Bridal Couple At Home Here

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dale Storaasli have returned from a honeymoon trip to Portland, and are at home at 25 Louisiana avenue. They were married Friday morning, Dec. 3, at a 9 o'clock ceremony at Trinity Lutheran church.

The bride, the former Phyllis Robinson, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Robinson, of 153 Lafayette. She was graduated from Bend high school, and is employed as a telephone operator. Storaasli, who is a graduate of Crook county high school in Prineville, is also a telephone company employe. He is the son of Mrs. Norma Freudenthal and Oscar Storaasli, both of Prineville.

For the wedding, the bride wore a grey dress with matching accessories, and a red rosebud corsage. Her only attendant was Miss Roma McComb, who wore a green two-piece dress. Her corsage was of yellow roses.

John R. Miller acted as best man at the double-ring ceremony. Rev. Vincent S. Larson officiated.

Episcopal Guild Ends Year With Christmas Party

Trinity Episcopal guild finished a successful year with a Christmas party Tuesday afternoon at the parish hall. The affair featured a gift exchange and a tea hour, following a business meeting at which new officers were elected.

Mrs. J. K. Beckius, Mrs. George Blinn and Mrs. S. M. Sorenson were named as presiding executives. Mrs. Philip F. Brogan is treasurer, Mrs. George A. Silkworth, recording secretary, and Mrs. R. T. Forrest, corresponding secretary. The slate of officers was presented by the nominating committee and accepted as submitted.

Other business at the meeting included plans for Christmas baskets for shut-ins and gifts for residents at the Cottage hospital. Rev. G. R. V. Bolster addressed the gathering briefly before the close of the meeting. In expressing Christmas and New Year's greetings, he congratulated the guild on past efforts and wished the group every success in the coming year. He stressed that the success of their work is dependent upon the loyalty and faithfulness of the individual members, and urged those present to put "first things first," not allowing social events and other trivialities to obscure their obligations to their organization and its work for the church.

Before the tea hour, the women joined in singing Christmas carols, and participated in a gift exchange. Mrs. Don Denning read an appropriate Christmas story. Refreshments were served from a beautifully decorated tea table. The centerpiece was a home-made gingerbread house. Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Sorenson, Mrs. Denning and Mrs. Don Pritchett.

Christmas Party Planned By Madras Garden Club

Madras, Dec. 9 (Special)—The Madras Garden club is busy with elaborate plans for the group's first annual Christmas party, at which husbands of the members will be special guests. The affair will be held Wednesday evening, Dec. 15, at the Madras community hall.

Decorations for the party will feature native greenery, juniper and pine boughs. It was decided at a recent meeting at the home of Mrs. Evan W. Thomas.

UNIT TO EXCHANGE GIFTS

The Alfalfa home extension unit will meet December 15 at 10:30 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Lester Wiek. It was announced. The project at this meeting will be "Spotting and Pressing." Project leaders Zita Campbell and Nancy Lanzarotta will be in charge. A pot luck luncheon will be served and a Christmas gift exchange is scheduled.

Rebekahs to Hold Initiation Friday

Initiation for a class of candidates will be held at the regular meeting of the Rebekah lodge, tomorrow night at the I.O.O.F. hall. It is expected that there will be one candidate from Terrebonne, as well as four from Sisters and one Bend resident. Members of other lodges in the district have been invited to attend, and Rebekahs who are visiting in Bend were urged to be present. The meeting will start at 8 p.m.

Mrs. Ernest Gough is chairman of the refreshment committee, which also includes Mrs. Paul Brookings, Mrs. Maud Bevans, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Leland, Mrs. Arminia Cole, R. E. Burleigh and Mrs. A. B. Burleigh.

Final degree practice will be held tonight at 7:45 p.m. Mrs. Fred Gibson, degree captain, urged all members who will participate in the initiation to be present.

Patriotic Club Has Election

Mrs. Ethel Q. Wilson, of Bend, was elected president of the Central Oregon chapter, Gold Star Mothers, at a meeting held yesterday at the home of Mrs. H. L. Halsey, in Prineville. Other officers named are: Mrs. Frank McDonald, Redmond, first vice president; Mrs. I. T. Powell, Bend, second vice president; Mrs. Bernice Towner, Bend, secretary-treasurer, and Mrs. Earl G. Gregg, Bend, chaplain. Appointive officers will be announced later.

Ten members were present for the meeting, which was followed by a gift exchange. Mrs. T. L. Quinn, of Prineville, assisted the hostess in the serving of refreshments. Officers will be installed January 12, with meeting place to be announced later.

SURPRISE PARTY HELD

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Isaak, who are to leave soon to make their home in Seattle, Wash., were feted at a surprise going-away party at their home, 1006 Milwaukee, this week, with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Anderson and Mr. and Mrs. Loyal Rhodes sponsoring the affair. Other present were Mr. and Mrs. Shiri Harmon, Mr. and Mrs. Gifford Briggs, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Helzer and Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Loy.
