

Miss Manny Wed in Salem; Couple on Honeymoon Trip

A recent Salem wedding of interest to local friends is that of Miss Rosalind Clare Manny, formerly of Bend, who became the bride of Jack Orcutt Luehrs, of Ontario, at an afternoon ceremony October 17 at St. Paul's Episcopal church in the capital city.

The bride has been employed for the past two years as secretary for W.P.C.A. in Salem. She is the daughter of Mrs. Doris F. Manny, of Santa Rosa, Cal. Luehrs, who attended Oregon State college and is now employed as a state highway engineer, is the son of Mrs. O. G. Luehrs, of Salem.

Rev. George H. Swift officiated at the double ring ceremony. The chancel of the church was decorated with tall baskets of pink gladioli, chrysanthemums and loblelia, and candelabra holding lighted tapers.

Mrs. Ronald Craven was organist and soloist. She sang "O Perfect Love" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Given by Brother

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Vernon R. Manny, Jr. Her gown of heavy white satin, made with full court train, was detailed with panels of lace insertion in the skirt. The shirred bodice was made with sweetheart neckline, lace yoke and leg o'mutton sleeves with pointed cuffs. She wore a three-quarter length double tiered net veil, edged with lace that matched the trimming on the gown. She carried a crescent-shaped bouquet of white chrysanthemums and stephanotis.

Mrs. J. A. Nunn, of Scio, was matron of honor, wearing a floor-length gown of deep blue taffeta. She carried a bouquet of bronze and gold chrysanthemums, and her headress was a cap of matching button mums.

Bend Friend Is Bridemaid

Mrs. Keith Shipman, Jr., of Bend, and Mrs. Dale Dorn, of Salem were bridesmaids. They wore gowns of light blue lace, with lace-trimmed blue satin Juliet caps. They carried cascade bouquets of yellow button chrysanthemums, tied with blue satin ribbon.

Lark Brandt was flower girl, in a ruffled white organdy dress. She carried rose petals in a crystal basket. Philip Martin Brandt, III, was ring bearer. He wore a white suit and carried the rings on a white satin pillow. Both youngsters are children of Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Brandt, Jr., of Salem, cousins of the bride.

J. Anthony Nunn, of Scio, acted as best man. Ushers were Keith Shipman, Jr., of Bend, and Dale Dorn, of Salem.

Reception Is Held

After the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Waring, aunt and uncle of the bridegroom, at 595 North Fourteenth street in Salem. The rooms were decorated with pink gladioli and white chrysanthemums. The bride's table was covered with a heavy ecru lace cloth, over pink silk, and centered with an arrangement of pink begonias and chrysanthemums, with lighted pink and white tapers alternating with flowers.

Miss Patty Orcutt received the guests at the door. Mrs. Philip M. Brandt, Jr., cousin of the bride, cut the cake. Mrs. Jerry Calaba, cousin of the bridegroom, served the punch. Mrs. Loren Boston passed the guest book, and Mrs. William Burchall had charge of the gifts.

The bride's mother wore a floor-length gown of aqua crepe, trimmed with blue and gold sequins. She wore white elbow-length gloves, and an aqua toque of ribbon and net, with rosebuds. The bridegroom's mother wore a gown in Alice blue, with long rose-colored mitts, and a pillbox hat with rose and blue flowers. Both had corsages of gardenias and pink rosebuds.

Local People Attend

Many friends and relatives of the bridal couple attended the wedding and reception. Among those from out-of-town were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Weber and Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Jones, of Bend.

After the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Luehrs left on a honeymoon trip to Arizona and New Mexico. For going away, the bride wore a moss green crepe dress, with gold belt. Her accessories were dark green, and her half-hat, in a shade that matched her dress, was trimmed with dark green feathers. A beige coat completed the ensemble. She wore a corsage of green orchids.

After November 1, the couple will be at home in Ontario.

Mrs. W. Edwards Honored at Party

Mrs. Wallace Edwards was honored at a stork shower held recently at the home of Mrs. A. C. McDonald, with Mrs. C. L. Strom and Mrs. Darl L. Stevenson as assistant hostesses. The afternoon was spent playing games, and after the honoree opened the shower gifts, refreshments were served.

