aunt and uncle of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Whiteman and son, Bill, of Silver Lake; Mr. and Mrs. Joe McNeil and daughter, Molly, and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Boylan and sons, Richard, Ronald and Tommy, all of Portland, and the following from Lyle: Miss Edith Sorensen, Mr. and Mrs. Byrd Clark, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Omeg and daughters, Laura, Edith and Donna.

Leave on Honeymoon

After the reception, the young Mr. and Mrs. Boylan left on a honeymoon trip along the coast to Vancouver, B. C. They will return this week end by the inland route and will be at home at 4432 D. E. Eleventh avenue, Vancouver, Wash. For going away, the bride wore a brown ensemble, with gold accessories and a yellow orchid.

The bride was graduated from Bend high school in 1945, and completed her nurses' training last month, receiving special honors at the graduation exercises September 23.

Boylan was graduated from Bend high school in 1936. He served as a corporal in the army in world war II. He spent three years in the service, and was a prisoner of war in Germany. He received his degree in civil engineering from Oregon State college in 1947, and is now employed as an assistant in the city engineer's office in Vancouver.

Halloween Party Given by Sorority

Members of Beta Sigma Phi sorority entertained rushees at a costume party last Thursday night at the home of Mrs. Walter Larsen. The rooms were decorated in the Halloween motif, which also set the theme for the games and refreshments.

Prizes for the best outfits went to Miss Shirley Blakely and Miss Carolyn Blakely, who wore quaint old-fashioned costumes, and to Miss Betty Oestreicher, who came as "Sparkle Plenty," of the comics.

Miss Mary Chavis was in charge of the games.

SHOWER PARTY PLANNED

Members of the Degree of Honor lodge will meet Tuesday at 8 p.m. at Eagles hall, for a stork shower honoring Mrs. Leo Mattson, formerly of Bend. Mr. and Mrs. Mattson moved to Lebanon, and lost all their possessions in a fire, friends here have learned. The regular lodge meeting will not be held that night.

Degree of Honor lodge will sponsor the first of a series of three public afternoon card parties next Tuesday, Oct. 26, from 2 to 4 p.m. at Eagles hall. Other parties in the series will be Nov. 9 and Nov. 23. Prizes will be presented at each party and for the series, it was announced. The play will begin and end promptly as scheduled, according to those in charge. Refreshments will not be served.

Rebekah lodge will meet Friday at 8 p.m. at the I.O.O.F. hall. On the refreshment committee will be Mrs. Wesley McDowell, Mrs. Earl Weber, Mrs. Edward Valitcka, Mrs. Roy Van Fleet, Mrs. Forrest Yeoman and Mrs. C. D. Winn.
