

Betty Calder Wed Saturday To R. F. Wyatt

Betty Lea Calder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Calder, of Carroll Acres, became the bride of Robert Franklin Wyatt at a candlelight ceremony Saturday evening at the True Gospel church. The newlyweds have returned from a short wedding trip, and are at home at 424 East Kearney.

The vows were exchanged at 7 p.m., with Rev. Harriett E. Marling officiating. Candelabra and baskets of pink and white chrysanthemums decorated the chancel.

Mrs. Charles Ross played the wedding marches and accompanied the vocalists. Frederick Ross sang "Always" as a solo number. Duets were "Hand in Hand," by Miss Patricia Hagan, of Prineville, and Ross, and "I Love You Truly," by Miss Hagan and Miss Lois Stewart.

Attendants Named

Mrs. Jarne Rasmussen, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Miss Leta Zufelt was bridesmaid. Vicki Lee Rasmussen, the bride's 3-year-old niece, was flower girl. She was dressed in white and scattered rose petals which she carried in a small basket.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a light grey suit, with pink accessories. Her hat was trimmed with pink feathers. She carried a white Bible, with a spray of pink carnations.

The attendants wore suits. Mrs. Rasmussen was in navy blue, and Miss Zufelt was in grey. Both wore corsages of pink carnations. James Rasmussen acted as best man. Ushers were Oscar and Carl Wyatt, brothers of the bridegroom.

Reception Held

After the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors. Mrs. Ed Wilson cut the wedding cake, and Mrs. Ernest Reid, Mrs. Otis Garrett and Mrs. George DuBois assisted with the serving.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding and reception included Mr. and Mrs. Edward D. Wilson and family, of Westwood, Calif.; William Hoyt, of Redding, and Elmer Hoyt, of Fairfax, uncles of the bridegroom, and Mrs. M. J. White, of Chico, the bridegroom's grandmother.

The bride, who attended Bend high school, is employed at the Newberry store. Wyatt was graduated from Bend high school and is employed by the S. P. & S. railroad. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. Wyatt, of 1550 Elgin.

Public Invited To Take Part In Hobby Show

Application blanks are available at the Deschutes county public library for exhibitors who wish to enter the hobby and handicraft show to be held Sunday, December 5. The announcement was made today by officers of the Bend branch of the American Association of University Women, who are sponsoring the affair.

The show will be held in the library auditorium, with the doors to be open from 1 to 9 p.m. The public is invited to participate, both by entering exhibits and viewing the show. Paintings, woodwork, ceramics, textiles, model planes and trains, stamp and doll collections and other hobbies will be shown.

Entry blanks must be turned in by November 24. It was announced. They should be filled in and submitted either to Miss Eleanor Brown, at the library, or mailed to Mrs. C. E. Stranahan, 720 South Fifth street.

Three judges will select winners in three age groups. There will be a section for children up to 12, another for young people between the ages of 12 and 18, and another for adults. Ribbons will be awarded winners in the two younger groups.

Exhibitors will be welcome to remain with their exhibits in the library, it was announced. Members of the AAUW will also be in attendance the entire time.

Rebekah lodge will have a regular meeting Friday at 8 p.m. at the I.O.O.F. hall. On the refreshment committee will be Mrs. Kenneth Arnold, Mrs. Ruth Barnes, Mrs. J. J. Berrigan, Mrs. P. R. Buckingham and Mrs. Earl Zeek.

Donors of Roses For New Garden Named by Club

Fifty-seven rose bushes have been donated for the new rose garden in Pioneer park, it was reported today by officers of the Bend Garden club, sponsors of the project. The initial planting of 20 roses was made last week, and 31 others are expected to arrive in a few days.

Roses have been donated by the Grange Hall ladies aid, Mrs. Fred Gibson, for the Pythian Sisters; Mrs. A. E. Stevens, for the Rebekahs; Pythian Sisters, C. H. Bishop, the Eagles lodge and Mrs. J. L. Cunningham, in addition to the first two dozen purchased by the garden club.

The Garden club will have a regular meeting Friday at 2 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Virgil Surfus, 223 St. Helens. Members are asked to bring arrangements of evergreens, to be judged for points. Mrs. John Mihelich, as program chairman, will discuss decorative arrangements for the Thanksgiving table.

Theta Ktho girls will join with the Redmond club for a potluck dinner and meeting Wednesday at 6 p.m. in Redmond. The local members will meet at 5:45 p.m. tomorrow at the I. O. O. F. hall, where transportation will be provided.
