Oregon Favored To Beat Cougars; Selections Made

By Oscar Fraley
(United Press Sports Writer)

New York, Oct. 21 (UP)—A leading contributor to dollar delinquency—Fraley's follies and the week end football "winners."

National
Army over Cornell—The common denominator in Harvard, beaten 40-6 by Cornell and 20-7 by Army. Same name: two different teams. And you have to go with a rugged Army line and crack backfield which looks better every week. The seven point spot doesn't look big enough, either.

Michigan over Minnesota—This easily could be an upset but the nod goes to Michigan from the record. A fairly even line battle with Michigan holding a backfield edge. With 12 points, Minnesota appears a good thing. Add famous last words.

The East
Penn over Navy—The tenth torpedo.
Penn State over Michigan State—Don't risk a sou.

Harvard over Dartmouth—The blueplate special.
Indiana over Pittsburgh—Hoo-sier choice?

Vanderbilt over Yale—The Bulldog overrate last week.
Also: Columbia over Princeton, Holy Cross over Colgate, Rutgers over Lehigh, Brown over Connecticut, B.U. over NYU, Georgetown over Fordham, W. & M. over St. Bonaventure and Lafayette over Bucknell.

The Midwest
Notre Dame over Iowa—The "Irish" don't even need their luck.
Purdue over Illinois—They're marching now.

Ohio State over Wisconsin—Hello, Harry.
Northwestern over Syracuse—Big bulles.

Also: Missouri over Iowa State, Kentucky over Marquette, Kansas over Nebraska, Colorado over Kansas State and Miami, O., over Ohio U.

The West
California over Washington—Bear with me.
Oregon over Washington State—Bounce me gently, baby.

Southern Cal over Stanford—Don't say no.
Oregon State over UCLA—Say maybe.

Also: St. Mary's over Denver, Idaho over Montana, and Utah over Wyoming.

The Southwest
Texas over Rice—With cream and sugar.
Baylor over Texas Aggies—Buried deep.

S.M.U. over Santa Clara—On the lone prairie.
Oklahoma over TCU—Strictly from flip.

Also: Oklahoma A. & M. over Temple, and Nevada over Tulsa.

The South
Alabama over Mississippi State—Blueplate dessert.
North Carolina over L.S.U.—Another whistle stop.

Mississippi over Boston College—Fine southern hospitality.
Clemson over South Carolina—I'll have the same, governor.

Also: Tulane over Auburn, Georgia Tech over Florida, Georgia over Miami, Tennessee over Tennessee Tech, VMI over Virginia, Duke over VPI, and N. C. State over Chattanooga.

2 Colored Stars May Be on Bench

Reno, Nev., Oct. 21 (UP)—Two of the University of Nevada's stars may be flying to Tulsa today just for the ride.

Backfield ace Sherman Howard and Alva Tabor may have to sit on the bench Saturday when their teammates play against Tulsa university because the state of Oklahoma has a law against colored players appearing on athletic fields against white players.

Nevada coach Joe Sheeketski said Tulsa university officials had reminded him of the law. He said there was no definite commitment made as to the policy to be followed and that he plans to "meet the situation when and if it arises."

"I want to make it plain right now," said Sheeketski, "that Nevada is not making any rash statements about this issue. I realize that Tulsa must obey the laws of its state and I say unqualifiedly that if we learn in Tulsa that Howard and Tabor can't play, that will end the matter."

Will Not Argue
"Even though it takes away 10 or 15 per cent of my team's playing efficiency, I'm not going to argue the point. If my boys can play, I'll be happy. If they can't, they'll sit on the bench beside me and help dope out ways to beat Tulsa."

Howard is Nevada's first string fullback and Tabor handles the Wolfpack's T-system plays when Quarterback Stan Heath is out of the game.

Rose Bowl Trip Ban Now Looms

Ann Arbor, Mich., Oct. 21 (UP) University of Michigan officials said today they were "definitely" against any change in Big Nine rules to allow the Wolverines to make a trip to the Rose Bowl again on Jan. 1.

Herbert O. (Fritz) Crisler, Michigan's athletic director and Prof. Ralph W. Algier, Michigan Big Nine representative, agreed that it would be a "breach of faith" to alter the rule which prohibits a Big Nine team from going to Pasadena more than once in three years.

Some sentiment in favor of a change sprang up when Michigan defeated Northwestern last Saturday, 28 to 0, and thus became favored to repeat as Big Nine champion. But Algier said "any of the first five teams" in the Big Nine would be a worthy representative.