Others present at the party included the following: Mrs. Freida Shipley, Mrs. I. I. McCune, Mrs. Eva Winters, Mrs. H. R. Stewart, Mrs. Edgar N. Harvey, Mrs. Lillie Waller, Mrs. John Stenkamp, Mrs. Earl T. Bowers, Mrs. Norman E. Bowers, Mrs. E. R. Smith, Mrs. Ed McLennan, and Mrs. J. H. Lutz.

Group Is Planning Rummage Sale

Members of the First Presbyterian sewing circle are making plans for a rummage sale which will begin Wednesday, October 27, in the social room of the church, and continue throughout the week. Hours will be from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m. each day.

Articles will be marked and arranged at a meeting of the sponsoring group, next Tuesday at 2 p. m. at the church. Mrs. T. A. Simmons and Mrs. Sig Skavlan will be hostesses for the social hour.

Contributions for the sale may be left at the church or at 624 Congress, it was announced.

Shrine Club Giving Dance

Dancing and cards will highlight the entertainment for members of all Masonic bodies and their families, at a semi-formal party Saturday night at the Masonic temple. Music will be provided by Ernie Traxler's orchestra from 9 p. m. to midnight. Refreshments will be served by a committee headed by Mrs. A. B. Snider.

Proceeds from the affair will be used for the purchase of turkeys for Thanksgiving and Christmas dinners at the Shrine's hospital for crippled children, in Portland, it was announced. Tickets have been mailed by a committee head by Mrs. J. A. Dudley, and they will also be available at the door. The affair is being sponsored by the Central Oregon Shrine club, assisted by members of other Masonic bodies.

Bend Garden club will meet Friday at 2 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Stella Nelson, 344 Florida. Each member is being asked to bring a Halloween arrangement to the meeting. Mrs. C. L. Hinman will have charge of the program.

Smoking hams is now successfully accomplished in a fireproof room by means of hickory sawdust spread over an electric grid.

Evening Hours Added for Sale

Members of Trinity Episcopal guild have announced an innovation for their semi-annual rummage sale to be held Tuesday and Wednesday, Oct. 26 and 27, at the Episcopal parish hall adjoining the church. Besides daytime hours from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m. each day, there will be evening hours Tuesday only, from 7 to 9 p. m.

Many usable articles have been donated for the event, according to those in charge. Plans were completed at the meeting held Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. W. Williamson, with Mrs. C. L. McAllister as assistant hostess.

Women of the Moose will hold a public dinner Sunday at Moose hall with members of the alumni chapter in charge. Serving will be from 3 to 7 p. m.

Ex-Libris club will meet at 8 p. m. tonight at the home of Mrs. Raymond LeBlanc, 1625 West Fifth. Mrs. Donald Waddell will have charge of the program.

An aerial census of the rare trumpeter swan, recently taken in Yellowstone park, showed 49 adult birds and 13 cygnets this year as compared with 45 adults and eight cygnets last year.

Skaters to Join In Masquerade

Meeting Tuesday evening at the Civic Roller rink, members of the Central Oregon Skating club made plans for a Halloween masquerade party to be held Friday, October 29. A committee was named to arrange entertainment.

Miss Marie Murphy, president of the club, submitted her resignation as an officer because of poor health. Margaret Walker, vice president, will act as president temporarily.

June Loken and Ginger Voose were chosen as doormen, to greet new and old members and inspect membership cards at the door. A sketch of the emblem to be worn on the club sweaters was submitted and discussed.

Faculty Dames will meet Tuesday, October 26, for a 1:30 luncheon at the Pine Tavern. Afterward, the meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. W. R. Nance, 1508 East Ninth street. Children will be cared for at the home of Mrs. Harry Drake, 1128 Lexington.

Bend Home Extension unit will meet Friday at 7:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. George Smith, 342 East Clay street. There will be a business meeting, followed by a talk on "Pattern Selection," by Miss Miriam Shelton, home demonstration agent.

Women of the Moose will hold the third and final card party in the current series, Friday at 8 p. m. at Moose hall. The affair is open to the public. Prizes will be given, and refreshments will be served.
