Irregular Trend
Noted on Market

By T. W. Kienlen
(United Press Financial Writer)

New York, Oct. 21 (UP) - The stock market was irregular near the close today with sales again approaching the million-share level.

Opening on gains ranging to a point, the market fell back on mid-profit-taking which Wall Street described as a "natural" consequence of nine days of rising industrial share prices.

Most of the day's business news was favorable, including higher earnings for General Foods and Atlantic Refining. Carloadings were reported higher than a week ago, although below the 1947 level.

The general outlook was considered favorable, particularly for such heavy industries as steel making and automobile production.

Republic Steel the other day reported higher September earnings and earnings of other steel companies were expected to show a similar pattern. Next week U.S.
Steel and Bethlehem directors will report on September results.

Man Loses His Borrowed Suit

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 21 (UP) - Two men apprehended taking the coat, pants, suspenders and belt from a third man on the street told police today they were "just talking the law into our own hands."

One of the men, William Houghton, 56, told officers a suit was stolen from his room Tuesday. When he and his roommate, Mark McNally, were going to work, they said they saw David H. Jacobs, 22, wearing Houghton's suit.

"What's mine is mine," Houghton said, "we just decided to take the suit."

Jacobs admitted the theft. He was booked at the city jail.

Oregon Voters to Decide Fate of Hydroelectric Bill

By Eldon Barrett
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Salem, Ore., Oct. 21 (UP) - Among the 11 state measures that will be on the general election ballot Nov. 2 are bills to amend the state's 1931 hydroelectric act and to create a woods camp for delinquent boys.

Probably no measure on the ballot has stirred up as much controversy as the hydroelectric amendment. In the 1947 legislature this measure was known as "senate bill 99." It was passed by both houses, vetoed by the late Gov. Earl Snell, then passed over the veto.

Public power and farm organizations, spearheading the opposition, invoked a referendum petition to let the voters decide the fate of the bill.
